OF CURRENT WEEK

Brief Resume Most Important Daily News Items.

COMPILED FOR YOU

Events of Noted People, Governments and Pacific Northwest, and Other Things Worth Knowing.

Monday by Mayor Caldwell showed a decrease in the Seattle municipal street railway deficit during January, 1922, of $17,043.54.

Two large icebergs were reported in cutter Seneca. The Seneca is maintaining the international ice patrol.

Non-union coal miners in both an thracite and bituminous fields will join in large numbers with union miners in the coal strike April 1, John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, predicted Tuesday.

An unexpected snowslide at Alamo, with confidence in his own powers. B. C., has cut off the Queen Bess mine, where seven persons are reported isolated. Telephone communication has been established and it is learned the camp is provisioned for a month or more attention to home cellars this issue. year than ever before, according to "own your home" exposition at the passes admitting them to the proceed- for some time. room."

export large amounts of gold. In one week 515 cases of gold coins arrived premier's quaint or biting humor. brought 529 cases valued at $22,000,-000. It is understood that these parcels of gold only pass to America.

that joins them severed should either the preceding like a carpenter's joint, sand union miners in Kentucky also of them die of their present illness. Plans for the operation were completed Tuesday in Chicago. The two, Josepfa and Rosa Blazek, were defrom an attack of jaundice, news agency of the republic.

had been lost in the hospital and an order. expert from Pittsburg made a vain search of the city's sewers.

go out on the stump and orate.

ing Rock club, near Pittsburg, who charged he was being "railroaded" out of the country because of a love affair with Miss Virginia Craigle Mc-Judge Knox ruled Tuesday, in a decision on Probst's habeas corpus action. Probst was held, however, for further deportation proceedings.

Panic reigned in the Union Congregational church in Green Bay, Wis., fillment of this condition. Tuesday night when a bomb was thrown into an audience of 500 persons gathered to hear William E.

COMMONS BACKS PREMIER

London. - The house of commons Monday night, after an unexciting debate, adopted by the substantial ma Jority of 278 Premier Lloyd George's 100,000 Non-Union Workers Inresolution calling for confidence in the government's policy on the coming economic coference at Genoa. The vote was 372 to 94.

Prior to this the house by a vote f 397 to 84 rejected an amendment proposed by John Robert Clynes, labortte, which while approving an international economic and financial onference, dec ared that the government was not competent to represent the country at such a conference and Figures given out in Seattle, Wash., did not have the confidence of the retirement in the country, threw down nocuous Genoa resolution was tanta- soon. mount to a vote of confidence or lack of confidence in the government.

If Mr. Lloyd George has tired of ried in the army bill for river and by his bronzed face and quick step, the coal fields.

nection with the Genoa resolution, or fore the middle of next week. whether in view of the delicate po- President Lewis estimated that 6000 in Stockholm from Reval, while in was not an attempt at oratory such as ized fields, which were hit the hardest shall, chairman of the state industrial gallery called masterly handling of front as impossible. his audience. He coaxed, cajoled. Mines in western Canada were reated on and the connection of flesh each phase of the speech fitted in with Scotia were in operation. Five thou-

Ku Klux Eject Negro.

was caused here about midnight Sun- with a contract with the operators, clared to be in a serious condition day night, when the Ku Klux Klan which has another year to run. In Troops of the far eastern republic negro bootblack, who was alleged to remain in the mines to protect the her marriage, Miss Myrtle E. LaRowe her well out of your way. So you've are advancing steadily toward Vlad. have insulted several women, while in properties from damage, but reports left her home in this city Friday. She played the sneak while eating bread and ivostok, "pursuing the demoralized an intoxicated condition. The klans- to union headquarters here indicated will travel to Mazatlan, Mexico, where butter in my house, miss," she blurted and completely defeated bands of the men had attended a lecture and mo- that disputes had developed in Iowa, she will be wedded to Eugene Horn- at Tony. "Well, it's what one might Merkuloff troops," according to a tion picture given by the order and Montana and Washington as to the back, former Albany young man, who have expected of you-you huzzy." cablegram received in Washington following the programme it was re- wages to be paid these maintenance is now living on the island of Palmeto Tuesday from Chita by the Washing- ported to them that the negro had men. ton office of the "dalta," the official stopped women on the street and The union leaders in these states made insulting remarks to them.

