

LOCALS

Ed Lynch went out to work eight miles east of Salem on Tuesday.

On last Tuesday the senior class started to have their final examinations.

Many of the students went to Salem on Friday last to see the Animal Show.

Our relay boys received new spiked shoes this week. Watch the record time get smashed.

Jay Hawley is now playing alto in the band and McKinley Williams is beating the drum.

Mr. Pickering Chalcraft was ill for a day or so during the first of the week, but is now all right again.

Last Saturday our first baseball team went to Corvallis to play O. A. C. and was defeated by a score of 9 to 0.

The band had a very good practice last Monday evening. The band boys' only wish is that they could have more practice.

James Evans, a senior member of our printing staff, made a week-end visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Henry Dillstrom, at Perrydale, Or.

Tomorrow morning the Annual Salem-Portland relay race will start. We expect this to be a very close and interesting race this year. Who will win?

Mrs. Evelyn Rhodes, who for the past two weeks or longer has been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, returned to her home in Tillamook, Oregon, on Monday.

Last Saturday evening an athletic ice cream social was held in the gym. Much icecream was sold and everyone spent a very enjoyable evening. The band furnished good music during the evening.

In our last issue we spoke of the death of Mr. Woods' brother as having occurred in England. This was a mistake—he died in Ogden, Utah, at which place he had resided for many years and where he was highly esteemed as an architect of unusual ability.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hincks and two children have been at Chemawa within the week. Mr. Hincks is connected with Irrigation Project in the Indian Service and his headquarters are in Los Angeles, California. He is now looking into matters with the service in the Northwest and while in Chemawa was on business in Salem, the capital city.

Last Saturday a game of baseball was played between the Freaks and Pick-Ups. So many runs were made on both sides that you would have to use half a dozen score cards to mark down the runs. No one knows who won. Soon after this game our junior team played the junior team from East Salem. They were no match for our heavy hitters. Our boys made so many runs that no one kept track of them.

On last Friday evening the "chamber-music" organization of Chemawa played for the Sisters and their friends of Sacred Heart Academy in St. Joseph's Hall, Salem. Supt. Chalcraft accompanied the party. A splendid program was rendered and was well received. The personnel of performers follows: Ruthyn Turney, Miss Maude Lowry, Miss Rena Mann, Willie Ready, violins; Pickering Chalcraft, viola; Chas. E. Larsen, 'cello; Miss Fannie Adams, double bass; Miss Gertrude Brewer and Miss Emma Shepard, piano.
