Friends Give Farewell Party

Mrs. Geo. V. Naderman found it a very difficult task to keep the Martin's at home last Friday evening, as she had agreed to do in order that their friends could give the farewell surprise party they had planned. As there was a show in town and as Mr. Martin had to make a trip to Salem, she pronounced it a very hard task indeed.
About 8:30 o'clock a group of friends arrived with well filled baskets and took possession of the premises with Mrs. Lyle as leader and Mr. Thomas as assistant. The evening was passed pleasantly and all too quickly, in games, singing, readings and refreshments.
Just before the refreshments were served, Mr. Thomas made a very appropriate speech in which he presented the Martin's with a beautiful set of silver teaspoons, after which Mr. and Mrs. Martin responded with short talks, thanking their friends.
About 11:30 o'clock the guests departed after wishing the Martin's happiness and success in their new home.
Those present were: Messrs. G. A. G. Moore and Ralph Thomas; Messrs. and Mrs. James Chas. Bear; H. L. Earl; H. A. Thiessen and Usona; C. W. Hewitt and Laverne and Myron; Fred Gunnung; G. V. Naderman; Ivan Hadley; Mesdames Small; Whitehead; Barnett and Dorris; Geo. Moore and Eleanor, Dorothy and Agnes; Layton Mowery and Walter Rlee.

Women's Dress

Rev. Billy Sunday, the noted evangelist, who addressed a crowd of over 10,000 persons at the auditorium in Portland last Sunday, said among other things: "Any man who can look at the short-skirted, gum-chewing, bare-necked, frizz-headed, fad-gaping modern flapper without having a moral blizzard, should get a government pension."
Below we reproduce an editorial article which appeared in the Medical World, New York, of July, on women's dress under the caption, "Evil to him that evil thinks." The article reads: "The quotation seems to fit this particular case; for there are so many males in every walk of life who are concerned with the prevailing modes of women's dress that it does not speak well for their morality."
"What business of any man is it whether a woman wears high-heeled shoes, powders her nose, or hangs her skirt three inches from the ground, or seven, or even ten? If such bay-bodies would but polish up their morals, such matters would not worry them. Too many people concern themselves entirely too much over other people's affairs. We are minded of a remark attributed to Mr. Lincoln, who, when asked the proper length of a man's legs, aptly replied that in his opinion they should be of sufficient length to reach the ground."
"Things are moral or immoral according to custom. In certain parts of the world we have seen women who constantly exposed not only their necks, but their shoulders as well. And, horror of horrors, we have heard of unclothed men and women bathing in the same stream at the same time, and nothing was thought of it. That was perhaps for the reason that moral reformers, with their perverted notions, had not yet reached those remote climes."
"In Africa many tribes are naked. When, approached on the subject of covering of the body one chief wisely remarked that 'hiding makes food for curiosity.' A missionary one said that some Africans came to church grotesquely attired. One wore a silk hat and a boiled shirt only. One man had on a coat. They appalled the idea was to display clothing—like civilized races wear jewelry. The missionaries then gave up the idea of teaching them to wear civilization's cumbersome apparel and had them wear muslin shirts and knickerbockers in more comprehensible to the African mind, unguished to several layers of garments."
"In every age there have been those who for some inexplicable reason, unless it were a sexual psychopathia, declaimed against the prevailing feminine mode of the day, and they did it with no oily unctuousness often disgusting."
"We think it was a Japanese who in discussing this subject claimed that the corset, false hips, bustles and other diabolical torturing instruments, exaggerated the female form, led to him distinctly immoral. Perhaps the Jap was in the same class as some other bay-bodies."
"As a matter of fact, a woman dresses more modestly, more gracefully today than ever before; certainly more healthfully. She will change her mode when it suits her; and seeing that she is the one to be satisfied, what matter it to the rest of us? Therefore let us mind our own business."
"As physicians, would we like to see women return to the fifteen-inch waist, with its attendant red nose and even graver consequences?"

GREEK SOVEREIGN LAUDS WORK OF NEAR EAST RELIEF

Cables Thanks for Christian Lives Saved in "Beautiful Work" of Mercy

Athens, Greece.—The wonderful work done by the Near East Relief organization in saving the lives of tens of thousands of Christians throughout Asia Minor and Transcaucasia has received signal recognition in praise bestowed by Queen Sophie of Greece in a telegram dispatched by the Greek sovereign to Dr. James L. Barton, Chairman, and Charles V. Vickrey, Secretary, of the KING AND QUEEN OF GREECE.

