

LOCALS

Sunshine on Wednesday.

Silas Moon is visiting at the school.

Sleds are beginning to boom up.

Many new pupils have arrived at the school.

Rain, hail, snow, sleet, frost, and wind.
Great combination eh!

Remember the league game tommorow night at the gymn.

And still he continues to grow. Who?
Why Howell Breeden of course.

Elia Evans returned to Chemawa on Monday evening from Washington.

Harry Jones is now attending day school at the Capital Business College.

Our first basketball team now has a training table. Watch the hash disappear.

Arthur Van Pelt is busy solving the Junior class course of study. "Old Pete" is a bright lad.

Robert Downie, our "devil" has proven himself capable of performing all duties of that office.

Raymond Ready, our "sub devil" has been laid up for the past week with an excavated molar.

On Monday evening the entire student body assembled in the chapel to practice singing.

Nicholes Hatch of Unga, Alaska, worked a couple of days at the Salem Wollen Mills Store in Salem of late, Nick is a handy man.

We see by the papers that the recent silver thaw storms done considerable damage to railways and telephone lines in and about Portland.

The Reliance Society report was late this week, all other reports coming in on Monday. We hope that the reporter will be more prompt and show more interest in the work of his society. A lack of promptness show a lack of interest.

CURIOUS FACTS.

An average acre of corn yields 28 bushels.

The United States imports a million lobsters a year.

Detached bits of human skin live two to ten days.

Roses came from Persia, and into Persia from India.

In Liverpool the population is 63,823 to the square mile.

London is better off for trees than any other city in Europe.

Over 100,000 hogshead of tobacco are now stored at Liverpool.

Three-fourths of the world's coffee is produced in Brazil.

The first Bible printed in America was Elliot's Indian version, 1658-1663.

The average rate of freight in France is nearly a cent and a half a ton per mile.

The monkey wrench was invented by Thomas Monkey of Bordentown, N. J.

Four new lighthouses have been erected recently on the coasts of the Red Sea.

A copy of the first edition of Robinson Crusoe sold recently in London for $1,225.

The United States Steel Company alone produces twice as much steel as Great Britain.