WORLD HAPPENINGS OF CURRENT WEEK

Daily News Items.

COMPILED FOR YOU A formal verdict, ordering the re-

and Pacific Northwest, and Other Things Worth Knowing.

Ex-President Wilson, addressing the third Armistice day delegation that a motion for a new trial, which Goverceted him at his home here, declared that the principles for which he diately after the verdict was anstood will triumph.

Messages received in Berlin from Munich says that General Ludendorff diet had been returned on each charge. was still on parole, but was being strictly watched. He had been allowed to choose his own place of resi-

A jury in the 18th district court at Cleburne, Tex., Tuesday found T. W. Davis, sheriff of Somervell county, guilty of a charge of accepting a bribe and fixed punishment at four years in the state penitentiary.

Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania them to a conference here November state legislature, which less than two the extension of the coastwise ship-26 to consider a program of federal legislation designed to reduce coal prices.

President Coolidge conferred Wednesday with George C. Jewett, general manager of the American Wheat Growers' Association, Inc., on the question has been lieutenant-governor during council, was re-elected as president of agricultural relief. The talk was two four year administrations and has and Edward P. Kemmer of Tacoma weapon of the campaign against the confined more especially to proposals for helping the wheat farmer.

An attempt is to be made to recover from Lake Nemi, near Rome, the floating palace of the Emperor Tiberius, consisting of two galleys, which have been buried in the mud for 19 centuries. They are believed to contain marvels of ancient art equal to those found in the tomb of Tutankhamen.

For the first time in a number of Haines valley, Oregon, was not finished by November 1. This condition was partly the result of acreage and yields and partly on account of the growers' COURT TIGHTENS failure to obtain the required help during the harvest and threshing season.

Baron Schimaelpennick, burgomaster of Doorn, assured the correspondent of the Associated Press Tuesday on aware of any intention on the part The baron added that he considered quiring any control over or interest of these facilities was resulting in that such folly as the ex-emperor's re- in agricultural lands. turn to Germany was unbelievable.

in the "virgin birth of Christ and the were prohibited from owning or leasapostles' creed," the house of bishops ing agricultural land, the court took of the Protestant Episcopal church in the final step to make such legisla- duced rates; removal of all federal Dallas, Texas, Wednesday evening tion completely effective by holding taxes on telegrams to relieve the comthrew down the gauntlet to various that in the construction of such laws mercial trade, which is responsible for churchmen in and out of the ministry the intention of the states must be 95 per cent of the telegraphic comwho have been casting doubt upon carefully considered and that any munication; amendment of the China the Washington state board of bar agricultural lands equivalent to owner-lishment of trade agreements with examiners, holding that William R. ship and leasing must be construed as Russia until her condition stabilizes Bell, attorney, of Seattle, former su- prohibited. perior court judge, had been guilty of In testing out the alien land laws filed recently with the clerk of the cided last week, but also through state supreme court.

to reduce the total assessment by agricultural lands. $323,000,000 next year, is proposed in When confronted with a contract for Louisiana, Saturday ordered his ings crowded to capacity at the presthe program approved by Secretary with J. Inouye, a Japanese, under Mellon for submission to congress. per cent reduction in the taxes on cultural land in Santa Clara county, carry a suspicious package. earned income; reduction of the normal taxes on incomes from 4 per cent and 8 per cent to 3 per cent and 6 per cent respectively.

Belgians occupy the Ruhr, says a dispatch to the London Daily Mail from court. Berlin. This action was taken on the ground that the treaty of Versailles had been violated by France and that therefore it could not be observed by Germany.

From the report of a shipping case: tracts with aliens are illegal, declared break of hog cholera in parts of the lived a considerable distance from my "The steamer proceeded on her way, Deputy Prosecutor Colvin. Mr. Colvin corn belt. Reports received Saturday home, and when I said I would like until 7 or rather later, when a noise stated that he was unable to estimate by a large grain and provision con- to take Edward, my nephew, if it was heard as of a heavy body like an the total number of Japanese within cern here from 20 points in the west wasn't so far, he looked at me pleadanchor or a chain being dragged along the state who will face eviction, but show that in the territory around 11 ingly and said: "O, auntie, please the deck from the funnel aft. It was asserted that the large Japanese farm of these points the cholera is of a take me. My legs don't think that's thought gripped him and held him the British and numerous tribes of Inthe mate's watch."

