It wasn't the same Tony who had come fearfully to them but a short period before with the little pig in her arms; nor the same girl who had swung in the treetops making play fellows of the squirrels and answering the shrill calls of the forest birds. She seemed suddenly to have grown taller, and as she flung herself on Devon, the very strength of her little body sent him sprawling against the side of the cabin. "Now you killed her, d-n you," she screamed. "If you kick 'er -I'll-I'll-" She dropped at the side of her mother, her threat broken in two by the awful pallor on the woman's face. "Oh. God. mummy darlin'. mummy darlin'," she ended in a bitter cry.
