

LOCALS

William Mose is visiting friends here at the school.

Song services were held in the chapel on Monday evening.

Many of the students are departing for their different homes.

Mr. Bartram is again on duty after an illness of a couple of weeks.

Mr. Gillett and his boys are busy blasting stumps east of the school.

Thomas McCully of Salem was a visitor at the school on Monday.

The band gave a good concert in the bandstand on Sunday afternoon.

Tracy Hatch and wife were visitors at the school on Sunday from Salem.

The athletic council held a meeting in Mr. Smith's office on Monday morning.

Mr. Westley says that we will have lots of fruit this year and he is glad of it.

Mr. Joseph Teabo was a visitor at the school from Grande Ronde on Monday.

The gardeners brought a good load of onions to the school kitchen on Monday morning.

The gardeners are busy cultivating the strawberries east of the academic building this week.

Mrs. Emma Crosby, sister of Mrs. Liphart, was a visitor at the school from Salem, on Sunday.

A dress parade was held on Sunday afternoon. The boys are in good trim for commencement.

Mr. Mitchell and his boys leveled off the tennis court west of Mr. Chalcraft's cottage on Tuesday.

A number of the boys are out every evening training for the field meets that are coming in the future.

Silas moon went to Portland, where he has employment with a paving company, on Saturday.

The final try-out for this year's relay team was held on Thursday. We expect this to be a winning team.

The girls took advantage of the fine weather on Sunday by going out walking. All report having had a good time.

A few of the employes and students went to Salem on Monday evening to hear Senator La Follette talk in the opera house.

Harry Jones and Luther Clements left for Grande Ronde on Saturday to take part in Mr. Teabo's minstrel show, which was given there that evening.

Frank and George Paratrovitch, Alex Davis, William Walters and William Chuck left for their homes in Alaska on Sunday night. We are all sorry to have them leave us.

On Sunday afternoon some one left the ladder down in the bear pit and all of the bears got out. Everyone was excited and had lots of fun getting them back into the pit.

The Excelsior and Reliance societies held their joint party in the Gym on last Thursday evening. Different games were played throughout the evening in which every one had a pleasant time. At a late hour refreshments were served, after which the party was over and all left for their different quarters.

IN ORDER TO SECURE a change of address, subscribers to THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN must give old as well as new address to insure prompt attention.....