Radium valued at $20,000 stolen careful search of the city was made, midnight be continued, while operafrom the side of a patient in the Ham- but the negro managed to get into tors were said to be seeking reducilton, Ont., city hospital while he was hiding and remained there. When tions, unconscious, has been located in Syra- located after daybreak he was given cuse, N. Y., it was learned Tuesday. 24 hours to leave the city and he im-It was at first thought that the radium mediately began to comply with the

Editor and Solon Clash.

The part of President Harding in Jackson, Miss .- A fisticuff occurred according to X-ray photographs taken the coming congressional campaign on the floor of the lower house Mon- after their death. the White House, where it was said live, and Frederick Sullens, editor of ed a continuous U-shaped spine and right to engage in the real estate busiwill be a silent one, it was learned at day between Jeff Collins, representathat the president is averse to taking the Daily News. The difficulty was also several vital organs in common. the stump on behalf of any congres- said to have been provoked by an The death was due to intestinal obsional candidates. Mr. Harding, it editorial in the Daily News which re- struction, according to George W. was said, leans toward the view that ferred to an alleged attempt of Mr. Brady, radiographer. it is not the part of the president to Collins to present adoption of a committee report that investigated the charges brought by Governor Russell

Bulgaria Fulfills Obligation.

most cordial and friendly terms in its of the law. consequence of the satisfactory ful-

Newspapers Cut Prices. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, world-famed pro- Republican announced Sunday night who was missing two hours. The fam- during the month and their combined hibitionist, deliver his address on that beginning on Monday the price ily and neighbors hunted the fields in cargoes amounted to 31,794,682 feet. "The New India." It was evident would be reduced from 3 cents to 1 vain. The dog conducted a search Twenty-six vessels with 20,643,215 feet from the action of the bomb that the cent a copy. The Springfield Union alone and trailed the child to a marsh, on board sailed for California. Eleven handling had shaken its contents, announced that the price of its even- where he was stuck in the mud. The vessels, laden with 7,702,224 feet, are causing it to explode in much the ing edition would be reduced from 2 boy told his mother that Marlow took en route to foreign ports, while four same manner as a defective fire crack- cents to 1 cent, with its morning edi- hold of his waist with his teeth and vessels carrying 3,549,223 feet went to tion remaining at 2 cents.

cluded in Figures.

Officials Do Not Expect Exact Showing for Whole Country to Be Known for Some Time.

of coal mining by union workers mark-In the earlier part of the session ed the beginning Saturday of the nathe house passed an hour and 20 min- tion-wide walkout ordered by the utes of such tenseness as it had not United Mine Workers of America.

The exact effectiveness of the susoffice, as his son announced Saturday, and part! organized fields, was difcitizen is urged to clean up and paint certainly he appeared in fighting ficult to gauge, however, because Sat- his property. The Ad club has apmood as he entered the house amidst urday also marked the anniversary of pointed committees, and the chair-The house Monday, by a 3-to-1 vote, a storm of cheering. His rest had the eight-hour work day in the coal man, H. H. Weatherspoon, urged the added $15,000,000 to the amount car- plainly benefited him, as evidenced industry with an annual holiday in improvement club to co-operate.

harbor improvements, disregarding and as he strode to the ministerial The reports from field leaders show state of Oregon through the operarecommendations of the budget bu- bench with a somewhat defiant atti- ed the great buik of the suspension tions of so-called stock fire insurreau and of the appropriations com- tude, his whole bearing was that of centered in Pennsylvania. West Vir- ance companies during the year 1921 a man entering upon a great fight ginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, aggregated $72,603, as against $106,544 with every determination to win and lows, Kansas and nearby southwestern for the year 1920, according to a restates.

being accentuated by conflicting re- what vague and union officials did ports on whether the premier would not expect an exact showing for the demand a vote of confidence in con- entire country would be available be-