Oklahoma City, Okla,-J. C. Walton, fifth governor of Oklahoma, was re moved from office Monday night by Brief Resurre Most Important unanimous vote of the state senate Esch-Dummins Resolution Is ley has been reduced to approximately court of impeachment, after his trial on charges of corruption in office, neglect of duty, moral turpitude and general incompetence.

moval, was returned after the execu tive had been found guilty of 11 of Events of Noted People, Governments the 16 charges presented. The vote Better Navigation Facilities and Othwas 41 to 0.

Six of the original 22 charges constituting the impeachment bill were dismissed by order of the court.

The court, by a standing vote, denied ernor Walton's counsel filed immenounced.

not formally ordered until after a ver- in Portland. was made certain shortly before 4 o'clock, when the court, without a disng his pardon and parole authority.

of the total membership of the body. voted for conviction on the clemency charge, the first to be voted upon. throughout the 16 days of the trial, ed by the resolutions committee. was absent when the final roll was has sent letters to the governors of 29 called. The articles of impeachment were filed by the lower house of the military force.

Upon the removal of Governor Wal- a discussion was precipitated. ton, Lieutenant-Governor Trapp bebeen acting governor since October was renamed secretary. 23, when the senate suspended Governor Walton.

charge, which determined the removal, effort to get the next meeting. followed with surprising suddenness years the threshing of grain in the prosecution, announced that the evi- of the remainder with American condence was concluded.

coast states won a complete victory in detic survey extension, addition of his word of honor that he was not the supreme court Monday in their lighthouse and buoy provisions, was efforts to prevent Japanese from ac- advocated, charging that insufficiency who have been casting doubt upon literal interpretation of the scriptures. It is any reasonable contingency of fect in any reasonable contingency of business there on a parity with other Findings and recommendations of giving such aliens any control over foreign concerns; opposing the estab-

voked and that he be disbarred, were posed leases, as in the two cases de-"cropping" contracts and attempts by ineligible aliens to acquire stock in Revision of federal taxes, estimated companies authorized to buy and sell

California, and divide crops with the owner of the land, the federal district to a police station and search them," court for northern California could were the instructions. "If you find find nothing in the arrangement con- liquor upon them, prefer charges of trary to the alien land laws. The violating the prohibition law." Germany has decided to repudiate same court, however, when Raymond the treaty of Versailles and not to L. Frick proposed to sell to N. Satow comply with either the reparations stock in a corporation fermed to own and deal in agricultural lands, decided sued to the Greek military authorities ing oil in Union county. More than clause or any other of the clauses of that the ownership of the stock by an not to execute the sentences of death the treaty as long as the French and ineligible alien was prohibited. Both imposed on the leaders of the recent

1000 Aliens Face Action.

Scattle.-More than 1000 Japanese residing in King county will face civil of the Venizelist party. and criminal proceedings as the result of the United States supreme court decision holding that "cropping" concolonies will be affected.

GOVERNOR WALTON OUSTED TRADE CONFEREES OPPOSE RAIL LAW

Tabled by 2-1 Vote.

PRESIDENT REMANED

er Measures for Corst Ports Are Advocated.

The Esch-Cummins railroad law passed in 1920, Saturday failed to draw the support of the Pacific foreign trade council, which held the final The governor's removal, although session of its three days' conference

A resolution approving the statute and requesting the next congress to senting vote, found him guilty of abus- allow it to stand, at least "until such time as it has had a fair trial," was Forty-one senators, lacking only one tabled by a vote of 2 to 1.

