WORLD HAPPENINGS OF CURRENT WEEK

Brief Resume Most Important Daily News Items.

COMPILED FOR YOU that section had been greatly congest. BUDGET REPORT OUT

Events of Noted People, Governments and Pacific Northwest, and Other Things Worth Knowing.

Sergeant Aaron Kaplan of the de- $300,000 in customs revenue to feed partment of criminal investigation of stranded Feng-Tien troops. the American forces in Germany is

Husband and wife served on the same jury in the state circuit court for Linn county, Oregon, Tuesday. It was the first time such an event had occurred in Oregon and probably the circumstance is without a parallel any-

In an appeal to "friends of prohibition enforcement," the Anti-Saloon League urges defeat at forthcoming primaries and election of all candidates for the senate and house of rep- national homes for disabled soldiers resentatives who favor modification of provided they are in needy circum-

The American Bible society has announced that President and Mrs. Hard- ans' Bureau. The home for disabled ing had become life members of the organization. They joined at the request of a 68-year old woman member, who said she had campaigned and

A 19-year-old youth was slain by a been disallowed because no aggrava-16-year-old fellow camper near Jamai- tion of disability was shown in the ca, L. I., Sunday, as the climax of a short period at camp, sometimes but rifle duel in which the two had stalked two or three days. The length of each other from behind trees. The time, served, has no bearing upon the fight started in a quarrel over the veteran's eligibility to enter the govspilling of a can of soup.

Agreement by both General Wu Pei structions received at the district of-Fu and General Chang Tso-Lin, rival fice. Chinese leaders, to exclude Pekin and Tien Tsin from the field of military made by Manager Jesseph that the operations was announced in an of new hospital for tuberculous veterans ficial dispatch received by the Chinese of the northwest district will begin Legation in Washington Tuesday from to accept patients the latter part of the Pekin government, a bill authorizing the government of June 4. The first unit of the hospital more than 21 per cent alcohol from the prohibition law, according to a cablegram received in Washington Tuesday by the Danish legation.

Leon Trotzky, the soviet war minister, addressing the Moscow garrison throughout the northwest for National at the May day review in Red Square, Hospital Day, May 12. Cushman at at which the red oath was taken by Tacoma, Port Townsend hospital, U. all the soldiers, declared that the al- S. Veterans' hospital at Boise and the lies at Genoa desired conditions to government hospital at Portland are which Russia would never yield; therefore, he asked the troops to be pre- than 900 bedridden veterans will feast

The conference representing both by veterans' organizations and their sides of the Irish republican army re- women's auxiliaries. assembled Tuesday in Dublin, and arranged to make representations at the session of the Dail Eireann relative to bringing about unity in the army and a peace settlement in Ireland. An appeal was made to all ranks to act in a spirit of conciliation.

now attorney-general, had received a the legation. fee of $25,000 from Charles W. Morse, Morse's release in 1912 from the At- encased in a red wrapper, was sent to of $250,134,835.03. lanta federal penitentiary, were re- the American minister, Charles S. peated in the senate Teusday by Sen- Wilson. ator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, and denied by friends of the present that was sent into the Russian famine Monday, when 150 inmates of the still so large as to vindicate it, and areas was distributed in time to be South Carolina penitentiary revolted will at the same time emphasize the sown, the central famine committee an- against the authority of the guards. nounced recently. More than 80 per cent of the 23,000,000 poods (about the uprising occurred, was set on fire able to the principles of business con-828,000,000 pounds) of grain from but the recalcitrants were subdued servatism." Russian sources arrived in time, while and the blaze extinguished speedily. only 22 per cent of the 8,500,000 poods from abroad arrived. In some districts 100 per cent of the amount needed was ibly affected them, acclaimed Chief universities of America was launched in the famine area, said a cablegram Justice Taft and associate justices of here Saturday night. This campaign received at American relief headthe United States supreme court who was included in the anniversary pro- quarters Saturday. went to Philadelphia Tuesday, where gramme of the board of education of In the Orenburg district alone, the the first sessions of that tribunal were the Methodist Episcopal church south message said, the administration is tice, and fellow members of the court Okla. occupied. Chief Justice Taft and Justices Pitney and Clarke heard recount-

DEFEATED TROOPS IN ROUT hang's Vanquished Forces Are Half-Starved, Says U. S. Minister.

