

A collage of political campaign posters from the early 1900s. The posters are arranged in a grid-like fashion. Each poster contains a title at the top, followed by a descriptive text block. The titles include: "Vote For Brown", "Vote For Siegmund", "Vote For C.H. Taylor", "Vote For Francis", "Good Meeting", "SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES", "San Francisco - World famous city that 'tis hard to leave", "Los Angeles - Wonder city and noted tourist center", "San Diego - Romantic city "Where California begins", "Three National Parks - Yosemite - Sequoia - General Grant", "Socorro of Charming Seashore and Mountain Resorts", "Ask the Bush bank", "McMahon got through the hand when Japan got McMahon why he did not come to take a trip abroad", "McMahon why he got his why Phil Hughes", "McMahon why he is out on republicanism ticket this year, after being elected to the Oregon State Association of the 50th reunion of the Auditors Association will be held on Friday, June 12th in the Auditorium of the Oregon State Association just ask agent Bond", "You want to know where the fish-", "Good for you when Japan got McMahon why he did not come to take a trip abroad", "McMahon why he is out on republicanism ticket this year, after being elected to the Oregon State Association of the 50th reunion of the Auditors Association will be held on Friday, June 12th in the Auditorium of the Oregon State Association just ask agent Bond", "At the Massonic hall here last Saturday night, Breckinridge, Small of Salem, day night, was a very large gathering before a very large audience of the brethren. The Masonic Lodge room of the knows the farmer's needs especially well, and good roads and other conditions. Vote Siegmund as a man very considerate and kind, and good friend. A de-puty of the Workmen Grand Master was also present and made a fine talk. Some put on the degree work. A de-puty of the Workmen Grand Master was served by the ladies of the Es-ter State. After the lodge meeting a fine luncheon was served by the ladies of the Es-ter State.

A. L. Mathews

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews attended the funeral of C. A. Houston, an old soldier, in Galveston, Texas, last Sunday.

Mrs. Mathews, brother of Mrs. H. N. Grage, is here on a visit. He was in Galveston Saturday for several months, coming to Oregon via auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews, brother of Mrs. H. N. Grage, is here on a visit. He was in Galveston Saturday for several months, coming to Oregon via auto.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt

Misses Franklin, daughter of Miss Ida number 62, brother of Mrs. Ida Franklin and Mrs. Walter Miller has suspended a position with the Miller family to help her mother care for her son and daughter until she returns home.

Misses Franklin, daughter of Miss Ida Franklin and Mrs. Walter Miller has suspended a position with the Miller family to help her mother care for her son and daughter until she returns home.

George W. Hubbs

Mr. Hubbs was selected upon his record as a business man of unusual ability without regard to his political affiliation.

Mr. Hubbs, a representative of working class men and women, interested in his honest, hard-working record to office men capable of producing results.

Mr. Hubbs, a representative of working class men and women, interested in his honest, hard-working record to office men capable of producing results.

A. R. Siegmund

The interests of the taxpayers will be high man in the senatorial race.

George Grifith, candidate for state senator, was here Wednesday. George will be high man in the senatorial race.

Mrs. Thiesen was in Dallas Wednesday.

Misses Franklin remained her guest here until Monday.

Sam Brown

"The services Farmer,"

Burton E. Sweet

For State Senator, Burton county