

LOCALS

Mrs. Fickle is now on her vacation.

Walter Reinkin is now in charge of the garbage wagon.

The corn which was planted in the old pig pen lot is doing nicely.

Howell Breeden has transferred from the garden to the farm detail.

A larger crop of potatoes than we had last year is expected for this season.

John Hansen, a new student at Chemawa, is now working in the engine room.

Miss Dohse is in Portland spending her vacation as the guest of Mrs. Tapp.

Mr. Van Tassel is expected home next Monday. He spent his annual vacation in Southern Oregon.

Mr. Fickle, accompanied by Robert Downie and Henry Fleming, went to Salem for a laundry wringer since our last issue.

According to newspaper reports Miss Irene Campbell has been playing great tennis at the tournament in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Brewer and daughters, Miss Gertrude and Ruth, were to depart for Tacoma, Wash., yesterday to spend their vacation.

Miss Hallie Chalcraft left on Monday in company with her cousin, Mrs. Bristow of Portland, for a week's visit at the Newport beach.

We are informed that Mr. Mudge is on a hunting trip in Southern Oregon. These trips are becoming annual affairs with Mr. Mudge.

Mr. Enright can now be found again at the tailor shop. He had a fine vacation he says, but was busy every minute looking after the building of a house and other improvements on his Polk county property.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods are now enjoying their leave of absence. They are to be the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Rhodes, at Tillamook, Oregon.

Rev. Mr. Rees, who at one time conducted the services at Chemawa but who is now filling a call to the Beaverton pulpit, expects to make his Chemawa friends a visit tomorrow.

Mr. Swoboda is on his vacation, and accompanied by his wife left for Portland and vicinity on Wednesday. The two girls are visiting friends at St. Louis, about 15 miles from the school.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaw and son, arrived at the school during the week from their home in Yakima, Wash. They were on an automobile tour. Mr. McCaw was a pupil at Chemawa thirty years ago.

Misses Royer and White are home again after spending their vacation visiting various points of interest in the Northwest. They spent some time as the guests of friends at Browning, Montana.

The pupils of the school were treated to an ice cream social last week. There was a "pick-up" band in charge of Mr. Swoboda on hand to furnish the music and liven things up. Altogether it was a most enjoyable evening for the pupils.

Catholic Fathers Moore, Cronin and Schoener visited Chemawa last week. We are pleased to state that it has been arranged for Father Schoener to take charge of the Catholic services and instruction of Catholic pupils at Chemawa.