Washington, D. C .- Scenes of com plete rout among the defeated troops

Monday 21 trains packed with retreating troops had passed through

Tientsin and that railroad traffic in ed because of the efforts of the de-

The soldiers of the routed army to be completely "out of control."

Many of them, he added, appeared

"half starved." Upon representations from the Chinese foreign office the protection, especially in Tientsin."

United States Veteran's Bureau.

Men who were drafted into was ervice and then rejected for physical reasons are eligible for entrance into manager of the United States Veter

from this district is located near Lor tors, nurses and other employes.

the United States brings about the re-

The threat was contained in an ar-

14 Prisoners Wounded.

Church Campaign Begun.

Columbia, S. C .- Fourteen prisoners

Angeles.

feated forces to escape.

of General Chang in China were described in a report to the state depart-Huge Savings Accomplished by ment from American Minister Schurman at Pekin. He declared that until were said by the American minister Reduction in Routine Operation Is Nearly Billion; Overlapping of Departments Eliminated.

Harding Administration

diplomatic council at Pekin released tures of the government for the fiscal The minister also reported that alyear 1922 have been reduced more suffering from a gunshot wound in though there was no intimation of than $1,500,000,000 from the 1921 fig. year will probably be materially un. Cousin John to Katherine as a father the left elbow, inflicted during a May General Wu's next move, both Pekin ures. The reduction in the ordinary der that of last year owing to winter than she ever had been, and Ithaca and Tientsin appeared to be out of expenditures for the operation of the injury. The vines are in a poor con. had caught no sight of Reginald danger with conditions returning to as compared with 1921, will be in the yards will be a total loss. inforcements to Pekin and Tientsin, neighborhood of $907,000,000.

were said in the dispatch to have These facts are shown in a report been a "valuable factor in military nade public by Charles G. Dawes, distances and unable to work, according It is stated that the essential cause to L. C. Jesseph, northwest district of the economies and improvements in administration which have been effected during the present fiscal year veterans housing former service men in the conduct of the routine business of the government has been the assumption by President Harding of his In many cases of this kind, claims full responsibilities as head of the for government compensation have business organization of the government. Some of the agencies for the transmission for executive pressure, plan and policy have been established upon the advice of Director Dawes, bureau itself among his other agenernment institution, according to incles for the imposition of executive over the previous month.

The report was issued also in reponse to a resolution adopted by the use asking for information showing n what way savings were affected.

"The bureau of the budget is an Definite announcement has been this month. Formal opening of the gress have, by large majorities, passed approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000, will be held the not only in the second approximately $500,000 the future when existing partisan dif-Iceland to exempt wine containing no 182 employes for every 200 patients for impartiality and nonpartisanship the Walla Walla institution will have of the budget bureau is considered in a hospital staff numbering 227 docretrospect by the unprejudiced mind of the governmental economist and Elaborate programs have been student. Out of total estimated explanned for veterans' hospitals penditures of $3,922,372,030 for the year 1922, the director classifies only $1,765,875,672 as being generally subject to executive control in the operation of the routine business of governamong those who will celebrate. More actual expenditures under the same on "eats" furnished in most instances

"The reduction in the ordinary exroutine business of government gen. been announced. Sofia, Bulgaria.-A threat to blow erally subject to executive control in up the American legation here unless 1922 as compared with 1921 will be, ing made for the construction of two daughter. After this I'm your father, lease of Sacco and Vansetti, commun- $907,500,000. As against this enor- way in the upper Hood river valley. MacCauley that if he tries to take you ists, under conviction for murder in mous total reduction the estimate of One of the spans, of steel, will bridge from me, he's going to have some fight Reports that Harry M. Daugherty, Massachusetts, has been received at economics and savings incident to the the east fork of Hood river. The on his hands. From now on, I'm not New York shipbuilder, for obtaining ticle in an anarchist newspaper which. 1922 is estimated at the lesser sum The Union Bridge company of Port-

"The director feels reasonably assured that this estimate of economics and savings attributable to the new if an error has been made in this re-About 65 per cent of the seed grain were wounded, two possibly fatally, gard the savings and economics are indispensable policy of the budget bu-The chair factory building, where reau to have its estimates conform-

All Children Are Fed.