Other resolutions asking congres sional action in the solution of various Senator Jack Barker, who has voted trade and transportation problems consistently in the governor's favor were adopted unanimously as present-

The only other provision which developed discussion was the attack on months ago the executive at the ping provisions to the Philippine is- it. height of his power had dispersed by lands. No motion to eliminate this part of the report was made, though

William Pigott of Seattle, who for came governor of the state. Trapp the past three years has headed the

The 1924 convention will be held in San Francisco, it was decided, that The vote on the pardon and parole port having made the only organized The resolutions formally adopted after the examination of the last wit. advocate the placing of the emergency ness. E. W. Marland, president of fleet corporation vessels in the hands the Marland Refining company, had of private owners, under a scheme apbarely left the stand when W. E. proved by ship operators and owners. Disney, chairman of the house board Sale of such vessels, possible at presof managers, which conducted the ent, is approved and the contracting cerns for the operation of the others proposed, such vessels to be sold at a stipulated price after three years' time. During this period agents' commissions would apply to purchase and by F. W. Falconer of Pendleton, presi-BAN ON JAPANESE deficits, to a certain extent, be borne by the shipping board.

Washington, D. C.—The Pacific ties, including hydrographic and geo-Improvement of navigation facili-hat such folly as the ex-emperor's reurn to Germany was unbelievable.

Having a week ago sustained the validity of the alien land laws under which aliens ineligible to citizenship than domestic rates; government actions of the merchant marine act was advocated, providing for import and export rail rates, lower than domestic rates; government actions of the merchant marine act was advocated, providing for import and export rail rates, lower than domestic rates; government actions of the merchant marine act was advocated, providing for import and export rail rates, lower than domestic rates; government actions of the merchant marine act was advocated, providing for import and export rail rates, lower than domestic rates; government actions of the merchant marine act was advocated, providing for import and export rail rates, lower than domestic rates; government actions of the merchant marine act was advocated, providing for import and export rail rates, lower than domestic rates; government actions of the merchant marine act was advocated, providing for import and export rail rates, lower than domestic rates. commodations for news communications from foreign countries at reand assaults on American business are taken.

Pocket Must Not Bulge. New Orleans, La.-O. D. Jackson,

federal prohibition enforcement agent which the latter was to cultivate agri-

"Place them under arrest, take them

Greek Rebels Spared.

London.-Instructions have been is cases were appealed to the supreme revolt among the provincial garrisons, have followed negotiations between Cholera Attacks Hogs. Chicago, Ill.-There is a serious outserious character.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

the broccoli crop last year, the acreage for this product in the Willamette val-60 acres, according to reports received ue to industrial accidents in Oregon ing, you might be too late." during the week ending November 15, according to a report prepared here by the state industrial accident com-

Falls City.-The annual community "Father and Son" banquet, sponsored by the Methodist Episcopal church, was held in Victory hall Thursday night. About 200 men and boys at-

Eugene.-The Southern Pacific company has agreed to co-operate with the Oregon Electric Railway company in building a track to connect the two rail systems here, according to word received Saturday.

More than 50 transients have appealed for free beds at the Salem police station in the last 30 days, according to a report prepared here by Walter Birtchet, chief of police. Most of these travelers are en route to California and other southern states.

Salem.-The state board of control will be in Pendleton November 27 to accept the new wing of the Eastern Oregon state hospital. The wing was partially constructed under the Olcott administration and the 1923 legislature appropriated $50,000 to complete Klamath Falls.-War has been declared on Klamath county coyotes and the hostilities will be directed here this winter by Elmer Williams of the United States biological service Portland headquarters. The principal sheep killers will be strychnine.

Salem.-Consolidation of the county recorder and county clerks' offices in Marion county probably will be attempted through a bill to be introduced in the next session of the legislature. This has been done in a number of counties in the state, and was said to have saved the taxpayers consider-est service to increase grazing fees to you were today." Erskine's eyes livestock men on national forests be- darkened. tween 200 and 300 per cent will be pposed by the sheep growers of this state, according to a letter sent out dent of the Oregon Wool Growers' was he hand in glove with Lord Dun-

Salem.-The Portland Pulp & Paper ompany, with a capital stock of $1,-500,000 and headquarters in Portland filed articles of incorporation here Friday. The plant will be located in North Portland on the Peninsula and on the Columbia slough, Incorporators are Roy H. Mills of Portland and Dan J. Fry and F. D. Thielson of Salem.