Home sellers in Chicago are paying litical situation he would sidestep the of the 7500 mines in the country that Great crowds of people vainly bom- closed and in addition it was pointed exhibitors at Chicago's second annual barded the commons officials for out that 2500 mines have been idle

Coliseum. No 1922 cellar is consid- ings and the galleries were filled with In various fields - particularly in he is capable of, but was rather an by the suspension, the union leaders accident commission exhibition of what the critics in the regarded any break in their battle-> were scheduled under the union's programme to remain at work, Mr. Lewis Roseburg, Or. - Great excitement declaring that this was in harmony > were insisting that the wages pro Squads were quickly formed and a vided in the contracts expiring Friday

Twins' Spines Joined. Chicago.-The "Siamese twins," Jo-

week, were joined at the spine and severing them would have been fatal.

The pictures, it was declared, show

Sunday Movies Favored.

Tacoma, Wash.-Sunday movies and Sofia. - Bulgaria has fulfilled her mously at a political caucus following the summit. At present the blockadobligation under the peace treaty to the nomination of Dr. C. E. Judd for ed section is but 31/2 miles long. About legally ordered deported, Federal deliver a large number of cattle and mayor; L. D. Ryan and Clyde Tuel half of this is on the Oregon side. materials to Jugo-Slavia, Roumania for councilmen, and O. T. Fryar for For the last two months, passengers and Greece. The mixed commissions, treasurer. Street dancing under prop. to the coast have been obliged to composed of representatives of the er supervision was also favored, as walk through the snow. countries interested, have parted on was personal freedom within the lim-

Setter Rescues Child.

owned by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sims, Karinen show that 41 vessels loaded poor-Springfield, Mass.—The Springfield rescued their 4-year-old son Charles, at the mills in the lower river district pulled him from the slough.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

tempted to take his life by hanging.

Salem-The Silverton Parent-Teacher association, at a meeting of the REPORTS YET VAGUE Marion County Parent-Teacher assoriation held here Saturday, was awarded the attendance flag. This is the second time that Silverton has won this flag.

Prineville. - Friday, April 7, has Prineville and on that day all business houses will be closed for any business Indianapolis.—Complete suspension except that of a clean-up nature. The campaign will be conducted by the Fireman's association of the city.

hereafter will be compelled to place all food for sale under cover to preexperienced for many months, when Union leaders estimated 600,000 min- vent files and dust from reaching it. the westbound trans-Atlantic steam the prime minister, fresh from his ers, including 100,000 nonunion men, The city council at its meeting Friday clared that a vote on the hitherto in- dicted no change could be expected fect and it provides a fine of from $5

> Elgin.-Mayor Gettings has issued pension, especially in the non-union week from April 1 to April 8. Each port prepared here Saturday by A. C. The house was crowded, interest Reports from other fields were some Barber, state insurance commissioner.

> tions here this year are now going on at the Haines Stampede corporation grounds and include the large new have been operating recently had for concessions, box offices, side walls tion to these structures are the booths and stockades for livestock used in the exhibitions.

Haines .- The O'Bryant Grain comcaset, with headquarters at Baker.

del Verde, off the west coast of Mex-sefa and Rosa Blazek, who died last from that part of the county than any at him. "Oh, please-please believe other section.

operative Land association has receiv- known Tony Devon ages, and I didn't ed a state charter which gives it the even know she was in this house." ness without profit. The association "You ought to be ashamed of yourself, was formed recently to do everything Cousin Sarah," he went on, "to use possible toward getting the lands of such language to a perfectly nice little Crook county settled and to bring the girl. Why, you've just about broken settlers and the owners of surplus her heart." land together.