New York. - Child feeding in the Hot Springs, Ark. - A nation-wide American relief administration in Ruscampaign to place religious teaching sia has been extended until it now Cheering crowds, whose tribute vis- in all the public schools, colleges and reaches practically every needy child held in 1791. Sitting in the same by Bishops James Cannon Jr. of Birm- feeding 225,164 children in 1468 kit- government lands were covered. chairs that John Day, first chief jus- ingham and E. D. Mouseon of Tulsa, chens, operating in 1509 villages and 245 institutions.

Detroit. - Seven men, declared by Omaha, Neb.-Two masked robbers converted into small slats for making going to be realized after all? Was ed reminiscences of those first ses- federal officers to have obtained hun- who told their victims they once were lead pencils, it sells for approximate- it Paul who was going to put her in sions, when there were no cheering dreds of thousands of dollars for bol- in a church choir, sang the hymn ly $270 a 1000 feet board measure, ac- her rightful place? The smile broadcrowds. The occasion was the rededi-shevik propaganda, through a con-which includes the words, "We will cording to C. S. Hudson of Bend, the ened on her lips, and she sank back with a happy sigh. She had to adcation of the building in Independence spiracy to raise $5 federal reserve come rejoicing, bringing in the leading spirit behind the local jun-mit Cousin Paul looked very handsquare occupied by the United States notes to higher denominations, were sheaves," as they held up and robbed | iper "refining plant." The Bend junisupreme court as first constituted, and arrested here Saturday. The arrests nine persons, including a number of per mill employs 30 or more persons sin John. What a fool she had been the observation of the 200th anniver- were the result of an investigation by women, in a drug store here Saturday and supplies lead pencil stock to prac- not to have caught him sooner. sary of the founding of the supreme the secret service that began nearly night. They escaped with loot amount- tically all the large pencil factories ing to more than $300.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Cottage Grove. -- Cottage Grove's auto camp park has been opened for the summer with a caretaker in charge. The fee will be 50 cents for the first day and 25 cents for each subsequent day.

Jordon Valley .- The county court of Malheur county has called for bids for the construction of about six miles of graded road on the Jordan Valley Nyssa Market road. Work will com sence on the road in June.

Brownsville .- A barbecue and oldfashioned pienic for the pioneers of st which she had spent in school, had the upper Calapoola river valley will prought about many changes. Paul be held at Crawfordsville June 13, Pendlehaven had taken his place one day before the commencement of among the world's workers, but this Washington, D. C .- The expendi- the annual pioneer picnic at Browns- loes not say that he did not still long

Salem.-Loganberry production this Mrs. Curtis was no nearer giving routine business of the government, dition to produce a crop this year, and generally subject to executive control, it is thought by growers that some Grants Pass .- Farmers of this vicinity were disappointed by the small amount of rain which fell during the spare time in answering them. rector of the bureau of budget, and past few days. Although the district Pendlehaven, smiling and blushingly asked by President Harding on the is now supplied with water from the girlish, and he motioned her to a litconomies effected in the cost of gov- ditches of the Grants Pass irriga- tle stool at his feet. tion district, crops had been planted which needed rain.

> Salem .- The Oregon Growers' Cooperative association announced Sunday that practically the entire pack ty. He appeared solemnly sober and of gooseberries, raspberries, straw- looked as if he hadn't slept. consigned to the eastern markets for disposition > Salem.-Gasoline sales in Oregon during March of this year represented an increase of 516,413 gallons over silence, the girl's dreamy eyes fixed the sales for February, according to a statement compiled by the secreed an increase of nearly 300 per cent pelled her revery instantly.

