

LOCALS

Supt. Egbert, of Siletz, was a Chemawa visitor during the week.

During the week the work of repairing and strengthening the fence near the hospital has been in progress.

We hear that some girls are practicing very hard for an entertainment that they intend to give after Thanksgiving.

Mr. Fickle has brought a pair of spectacles to this office to be mentioned in the "Lost" column. Owner will please call for them.

Miss Skipton and others who were interested are to be congratulated upon the decorations at the pupils' dining hall on Thanksgiving.

Dr. W. B. Henneberger, government veterinary surgeon, of Portland, has been at Chemawa during the week inspecting and testing our dairy herd.

Paul Liphart was taken to the Salem hospital on Tuesday to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The operation was performed on Wednesday morning.

Willie Flette returned to school on Monday from his home in Spokane, Wn. He also brought with him Elmer Destele, who is going to attend school here.

On Monday the change of school will take place, those going to school in the morning will go in the afternoon, and those going in the afternoon will go in the morning.

We are in receipt of a devotional service program rendered recently at the Tulalip school. Owing to lateness of receipt and lack of space we were obliged to hold it for our next issue.

We hope to give an account of our Thanksgiving football games in our next issue, as we are compelled to go to press too early to have it this week.

We are always entertained by Grace S. Benjamin and Esther G. Napoleon at any time. Grace sings for us, while Esther plays on the guitar. We all enjoy it very much. We expect and hope to hear them all the time.

The boys at Mitchell Hall will have to look to their laurels, as the boys of Brewer Hall are fast coming to their own, in many ways. There are several rooms at Brewer Hall that are very cozy and the details from the companies keep the building in good order throughout the day.

The Thanksgiving exercises given by the pupils this year were beyond doubt the best held in Chemawa in many years. The pupils did excellently and should be abundantly encouraged by all. The corps of teachers, too, should be congratulated upon the success which crowned their efforts.

Our Junior basketball squad will journey to Dallas today try conclusions with the Dallas High School. We are dubious as to the outcome, but with Olsen, Downie, Jacobs, Wilcox, Robert Service, Hanbury, and others to represent us we feel that we shall be given a chance to give three 'Raahs for victory.

On Saturday afternoon a game of football was played between two teams composed of boys from Oregon and boys from Washington. Trick plays and forward passes were used in abundance. Thirty-minute quarters were played on account of it being an important and a championship game. The game ended at supper time with the score standing 18 to 8 in favor of the Oregon boys.
