

LOCALS

The south steps of Brewer Hall were repaired last week by the carpenters.

John Wanaka Crane is a new addition to the farm detail.

Grover Colby, ex-student, is here visiting friends. We were all glad to see Grover.

Robert Downie, the "Devil" in the printing office, still works on the forenoon detail.

Burney Wilson and Nick Hatch worked all day on Monday in order to finish a suit of clothes.

Our second team is practicing hard to win the game tomorrow against the Willamette Lawyers.

The harness makers put up a new stove in their shop during the week. They must expect a cold winter.

The old and broken screens at McBride Hall were taken out last week by the carpenters and were replaced by new ones.

Clarence Cooper, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural College, passed his Thanksgiving vacation with his parents here at Chemawa.

The fast second team has made a very good record this year under the leadership of Capt. Talbot, a summary will be given in the next issue.

Mr. Kenneth Kanty of Tacoma, Wash., now employed by the B. F. Goodrich Co., Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Brewer and family on Thanksgiving Day.

George Ferris, a brother of Viola Ferris, spent a few days at the school within the week visiting his sister and friends. He is a former Carlisle student and is a machinist by trade.

Robert Cameron has been ill for some time, but is now improving in his health. Bob makes a daily trip to the hospital to see if he is gaining in weight. We all wish you speedy recovery, Bob.

On Thanksgiving Day the Englewood football team of Salem played on the local gridiron. This was a one-sided affair and was not interesting, as it proved by the score of 53 to 0 in our favor.

A few new rules went into effect in Mitchell Hall during the week. The interior appearance of this building has improved very much since daily inspection has been taking place. But there is still room for improvement.

Mr. Gillett is not only a good farmer but a gardener of some class as well, to judge from the celery which he contributed for the Thanksgiving dinner of the entire school. It was of the finest quality and large quantities and was raised in his little house garden.

Tomorrow our second team of football gladiators will wage battle against an aggregation from the law department of Willamette University. The contest will occur on our field and will be free. The fact that this is scheduled as a free game is because of a desire on the part of the management to make good to the students who paid to see two games on Thanksgiving, but were disappointed, as were Manager Smith and others, by the non-appearance of the Piedmont Athletic Club team of Portland. This looks a square deal to the students and we hope that they will see it this way.