Salem,-A proposed constitutional amendment authorizing the city of "In this particular report where its pend the same in holding the so-call- her. estimates may become a basis of con- ed 1925 exposition, was submitted to like me for your father?" tention in an approaching political the secretary of state here today. The had something else to add, waited excontest, its figures should be conserv- tax, if approved, will be distributed pectantly.

ground for the new American Legion so many since she was taken away, Community Memorial building was be- I feel I shan't have her again in this gun Saturday by a squad of legion world." men. Actual construction of the build- Tony's dark head dropped against ing will be started just as soon as the his knee in silent sympathy weather will permit. The finance "Could you think of me as your facommittee reports more than $16,500 ther, dear?" he said after an emotionpledged, which leaves about $3000 to al silence.

modern cannery and preserving plant think I am. First of all I haven't alcategories in 1921 of $2,673,435,679.77. in Salem this summer at a cost of ways told you the truth." segregated out of a total annual ex. $75,000, it was announced here Satsegregated out of a total annual ex-penditure for 1921 of $5,538, 040,689.30. Urday. The company expects to handle into his confidence about the poison in 275,000 cases of fruit here this year. my medicine. Pve watched you for penditures of the operation of the The location for the plant has not yet two years, Tony, and it seems to me

Hood River.-Preparations are betherefore, in the neighborhood of bridges on the Mount Hood loop high- and I give warning to my Captain new imposition of executive control other crossing a tributary of the east Cousin Paul. I am-what?" over governmental expenditures in fork, will be of reinforced concrete. land has the contract for the work.

this section of Malheur county who the door. "So Paul has told you, has system is an underestimate, but that pooled their clips of about three he, little giri? Well, Tony, you February lambing in this section and Paul-" brought an average of nearly 130 per "Has the prior right because you cent, while April lambing will pos- saved me, Tony," interrupted Paul. sibly not exceed 65 per cent.

Grants Pass .- The Josephine county rodent drive, just completed, was man when Mrs. Curtis and her daugha success from the standpoint of the ter, Katherine, had been summoned to interest aroused and the acreage cov- the library. He told them very graveered, said County Agent Howell. The ly that as his will now stood, his farmers co-operated in covering the brother, John, and his cousin, Sarah, non-resident and government lands, tis smiled at him and arranged the the poison for this having been fur- lace ruffles around her neck. nished by the government and county court. A total of 10,291 acres of ous, Paul dear," she simpered, non-resident land and 17,020 acres of Bend.-Oregon juniper, once regardof the east, and to some in Europe.

The Shadow of the Sheltering Pines

A New Romance of the Storm Country

By GRACE MILLER WHITE

Copyright by the H. K. Fly Company

CHAPTER XIV.

A Will Is Changed. The two years that had passed since Tony Devon had entered the Pendlehaven home, the greater part for the child who had gone from his ife eighteen years before.

Brown since he had fled from it with the notion that he might follow Urlah Devon behind the prison bars. Philip had carried on his wonderful work, living in the joyous letters he reteived from Tony and spending his "Darling," he began in a moved tone, "I sent for you because I've come to perhaps the most important decision of my whole life." Tony gianced up at him wondering-berries and cherries for the year 1922 "If it affects me, Cousin Paul, it have been sold subject to future de- can't be greater than the one you livery. Most of the berries will be made over two years ago when you took poor little me into your home," she asserted.

His hand fell lovingly upon her curly head as though in benediction. They both lapsed into a long tary of state here Saturday. The There was something in his voice as and the president has used the budget March distribution of distillate show- he pronounced her name that dis-

"Yes," she breathed. "Yes, what is Pendlehaven cleared his throat. "I would never have believed that impersonal, impartial and non-parti- Portland to raise by general taxation anyone could have wormed her way san business agent," says the report. the amount of $3,000,000 and to ex. into my heart as you have," he told "How would-how would you

"Once, as you know," went on the but the years have been so long and

"I'm not fit for that," sighed Tony. "No, no, not that. I come from peo-Salem.-The Starr Fruit company, ple who are not your kind, Cousin which now operates in Portland, The Paul. You know that! Everybody ment. These figures compare with Dalles and Freewater, will erect a does! Then I'm not so good as you

> "So my brother told me," remarked that I know every secret of your soul. I'm sure you love me, dear child. I'm

"My father," gulped Tony. seems as if I couldn't stand so much happiness. And if you're my father, that makes Cousin John-"

"Your uncle," laughed a voice from quarters of a million pounds have wouldn't have slept a wink one night sold their wool at 33 1-3 cents a pound. if you'd heard our argument about The clip will be lighter this year, due gling which of us should adopt you. I you. We spent several hours wranto poor fall range and a severe winter. said I should because I saw you first,

> "Now I think the family had better know of our changed arrangements." Paul Pendlehaven acted as spokeswere the beneficiaries of it. Mrs. Cur-"Yon've always been most gener-

"But now," went on the doctor, paying no heed to the lady's remark, "our household's going to have a mistress."