Salem.-The state flax plant, which was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, will resume operations within the next two months, according to announcement made by A. M. Dalrymple, warden of the state penitentiary. The flax thresher at Rickerall has been in operation for several days, and the materials are now being delivered at the prison for final processing.

Roseburg. - Sutherlin's fall apple crop will be harvested next spring, if the winter weather is not too cold. discontinued and restituted; and re- A spring crop of apples is something I can't explain, but I get choked folded arms against the doorpost, lookconduct involving moral turpitude and of California and Washington, attacks duction of passport fees from $10 to unusual even to the old residents of and I can't breathe—such a longing ing on at the revels with a grave smile. recommending that his license be re- were directed not only through produring the winter months is not too and I can't help me. I must go-and severe apple growers of the Sutherlin vicinity will be picking ripe apples from their trees in April.

Salem.-With the state capitol buildent time, securing of adequate quarters for the newly-created income tax department is causing the secretary of state considerable concern. Under the noises from the horses and cattle in laws Sam A. Kozer, secretary of state, the barn-none from roosting pencock. is custodian of buildings, and it is one of his official duties to provide accommodations for the state depart-

North Powder.-An oil company has been formed for the purpose of find-100 persons have formed the company. which is now drilling on the Duncan McDonald farm, about three miles according to an agency dispatch from from Alicel. The company is known Athens. The reprieve was said to as the Union County Oil company and contracts have been let for the difthe government and a representative ferent buildings. The work is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

Confidence in His Legs.

far."-Exchange.

Erskine Dale — Pioneer

By John Fox, Jr.

Copyright by Charles Scribner's Sons CHAPTER XII-Continued. -13-

"Barbarn would not accept your sacrifice nor would any of us, and it is only fair that I should warn you swiftly out and dropped on the topthat some day, if you should change Salem.-There were four fatalities your mind, and I were no longer liv-

"Please don't, Uncle Harry. done-done. Of course, it wasn't fair for me to consider Barbara alone, but she will be fair and you write: wish you would regard the whole matter as though I didn't exist."

"I can't do that, my boy. I am your steward and when you want anything you have only to let me know! Erskine shook his head.

"I don't want anything-I need very little, and when I'm in the woods, as

"I'd Like to Go-to Learn to rence."

I expect to be most of the time, I need nothing at all." Colonel Dale rose. "I wish you would go to college at Williamsburg for a year or two to better fit yourself-in case-

"I'd like to go-to learn to fence," "You'll certainly need to know that, face against his and at his ear was a Pendleton.-The proposal of the for- if you are going to be as reckless as whisper.

> "Uncle Harry, you may think me foolish, but I don't like or trust Grey. What was he doing with those British his soul had never dreamed. was not buying furs. It's absurd. Why

"Lord Dunmore had a daughter," was the dry reply, and Erskine flung necessary. Colonel Dale crossed the shoulders. "Erskine," he said, "don't worryearnestly:

"I can think of nothing in the world that would make me quite so happy." sick in a wigwam. "It's no use," the boy said tremblinghave just said as long as I live, and, no matter what becomes of me, I'll The rest stole to the walls of the fort. nothing can hold me."

"Your father was that way," said Colonel Dale sadly. "You may get over it, but he never did. And it must be harder for you because of your early associations. Good night, and God bless you." And the kindly gentleman was gone. Erskine sat where he was. The house was still and there were no turkey, and hen. From the far-away quarters came faintly the merry melow notes of a fiddle, and farther still the song of some courting negro returning home. A drowsy bird twittered in an families in peace. As for their church, ancient elm at the corner of the house. The flowers drooped in the moonlight which bathed the great path, streamed | the people who had heard terrible stoacross the great river, and on up to its ries of the wild woodsmen and who source in the great yellow disk float- expected to be killed or made slaves, ing in majestic serenity high in the joyfully became Americans. They cloudless sky. And that path, those flowers, that house, the barn, the cat- to march with him upon Cahokia, and tle, sheep, and hogs, those grain-fields that village, too, soon became Ameriand grassy acres, even those singing can. Father Gibault volunteered to black folk, were nil-all his if he but go to Vincennes. Vincennes gathered said the words. The thought was no in the church to hear him, and then temptation-it was a mighty wonder flung the Stars and Stripes to the that such a thing could be. And that was all it was-a wonder-to him, but to them it was the world. Without t all, what would they do? Perhaps Mr. Jefferson might soon solve the problem for him. Perhaps he might not return from that wild campaign against the British and the Indianshe might get killed. And then a fast-he need not come back. That mighty wilderness beyond the moun- | deeply embittered against all Ameri-