Grants Pass.-Wind and rain have state penitentiary here a year ago to pay the death penalty for murder in Wasco county, Friday morning at-been designated as clean-up day for Salem .- Tax revenue derived by the Haines. - The first building opera-

Salem.—The state bond commission port as if she were going to fall. She ered complete without its "work the more fortunate. Among the dis Pennsylvania and West Virginia—the will meet here April 10 to purchase saw him rise up slowly, an expression tinguished persons present was the field leaders of the union were plan- bonds for the segregated accident of amazement and relief going across American ambassador, Mr. Harvey, ning meetings during the next few fund in the amount of approximately little smile it was and how full of who frequently smiled broadly at the days, their purpose being to gain as $75,000. The bond commission is pleading, as if she were silently begmuch support as possible from the composed of Governor Olcott, O. P. ging him to forgive her for some deed Mr. Lloyd George's speech obviously nonunion workers. In strongly union- Hoff, state treasurer, and W. A. Mar- she'd done.

pany, which has operated here for the Tonnibel Devon. She's Paul's com-The "Siamese twins" will be operted on and the connection of flesh that joins them severed should either the preceding like a carpenter's joint. managed the company for the past "Tony Devon, in the rought you were "I thought, oh, I thought you were several years and maintained branches dead. I thought I'd lost you forever." at Haines, North Powder and Telo-

Eugene.-More than $600 in claims on account of sheep being killed or maimed by dogs were presented to "Sarah sit down" thus less than less the Lane county court during March, Pendlehaven. "Don't speak another according to the records of County such word or-" Clerk Bryson. Dogs in the vicinity of Junction City have been especially fore he could finish his threat. vicious, more claims having come

August Probst, ex-butler at the Roll- against the first insurance companies. baseball are planks in the platform of melted the snow on Oregon mountains, at the sight of him, Katherine lost her the so-called church ticket of Sumner, between Grants Pass and Crescent wits entirely. in the Puyallup valley, adopted unani- City, until it is but five feet deep at "Who and what have we been har-

Astoria.-Cargo lumber shipments from the Columbia during the month of March were quite heavy and totaled nearly 70,000,000 feet. Statistics Goshen, N. Y.-Marlow, a setter made by Deputy Collector of Customs she never did. I was poor, awful the Atlantic seaboard.

A New Romance of the Storm Country

"YOU, YOU HUZZY!"

Synopsis.-Lonely and friendless, Tonnibel Devon, living on a canal boat with a brutal father and a Ithaca, N. Y. There she meets a young Salvation army captain, Philip MacCauley. Uriah Devon, Tony's father, announces he has arranged for Tony to marry Reginaid Brown, a worthless compan-ion. Mrs. Devon objects, and Uriah ion. Mrs. Devon objects, and Uriah beats her. Their quarrel reveals that there is a secret between them in which Tony is the central figure. Tony refuses to marry Reginald and escapes a beating by jumping into the lake. She finds a baby's picture with offer of reward for its delivery to a Doctor Pendlehaven. With the Pendlehavens, a family of wealth, live Mrs. Curtis, a cousin, her daughter and son, Katherine her daughter and son, Katherine Curtis and Reginald Brown. Katherine is in love with Philip Mac-Cauley. Tonnibel returns the pic-ture to Doctor John, and learns it belongs to his brother, Dr. Paul Pendlehaven. It is a portrait of Doctor Paul's daughter, stolen in infancy. Doctor John goes with Tony to the canal boat. Mrs. Devon is deeply agitated and makes Tony swear she will never tell of Dev-on's brutality The older Devons disappear and Tony is taken into the Pendlehaven house as a companion to Doctor Paul. Philip fights with Reginald on the boat and saves Tony. Urlah appears, orders Philip off and locks up Tony. Philip again rescues her. They exchange love vows. Doctor Paul im-proves and the Curtises are furious over her presence. Philip and Tony unexpectedly meet in the Pen-diehaven home.

CHAPTER X-Continued.

She went extremely pale and put out ber hand to grasp something for sup-

John Pendlehaven gazed at the two young people, and then he too got to

"Philip," he said abruptly, "this is A noise fell from Katherine's lips, and Mrs. Curtis stumbled to her feet.

