

LOCALS

This is Ground Hog day. Can you see the pig?

Miss White made a trip to Salem on Wednesday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Liphart have been on the sick list within the week.

On Wednesday Levi Sorter killed a big jack rabbit near the school. It is the largest ever seen in this part of the country.

Lee Evans and Harry Jones are painting additions to the background scenery which they have finished. Lee is also painting a red rooster for Mr. Pugh, which he will send to the Red Rooster mine down in Southern Oregon.

On Wednesday evening Dr. Fulkerson gave a lecture of more than ordinary interest to the students assembled in chapel. Tuberculosis formed the main topic of discussion, but many points of value to the young people were introduced which had no direct bearing on the main subject.

The musical club, B-natural, under the direction of Miss Gertrude Brewer, expects to entertain friends in the near future. We have met a few times and planned the coming meetings, which are all in the music line, and we expect to get much help from playing in our meetings.

"CHAMBER-MUSIC" EVENING.

Last Saturday evening was one of our notable musical nights and the splendid program of classical and semi-classical numbers was given without a hitch in any particular. Mrs. Vera Schaupp Frickey, well known in Salem as a pianist of unusual ability, was the soloist of the evening and her playing on this occasion was of such a high order that no one can question her position among pianists. Her work was magnificent.

All of those who participated are entitled to congratulations on their successes. They, one and all, did excellently. In every way the affair was a credit to performers and the school. Following is the program rendered:

Trio in C-major - - - Haydn
Miss Gertrude Brewer, Ruthyn Turney, Chas. E. Larsen.