back, and they would never know. Then came a thought that almost made him groan. There was a light step in the hall, and Barbara came most step with her chin in both hands. Almost at once she seemed to feel his knowledge of the Indian. He did not

"Erskine!" As quickly he rose, embarnssed beyond speech. "Come here! Why, you look guilts was startled by her intuition, but he burning with the lust of plunder and recovered himself swiftly.

if I have made you unhappy." don't know what you have made me. You saw how I felt if you had killed have felt if he had killed you. I don't myself." She began patting her hands gently and helplessly together, and again she Shawnee, "to be on guard tomorrow him, but you don't know how I would eyes lifted to the moon. "I shall be very unhappy when you are gone. I wish you were not going. but I know that you are-you can't help it." Again he was startled.

"Whenever you look at that moon over in that dark wilderness, I wish you would please think of your little cousin-will you?" She turned eagerly and he was too moved to speak-he Lightning. The Indians pleaded that only bowed his head as for a prayer they were trying to test the friendship or a benediction. "You don't know how often our thoughts will cross, and that will be a great comfort to me. Sometimes I am afraid. There is a wild strain on my mother's side, and it is in me. Papa knows it and he is wise-so wise-I am afraid I may sometimes do council-fires of the bewildered savsomething very foolish, and it won't It will be somebody that died long ago." She put both her hands over both his and held them tight.

"I want you to make me a promise. "Anything," said the boy huskily. "I want you to promise me that, no matter when, no matter where you are, if I need you and send for you you will come." And Indian-like he put his forehead on both her little "Thank you. I must go now." Bewildered and dazed, the boy rose and awkwardly put out his hand.

"Kiss me good-by." She put her you must depart speedily."

The captive chief spoke and so did

The captive chief spoke and so did smiled the boy, and the colonel smiled time in his life the boy's lips met a woman's For a moment she put her

> "Good-by, Erskine!" And she was gone-swiftly-leaving the boy in a dizzy world of falling stars through which a white light leaped to heights

CHAPTER XIII

With the head of that column of stalwart backwoodsmen went Dave Yandell and Erskine Dale. A hunting out a gesture that ma'e words un- party of four Shawnees heard their coming through the woods, and, lying porch and put his hand on the lad's like snakes in the undergrowth, peered out and saw them pass. Then they rose, and Crooked Lightning looked and-don't give up hope. Be patient, at Black Wolf and, with a grunt of wait, come back to us. Go to William angry satisfaction, led the way homeand Mary. Fit yourself to be one of ward. And to the village they bore us in all ways. Then everything may the news that White Arrow had made yet come out in the only way that good his word and, side by side with ould be fitting and right." The boy the big chief of the Long Knives, was blushed, and the colonel went on leading a war party against his tribe and kinsmen. And Eurly Morn carried the news to her mother, who lay

The miracle went swiftly, and Kasly, "but I'll never forget what you kaskia fell. Stealthily a cordon of hunters surrounded the little town. love Barbara as long as I live. But, Lights flickered from within, the even if things were otherwise, I'd sounds of violins and dancing feet never risk making her unhappy even came through crevice and window. by trying. I'm not fit for her nor Clark's tall figure stole noiselessly into for this life. I can't get over my life in the great hall, where the Creoles were across his face, and an Indian lying on the floor sprang to his feet with a curdling war-whoop, Women screamed and men rushed toward the door. The stranger stood motionless and his grim smile was unchanged.