"So you know her too, Philip," she Albany.-On a trip of several hun-snarled with a hasty glance at her started a search for Sam Jackson, addition, 13,000 union men were to dred miles which will be concluded by pallid daughter. "I thought we'd kept "Mother!" gasped Katherine, as Ton-nibel snatched her hands from Philip, "Kathie, you needn't 'mother' me! cried Mrs. Curtis, biind with rage. "Either she goes away or I do. I won't Tony was at the doctor's side be-

"I didn't sneak," she said, looking up

"That she didn't," cried Philip, com-Prineville.-The Crook County Co- ing to her side. "Cousin John, I've

> His voice had sunk to a passionate whisper. His eyes misted in a youthful struggle to control his joy, and-and > boring in this house, Cousin John?" she shricked in a high thin voice, struggling to her feet. "A gutter rat, a little snake, a loose girl-" Each word, brought out with greater vehemence and passion than the one before, struck the listeners dumb. In shame-faced misery. Tonnibel sank to the floor, dropping her head into her hands. "Oh, no, I'm not that," she wailed.

"My mummy never lived in the gutter; "Poor!" exclaimed Katherine. "You're worse than poor. I suppose you've wheedled Philip the same way you have Cousin Paul." "Katherine, I command you to be silent," shouted Pendlehaven. "If you say another word, I shall ask you to leave my house." "Well, I never!" screamed Mrs. Cur-

"And you too, Sarah," thrust in the at his companion.

this thing, but I know very well that Tony Devon is not a bad girl."

MILLER

WHITE

"That she is not," interjected Philip. "Now I'll tell you all about it." As John Pendlehaven raised her to her feet, Tonnibel lifted her head and fixed her tearful eyes on Captain Mac-

Cauley. body," she murmured. Her mind was with the dead Edith Devon, and the words of her own serious reverent oath given in the presence of her wildeyed mother would not allow her to consent that Philip should lift the stigma heaped upon her by the Curtis

"So I did." admitted Philip, soberly, "but you see now this has happened. You must release me from that prom-

"I can't," sighed Tony. Then turned her face to Pendlehaven.

"You'll trust us," she pleaded, waving her hand toward Philip. "Please trust him and me." "Ha!" shrieked Mrs. Curtis. "Trust you-"Shut up, Cousin Sarah," snapped Philip at the angry woman. Then he addressed himself to the doctor. "I did promise her I wouldn't tell how we met. And I won't! In fact it isn't so long? any one's business. Is it, Cousin

"Not that I can see," came in rather drawling answer. "I'll repeat what I said before," Philip took up hastily. "I didn't know

"We're ready to believe that-nit," cried Katherine. Captain MacCauley stared at her. Was this frowning angry girl the smiling, yielding Katherine he had known or thought he had known? "You can believe it or not, Kathle," difference to me. But it's true, just the same." "Wait here for me, Philip," said the doctor, in a low tone. "I'll be back in a moment. Then he took Tony by the hand and they went out together. For several tense mements a silence too dreadful to describe settled down upon the dining room, Katherine twisted her fork sulkly and Mrs. Curtis still sniffed in her handkerchief. Philip looked from one to the other, wishing with all his heart he could say something that would clear the atmosphere. "I'm serry, Cousin Sarah," he said abruptly, trying to smile. "It certainly was awkward, wasn't it?"

In Shame-Faced Misery Tonnibel Sank to the Floor.

"Awkward?" repeated Mrs. Curtis. wrinkling her face. "Awkward isn't the word, Philip. It was disgusting." The gorge rose again in his throat. "Tonnibel Devon is the best girl I know," he asserted. "Poor little thing, I pity her with all my heart."

"Pity is akin to love, my dear Philip," sneered Mrs. Curtis. "Mother," cried Katherine. "Philip wouldn't so far forget himself and his friends and position as to love-wellif you can't keep your tongue still, go any girl could speak to her own mother in such a way was beyond his comprehension. The door opened just then and Dr. John walked in. "She came down to tell me that Paul wanted me and forgot it," he said

This was a shock for Philip. That in a low tone. "The poor child is quite Mrs. Curtis tossed her head and rose from the table, and Katherine, rising also, followed her mother out of the room. There was very little said between the young man and his older friend after the ladies had taken their departure, but when Captain MacCauley was ready to leave, he looked anxiously

"Coustn John," he murmured. "You won't let any one—"

"Indeed not," interrupted the doctor, anticipating the lad's plea. "Tony Devon is here to stay, Phil." "Could I-could I see her, Cousin John, just a minute?" the boy faltered. "Not tonight, old fellow," replied the doctor, kindly. "Tomorrow, perhaps."