Katherine lifted her chin from the ed as useless, now is one of the most palm of her hand, and Mrs. Curtis costly woods on the market. When straightened up. Were her ambitions some, yes, even handsomer than Cou-

"The woman you put at the head of your home will be most fortunate and happy, dear Paul," she murmured.

and Doctor John pulled at the corners | home. of his mouth to keep back a malicious

"I'm going to adopt Tony Devon-" Doctor Paul had only time enough to make this statement when Mrs. Curtis jumped to her feet. "You couldn't do that!" she cried.

"That would be wicked, Paul, absolutely wicked! Oh God, don't do that! Without heeding in the slightest his ousin's bitter ejaculation, Paul Pen-dlehaven picked up a box that lay at his elbow. With much ceremony he opened it and took out an exquisite "I do not need to remind any of rou," he said, turning his eyes from his brother to his two white-faced cousins, "that these beloaged to my dear wife. I have always considered them the property of her daughter too. That is the reason, Katherine, why I've always refused your request to wear them. But now I have a daughter." He turned smiling eyes upon Tonnibel. "I shall allow her to wear them whenever she wishes, and if-if her lost sister isn't found, then they are hers-hers forever."

A long hissing breath broke from Sarah Curtis, and a gasp came from Katherine.

"I couldn't wear them," Tony got out at length, "I simply couldn't." "Not to please me, your father, Tonnibel?" demanded Paul, almost brusquely.

"And me, your new uncle?" laughed Doctor John. "Why, honey, little girl," he reached out and took Tonnibel's hand, "don't look as if you'd lost your last friend!"

Then Paul Pendlehaven drew Tonnibel Devon to his side, and, when he had clasped the jewels around her neck, he lifted her face and kissed

"There, little daughter!" His voice choked with emotion, but he conquered his feelings and went on, "they're very lovely, very precious, Tony, doubly so because you're wearing them."

"Oh," she exulted, "how happy I am! . It isn't the pearls, turned a flushed and radiant face to in." each man, "Somehody that's my very own. My mother's dead, and my fa-

"Is in prison," snapped Mrs. Curtis, vindictively. "I'm wondering what he'll say to all this when he comes ence to us," Paul Pendlehaven stated coolly. "He has forfelted every right to any claim on Tony."

"Hideous!" exclaimed Mrs. Curtis, Katherine.

"And," went on Doctor Paul, re were being thrust into the souls of his will in favor of my new daughter

"And I mine in favor of our young Salvation Army captain who is going to marry my new niece," chuckled Doctor John. "I guess that's all we have to say, Paul."

In silence Katherine and Mrs. Curtis faded from the room, carrying with them bitter humiliation and nursing outraged feelings.

"It's all your fault, mamma," scolded Katherine, bursting into tears when they were in the seclusion of their own apartments. "You've whined and wept yourself right out of Cousin John's life, that's what you've done. God, how I hated that girl when I saw Caroline's pearls around her neck!"

"What are you doing now?" thrust back her mother. "Aren't you crying as if your heart would break? I tell you tears-'

"Oh Lordy, tears! What good do they do?" came sharply. "Here we are without a future, without a home! That interloper will see we go the moment Paul gets out those papers! Oh, what shall we do?"

"I wish that man-her father, I nean-was out of jail," mused Mrs. Curtis. "I really believe he could do omething, Katle. Perhaps, Reggle-" Katherine wiped her eyes with a sudden movement. "Mamma, why don't you send for Reggie?" she questioned. "Now, listen to me. Reggie confided in me before he left that he really was fond of that girl, and if- Oh, mamma, I've thought of a wonderful thing. Send for Reggie, shove the girl under his nose every minute. Let him cut Philip

"And perhaps have my son marry that thing," objected the mother curtly. "That thing, as you please to call Tony Devon, is one of the prettiest and richest young women in this county," Katherine snapped back. "She's of the firewater that they fell to the elress to the Pendlehavens, and engaged to be married to a man who owns half the town. Thing, ch? Well, I think she's a little higher up in the world at this moment than my halfbrother, Reggie, if you want my opin-

That night an urgent message from the frantic mother traveled by wire its gathered liquor.