"Dance on!" he commanded cour teously, "but remember," he added sternly, "you dance under Virginia and not Great Britain!"

There was a great noise behind him, Men dashed into the fort, and Roche blave and his officers were prisoners. By daylight Clark had the town disarmed. The French, Clark said next two selected came forward Erskine day, could take the oath of allegiance to the republic, or depart with their he had nothing to do with any church save to protect it from insult. So that even gave Clark a volunteer compan; winds of freedom above the fort. Clark sent one captain there to take command. With a handful of hardy men who could have been controlled only by him, the dauntless one had conquered a land as big as any European kingdom. Now he had to govern and protect it. He had to keep loyal an allen race and hold his own against dians, bloodthirsty, treacherous and any American troops; farther still from the seat of government, and could get no advice or help for per-

And those Indians poured into Cahokla-a horde of them from every was his real life. He need not come | tribe between the Great Lakes and the Mississippi-chiefs and warriors of every importance; but not before Clark had formed and drilled four companies of volunteer Creoles.

"Watch him!" said Dave, and Erskine did, marveling at the man's presence, for she turned her head live in the fort, but always on guard always seemingly confident, stayed openly in town while the savages, sullen and grotesque, strutted in full war panoply through the straggling streets, -what have you been thinking?" He inquisitive and insolent, their eyes murder. For days he sat in the midst "I suppose I will always feel guilty of the ringed warriors and listened On the second day Erskine saw Kah-"You haven't made me unhappy. I too in the throng and Crooked Lightning and Black Wolf. After dusk that day he felt the fringe of his huntingshirt plucked, and an Indian, with face hidden in a blanket, whispered as he

"Tell the big chief," he said in dropped her chin into them with her night." He knew it was some kindly tribesman, and he wheeled and went to Clark, who smiled. Already the big chief had guards concealed in his little house, who selzed the attacking Indians, while two minutes later the townspeople were under arms. The captives were put in irons, and Erskine saw among them the crestfallen faces of Black Wolf and Crooked of the French for Clark, but Clark, refusing all requests for their release remained silent, haughty, indifferent, fearless. He still refused to take refuge in the fort, and called in a number of ladies and gentlemen to his house, where they danced all night amid the ages. Next morning he stood in the center of their ringed warriors with the tasseled shirts of his riflemen massed behind him, released the captive chiefs and handed them the bloody war belt of wampum,

"I scorn your hostility and treach ery. You deserve death, but you shall leave in safety. In three days I shall begin war on you. If you Indians do not want your women and children killed-stop killing ours. We shall see who can make that war belt the most bloody. While you have been in my camp you have had food and fire-old Kahtoo, with his eyes fixed sadly but proudly on his adopted son. They had listened to bad birds and been led astray by the British-henceforth they would be friendly with the Americans.

But Clark was not satisfied. "I come as a warrior," he said haughtily; "I shall be a friend to the friendly. If you choose war I shall send so many warriors from the Thirteen Council-Fires that your land shall be darkened and you shall hear no sounds but that of the birds who live on blood." "And then he handed forth two belts of peace and war, and they eagerly took the belt of peace. The treaty followed next day and

"Tell the Big Chief," He Said in Shaw

Clark Insisted that two of the prisoners should be put to death; and as the saw Black Wolf was one. He whispered with Clark and Kahtoo, and Crooked Lightning saw the big shief with his hand on Erskine's shoulder and heard him forgive the two and tell them to depart. And thus peace

Straightway old Kahtoo pushed through the warriors and, plucking the big chief by the sleeve, pointed to Ers-

"That is my son," he said, "and I want him to go home with me." "He shall go," said Clark quickly, "but he shall return, whenever it pleases him, to me." And so Erskine went forth one morning at dawn, and his coming into the Shawnee camp was like the com ing of a king. Early Morn greeted him with glowing eyes, his fostermother brought him food, looking proudly upon him, and old Kahtoo arangued his braves around the council-pole, while the prophet and Crooked Lightning sulked in their

tents. CTO BE CONTINUED.