

LOCALS

A junior Y. M. C. A. was organized on Tuesday evening.

The carpenters are busy repairing the skylights of the gym.

Mrs. Harold was at the school on Monday, visiting Mrs. Brewer.

Levi Sortor and John Robinson are cutting cord wood for Mr Gillett

The girls' basketball team practiced in the big gym on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Cooper returned to the school last week after spending his vacation at Corvallis, Oregon.

Nick Q. Hatch was left in charge of the tailoring department while Mr. Enright was absent on Tuesday.

Roy Van Pelt and Herbert Reinken made themselves each a very good pair of trousers last week. These boys are very good at the business.

Robert Cameron left for Lapwai, Idaho, on Monday. He will go to the government sanatorium where he will be treated for his sickness. We are all sorry to have Bob leave us, but we wish him speedy recovery.

A pay social was held on Monday to purchase some books for the Catholic students. Candy, cake and coffee were sold and a general good time resulted. The band furnished good music for the social and everybody retired in high spirits.

The "milk tossers," or dairymen, played the carpenters a very rough and fast game on Friday evening. The dairymen having a little more class and science about their playing and tossing, came out at the big end to the tune of 48 to 2.

Mr. W. S. Webb of Southern Oregon has been at the school for a few days, the guest of Messrs. Mann and Van Tassel. He is a very pleasant gentleman.

The first team made so many baskets the last game they played that they wore the baskets out so Mr. Smith was obliged to repair them on Tuesday.

A few days ago Mr. Van Tassel received the sad intelligence that his father had just died at his home in Ohio. Death, the great reaper, claims all of us in time, but there is a sting that is always sorrowing to those who are left to mourn the departed.

Last Monday was the birthday of Miss Alice Chalcraft and the occasion was fittingly observed. a large number of her young friends were invited to "The Cottage" in the evening and games, music and merriment had full sway to the enjoyment of all.

Supt. Chalcraft is in receipt of a letter from Richard D. Collins who is now at his home in Klawack, Alaska. While here at Chemawa Richard was quite a prominent band man and he is still carrying on his cornet studies we are pleased to state. He sent a photo of himself, cornet in hand. We are glad to learn that he contemplates returning to Chemawa.

Mrs Josephine T. Brown, who has been teaching here during the winter, recently accepted a transfer back to the Fort Simcoe school and took her departure for that place on Wednesday evening. During her residence at Chemawa Mrs. Brown made many friends and left here declaring it to be her intention to return some day, as she liked Chemawa.
