

LOCALS

Nick Orloff is making himself a writing desk by taking pointers of Peter Alphas.

Simeon Fratis and Mr. Carroll are repairing the fences, gates, etc., around the grounds.

John Stankus returned to school on Monday after making a brief visit at Grande Ronde.

On last Friday, Philip Darrow, Charles and Frank Johnson left for their home in Shakan, Alaska.

On last Saturday the members of the methodist church went to Salem, where they held their Sunday services.

Mr. Cooper, who is in charge of the fence builders, has started to build an entire new fence around Old Chemawa.

The race track was disked and was smoothed over with a clod masher last week. It will soon be in fine condition.

The cupboard just made in the carpenter shop is now being painted by Mr. Sanders. It will soon be in use at the "Mess" kitchen.

The carpenter shop is a busy place these times, there being so many small affairs to attend, as we are getting ready for commencement.

Miss Wechter had as guests at the concert last Saturday evening her sister, Miss Iva Wechter, and her chum, Miss Esther Plumer, of Salem.

One dozen storm windows have been made at the carpenter shop and are now in the paint shop being painted. They will soon be installed at the cow barn.

Alex Melevideo is repairing hurdles which have been broken on the race track. The hurdles are constantly being used these days by the boys who are going to take part in the coming field meet.

On last Saturday our baseball nine journeyed to Salem to play the Willamette University team. It was a very fast and interesting ten-inning game, which ended with the score of 5-4 in their favor.

On last Saturday Raymond Ready's bicycle met with a serious accident. It was considerably bent and broken up, but is now being repaired. Raymond has purchased a new tire which is to take the place of the exploded one. With the exceptions of a few minus spokes and screws his bicycle is all ready for use.

On Monday evening the citizens of the State of Progress met in the sitting room of Mitchell Hall for the purpose of electing State officers, who were as follows: Kiutus Jim, governor; Gideon Hanbury, lieutenant-governor; Joseph Dunbar, attorney general; Walter Miller, justice of peace; Edward Stanger, secretary of state; Nick Hatch, secretary of legislature; Tom Powers, clerk of the court.

The carpenter shop has received a carload of good lumber, which is very acceptable.

Mr. Woods has been planning a drawing for lantern lights to be used in the plumber shop.

IN ORDER TO SECURE a change of address, subscribers to THE CHEMAWA AMERICAN must give old as well as new address to insure prompt attention.....