Cheer Up! It Has Been Worse.

Nearly six hundred banks in the United States suspended payment, and there were 16,000 commercial bankruptcies. Greece was in "the abyss of insolvency," and Italy was on the brink. In Russia, famine and pestilence prevailed, and in Australia nearly every bank of consequence had closed its doors. American farmers were so hard pressed that they could hardly find where to buy smoking tobacco.

Such were the conditions in 1893, as revealed in newspapers and magazines of that time. Looking back on them, the period from which the world is now emerging seems not so gloomy, after all.

The Nations Business.

The many friends of L. M. Gilbert, late superintendent of the boys' training school, no doubt will be pleased to know that he is advertising himself to nearly everyone he meets as an organizer of the Ku Klux Klan. They also no doubt will be pleased to know that one of his last official acts while superintendent of the school was to take the boys from the training school down to the Grand opera house at Salem to see a Ku Klux Klan lecture spilling some of his vitriol. Good Americans may thank their creator for a board of control with at least two members having nerve enough to kick such a man out of his position as arbiter of the destinies of wayward boys.

Also let it be known that old Peg Leg Ryan of Salem showed his utter ignorance when he boasted the venomous fabrication that Senator L. C. Lachmund receives $2500 a year as a member of the parole board. Anyone who cares to take the trouble may find out he receives not a cent, either in traveling or expenses. Put Peg Leg Ryan so accustomed to showing his illeiterate ignorance on all subjects it is really worth while mentioning, except perhaps to Senator Lachmund.

This smart day-time dress of smooth-faced wool suiting is of the sort approved by fashion for wear everywhere that suits are worn. Its lines are graceful and simple, revealing the development of draped effects in skirts. It adopts the vogue of piquet sleeves, used with silk in a contrasting color, and of handsome gridles of beads or metal.

Nomination Forecasted

Pre-election forecasts from every quarter of the First Congressional district are pointing to the nomination of Hon. A. W. Norblad of Astoria at the May primaries. Mr. Norblad is the strong opponent of Willis P. Hawley for the Republican nomination for Congressman. The psychological time has arrived when Mr. Hawley is to give way to a young man able fitted in every way to represent this district with honor to himself and the people whom he will serve. Mr. Hawley has held a seat in congress for 15 years, not because he was pre-eminently fitted for the place, but because he was politician enough to keep the people believing he was unconquerable. Mr. Norblad is of Scandinavian descent and is proud of it, too. He is recognized as one of the able men of Oregon and is spoken of in the highest of terms by those who know him best.—Silverton Appeal.

For Governor

of Salem.

The Labor Union's at Salem, have regular a resolution submitted for an endorsement of George White for governor. They told it to George's face, too. Labor organizations over the state seem to fear this military upstart. They have a reason to.

They say that George White never smelled powder on the firing line in France. Probably playing poker in the rear while his boys were dying at the front.

The many friends of L. M. Gilbert, late superintendent of the boys' training school, no doubt will be pleased to know that he is advertising himself to nearly everyone he meets as an organizer of the Ku Klux Klan. They also no doubt will be pleased to know that one of his last official acts while superintendent of the school was to take the boys from the training school down to the Grand opera house at Salem to see a Ku Klux Klan lecture spilling some of his vitriol. With Adjutant General George A. White as governor look out for strict military discipline throughout the state. If you don't pay your taxes it's flagging signal. Wonder what our German friends think of this military Moses? Ask the boys who served with him in France what they think of this upstart? Ask the boys of Salem what they think of him—they've got him numbered Down with Cook Robin White and military hell.

By the way, those people who are spreading the tale that Mr. Kiser, new superintendent of the boys' training school, no doubt will be pleased to know that he is advertising himself to nearly everyone he meets as an organizer of the Ku Klux Klan. They also no doubt will be pleased to know that one of his last official acts while superintendent of the school was to take the boys from the training school down to the Grand opera house at Salem to see a Ku Klux Klan lecture spilling some of his vitriol. Good Americans may thank their creator for a board of control with at least two members having nerve enough to kick such a man out of his position as arbiter of the destinies of wayward boys.
