

LOCALS

We shall soon be eating strawberries, cherries and hay—what's that?

The tall grass in the cemetery was mowed down by the farmers on Tuesday.

Say, Powers, what made you look around in the 100-yd dash on last Saturday?

On Tuesday morning Mr. Pugh was kept busy mowing the lawn in the school yard.

Mr. Hall and his force of plumbers repaired a broken steam pipe at the gymnasium on Tuesday.

The gardeners are busy planting potatoes this week in the large tract of land east of the cemetery.

Tomorrow our baseball team will journey to Oak Grove, where they will play the Hopewell Maroons at a picnic.

A heavy crop of vetch is expected this year on account of the recent rain. It is now very heavy on the piece of land east of the hospital.

Examinations are on in full blast in the academic building. All of the grades were expected to finish in all their studies by the end of the week.

We have had quite a spell of rainy weather of late. Whether we had just enough, too much, or still lack a little probably depends on the view-point.

WANTED—All kinds of gentleman's clothes cleaning, pressing and repairing at most reasonable prices. Best of work and satisfaction guaranteed.—NICK K. HATCH.

Bettie, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clardy, has been quite ill for the past week or longer and a trained nurse was employed to attend her. She is now much better.

Many who witnessed Johnnie Service's performance in the high jump during the field meet last Saturday think that he is the prettiest natural high jumper that they ever saw.

Ruby John arrived with her mother on Saturday from Smith River, Calif., and enrolled as a pupil. Her mother, Mrs. Green, will remain a few days to visit her other children.

We are all pleased to learn that Rena Mann is improving. While still very sick, she is reported out of danger and improving as rapidly as can be hoped for under the circumstances.

Window screens have been made in the carpenter shop and are now being painted by Mr. Sanders and his assistant, Tom Powers. They will next be attached to the windows of the dining hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Caisse, now of the Pendleton school, have been at Chemawa during the past week on account of the condition of Miss Rena Mann, who recently had to undergo a surgical operation. Mrs. Caisse is a sister of Miss Rena.

Our chamber-music organization played a fine program on Wednesday evening in the Christian church in Salem. Following is the personnel of the organization: Ruthyn Turney, Miss Maude Lowry, Willie Ready, violins; Pickering Chalcraft, viola; Chas. E. Larsen, 'cello; Miss Fannie Adams, double bass; Misses Gertrude Brewer and Emma Shepard, piano.