Near East Relief organization, 1 Madison Ave., New York City. Her message reads:
"I deeply touched your great kindness towards Greek war sufferers in Straits Area and Asia Minor. Thank you all most sincerely. SOPHIE."

At the same time, the Greek queen sent her check to Dr. Barton, Chairman of the Near East Relief Committee, for 1,000 francs as a contribution to what she termed the "beautiful work" of feeding, clothing and housing the more than 110,000 little children who have come under the care of the Near East Relief during the past year.

Besides Queen Sophie, Adm. I. P. Coumouliotis, of the Royal Hellenic Navy, who was recent of Greece following the death of the late King Alexander, on October 25, last, has also cabled to express the gratitude of the Greek people for the aid furnished by the Near East Relief, Turkey by the Near East Relief. More than $120,000.00 was raised among the Greeks of the United States, in two weeks, and sent to the Near East by the Near East Relief.

It is an official report to Charles V. Vickrey, General Secretary of the Near East Relief, Miss Glee Hastings, of Spencer, Iowa, describes the pitiable condition of tens of thousands of homeless, starving, half-naked refugees, driven from their homes in the war area, and huddled in stables and out-houses, or on the bare ground, for lack of shelter.

"Most of the refugees are country people with almost nothing except the clothes on their backs, stunted and dazed by their misfortunes. Bread is given only to women and children at the rate of one-half loaf for a person, each day. The milk is reserved for the babies and sick. The refugees sit around, huddled up against the walls—women with dull, sad faces, little children that are blue and pinched with the cold, and too miserably lifeless to cry. One family of five sleeps at night on a bare stone floor, under one thin, ragged half-cotton blanket. In one room several women are wasting away with tuberculosis; in another are some severe eye cases, including two young blind girls, who have no one in the world to care for them. The overflow from these buildings live in a wooden shed with the walls and floors gapping with holes where the wood has rotted away and in tents improvised from rags and pieces of carpet.

A nation-wide appeal is being made to carry on this work, checks to be sent to Cleveland H. Dodge, Treasurer, 1 Madison Avenue, New York City.

U. S. ARMY HEAD ASKS ARMENIAN AID

Washington.—Major General James G. Harbord, recently appointed General Pershing's assistant Chief of Staff, has gone on record in support of the work of the Near East Relief in Armenia. He says, in a letter to the Near East Relief:
"Of all the heart-breaking distresses that exist in other countries, I believe that the Near East situation should most appeal to our charitable people. There are many thousands of helpless orphans—children of Christian parents in a Moslem land, who must be helped by our people if they are to survive. The Armenians have preserved their race, their religion and their language under conditions of distress for over a thousand years. They are worthy of a better fate than to perish, and I believe that will be their fate without substantial financial and moral support from the good people of our country."
"Major General, U. S. Army."
General Harbord is one of the trustees of the Near East Relief organization, now making a general appeal for funds to continue its work among the destitute of Bible lands.

Your Paint Dollar —How Big in 5 Years?

THE best paint will be good five or more years hence, if properly applied. Cheap paint, on the average, starts cracking in twelve months.
It's what paint covers that you want to save—not merely a few cents per gallon in first cost.
Cheap paint does not spread as easily or as far as good paint. So when you figure labor and square yards covered, cheap paint on the house costs as much as good paint.
Cheap paint in practically every instance, is the most expensive you can buy.
Don't allow surfaces to rot. It costs less to paint them.
The paints specified by Fuller are the result of 72 years experience in the making of all kinds of paints, varnishes, etc., for western use.
We use the best materials, PURE PIONEER WHITE LEAD, pure linseed oil, zinc and color as others do, but we combine them with a 72 years' knowledge and long-time skill.
Our white-lead base is finely ground pure white. It must pass through a silk screen with 40,000 meshes to the square inch. We use special machines for mixing the materials in scientifically exact proportions.
So Fuller colors are exceptionally clear-toned and Fuller House Paints are noted for covering capacity, ease of spread and great durability.
If you want from five or more years' protection for your property investment, get Fuller's western paint for western weather conditions—a paint you know.