And Philip had to be content. That evening Katherine spent with her mother in hopeless misery. "He acted just as if he loved her," she wailed at one time in their conversailon. "Fd give anything to find out how long he's known her." "So would I," said Mrs. Curtis. "Katherine, we've got to get her away by some means. She's bewitched John she's brought Paul up from his grave and there's no telling, she may usurp your place in their wills."

"And now she's hoodwinked Philip," gulped Katherine. "Can't you think of some plan? Can't we claim she steals or something like that?" "John wouldn't believe it, especially now that Reggie is coming home," was the answer. "His letter today said he'd be here very soon. Everything that happens in this house out of the ordinary is blamed on my poor boy."

And she began again to cry. "Great Heavens, mother, don't do that," screamed Katherine. "Can't you see weeping doesn't do any good? You make me so nervous I could fly. We've got to make some plan to get her out of here. While you're sniveling all the time, you can't think."

Mrs. Curtis rose and walked to her bedroom door. "My children have no sympathy for me at all," she shot back. "But you say I can't think while I cry? Well, watch me! I'll bet you five dollars Tony Devon is out of this house before another week is over."

The next morning when Reggie Brown came home, he went directly to his mother. Of course, as usual, she wept at the sight of him and began to upbraid him for his thoughtlessness. Why hadn't be let her know where he was? Why had he been gone

Reggie laughed insolently. "Do I ever let you know where I go, mater?" he demanded, dropping into an easy chair, "No, I don't, and I won't! I've come for five hundred dollars I have to have. Now cough "I haven't that much money in the world," sobbed Mrs. Curtis. "Then wheedle it out of Cousin

John," he commanded. "I've simply got to have It!" Paying no heed to his gruff command, Mrs. Curtis rocked to and fro in excess of agony.

"If Paul had died," she wept, "we'd have had a lot of money-" "How do you know?" was Reggie's quick query. "Because I know how his will's made," explained his mother, "and inless his Caroline is found, you Cousin John and I get all his money." Reginald's eyes blazed into a flame of interest. Money was the only thing that attracted him. "Why doesn't he die, then?" he ask-

"Because he's getting well," replied his mother. "That girl--" "What girl?" Reggie's voice asked the question in monotone. "Some huzzy John picked up not long ago," was the reply.

enough and sick enough, isn't he?"

ed, dropping back sullenly. "He's old brought Paul to life, and John is wild about her, and now-"Where is she?" interjected Reginald. "With your Cousin Paul. And, Reggie. I'd give five hundred to get her out of the house."

The boy rose and stood gazing down at the tips of his highly polished "I'd give more than that." he replied solemnly, "to know Cousin Paul was in his grave." "Then rid us of the girl, and he'll soon keel over," said the mother. But Reginald wasn't interested in Cousin Paul's new companion. wanted money and that was all, now that Tony Devon was dead. "How about the five hundred for me?" he questioned, looking at her

"I've said I hadn't it, my son," said she. "Now run away and don't bother me any more." Reggie did leave the room, but not the house. His mind was filled with many plans to get hold of the cash he needed. There were two things had to be done. Whoever the girl with Cousin Paul was, she had to go. It was enough that his mother didn't want her in the house. Reggle could abuse his own women folks; he could make them cry all he wanted to, but that any one, and a stranger too, could force his mother into a spell of hysterics, he wouldn't tolerate. Then the other thing to which he had made up his mind almost brought his hair on end when he contemplated it. The world had to be relieved of

A little drop of something-Reggie rose to his feet and walked nervously up and down the room. "Twould be easy enough to get hold of, for Dr. John always had plenty of drugs on

"I'd like to kill her."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

"Do people in society talk about one another?" "Not as much as they used to," said Miss Cayenne. "They seem to be letting one another alone and talking about their servanta."