CHAPTER XV.

One day some weeks later, Regihald Brown walked rapidly along the pulevard past the row of squatter shacks. He had received word that Uriah Devon, released from prison, would anchor the Dirty Mary near the Hoghole in her accustomed place.

Devon was on deck when Brown ran up the gangplank. "So you came, old top," was Uriah's greeting. "It's good you did; I want to know what's doin'. A woman came to the door of the cabin and peered out. When she saw the newcomer, she scowled and went

"I thought you said she was dead," ommented Reggle, with a wag of his head toward the spot where the woman had stood. "Well, she ain't! Worse luck!" growled Uriah. "I told that to the kid to make her feel bad. Ede was willing to be dead for a while, anyhow. What's the news of Tony?" "Oh, she's & lady now," answered Reggie, sarcastically. "The Pendle-havens have sent her to school ever since you went away. My mother tells me Paul Pendlehaven's going to adopt her. And what do you think else?" he demanded.

"I dunno," grunted the other. "Good God! Don't sit there tearin' me to pieces with curiosity. Fire ahead, and tell me."

"She's copped Phil MacCauley," returned Reginald; "Ithaca's snob of a Salvation Army captain, the fellow who threw me in the lake that day, and he's as rich as the Pendlehavens

"Well, he won't get 'er," asserted Uriah, sharply. "I've told you the girl's rich too, Her father's got

"A let of good that'll do you, Ry." sneered Reggie. "She wouldn't look at the likes of you and Edith. You aren't in her class any more."

"Ain't I so?" queried Devon, grouchily, "I reckon her hide ain't no tougher nor thicker'n it used to be. though they're simply great, but it's | I'll thump h-ll out of 'er once or that I have some real people." She twice; I'll show 'er what class she's

"You'll have to catch her before you beat her, won't you, Ry?" Reggie inquired tauntingly. "How're you going to get your hands on her? Tell me that, will you?"

"Yep, Mr. Mealy-mouth, I will," thrust back Devon, "We got to steal 'er." He clenched his heavy fist and swung it menacingly and suggestive-"What's left of 'er when I'm done with 'er 'll marry you all right. That over. I'll tell 'er who she is, providin' and "Well, I never," dropped from you promise to halve up the stuff with lentlessly, for he knew the barbs that asked Reggie, sulkily. "Of course, I will, but what's the use of dreaming? two cousins, "I'm going to change my | The Pendlehavens're too much for are a big team, and they worship the ground that girl walks on. You're biting off more'n you can chew. Ry. You aren't any too strong, you know, A prison record doesn't help any." Uriah grunted and followed a ring of smoke with his frowning eyes, "She's my girl," he said at length, "I thought you said she wasn't," put in Reggie, suspiciously.

"Well, she don't know that, does she?" Devon retorted, "Nobody knows but you and Ede, besides me, "She's a beauty," sighed Reggie, his voice lowered to & growl. "I'd marry her if she didn't have a cent." "You don't need to make any such sacrifice, old horse," said Devon. "Your eyes will bung out of your head when you hear her name

Reginald argued he should know her, but Urlah wouldn't give up his secret. Indeed, he unfolded to the prospective husband how he planned to capture Tonnibel, and sent Reggie away convinced, red hot to perform his part in the scheme. At last, he was to have the girl he wanted and money too. The next morning Reggie proached his mother with an air of secrecy.

Insects Not Prohibitionists,

There are no prohibitionists among the insects, says a correspondent. Hundreds of wasps were recently observed crawling eagery over spindles and sucking at drops of turpe tiles which form at this time of year. A vast humming came from the trees, reminiscent of the midsummer ring over the heated hay fields. Large files and blue-bottles were also seen. In many ground in a drunken stupor, or clung hazardly to the trees. The wolfspider chasing its prey through the grass like a dog was having a rich harvest. Other insects came to the bacchanalian repast. A species of aphis was much in evidence and also Its keeper, the ant. busy milking it of