MRS. M. C. SMITH

Mrs. M. C. Smith, one of 14 children born to Lewis and Anne Jones, pioneers of 1852, passed away at her home at 532 E. Sixth St., Albany, at 6:30 o'clock Thursday night. She was 74 years of age at the time of her death.

She was born at St. Joseph, Missouri, March 20, 1851, and crossed the plains with her parents while an infant. Her people settled among the Waldo hills upon coming to Oregon. The McAlpin school, in the Waldo hills was named for her mother's people. They later moved to Jefferson.

She was married to Dr. W. M. Smith, an early practitioner of medicine, who later lived at Salem and Turner. Children borne to Dr. and Mrs. Smith are Dr. W. Carleton Smith of Salem, Mrs. Harold B. Loney of Jefferson, and Mrs. C. B. Dinor of Denver, Colo. She is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Mrs. H. A. Johnson and Miss Sarah Jones of Salem, Mrs. J. A. Conner of Albany and S. J. Jones of Portland. Her eldest brother, Dr. D. M. Jones, pioneer physician of Albany died recently at that place.

Up until last year Mrs. Smith had been active in civic and club life. She had been an active member of the Patrons of Husbandry, including the Pomona Grange, past matron of the Eastern Star, active among the War Mothers, and had served as school director. She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Albany.

Funeral services were held from the Rigdon & Sons chapel in Salem. Final services were at Twin Oak Cemetery at Turner in charge of the Eastern Star.

CRAWFORD NEWS

Birthday Celebrated

One of the latest social activities in Turner was the radio party given by Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Ransom, the occasion being Mrs. Ransom's birthday. Dr. Ransom recently installed a radio, which gave the major part of the entertainment for the evening. The hostess received many beautiful gifts in honor of the occasion. Refreshments consisting of pie, cake and punch were served. The guests departed at a late hour, wishing their hostess many more happy birthdays.

Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John Ransom; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ransom and son of Lyons, and Mrs. Braisher of Salem. Among the local people present were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Asher and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hewitt and son Myron, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. G. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Watson Sr., Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Demytt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards, Mesdames L. J. Rowley, Melinda Chambers, W. A. Martin, C. W. Pogue and son Myron, H. W. Smith, L. M. Small, E. W. Swallow and son Francis, Mrs. Johnson, Messrs F. P. Rowley and Carl Duncan, Mildred Martin and Dr. and Mrs. Ransom.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Let us make next Sunday a banner Sunday by attending Sunday school on the last Sunday of the year. Are you interested in the election of officers for the Sunday School? It will take place next Sunday at 10 o'clock. All are welcome who wish to attend.

All members of the church are urged to be present at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon to elect officers for next year.

In the morning Bro. Shelley will speak on a very important subject for every member of the church. In the evening "The Changing Years and the Unchanging Christ."

A very fine program has been prepared for Christmas Eve, Dec. 24th. An old time tree with the old time Christmas spirit. Santa Claus will surely remember all the children who come.

Remember the District Convention at the high school auditorium January 3.

Christian Endeavor topic next Sunday "Press on." Are you satisfied with the position you are now in?

M. E. CHURCH

The Christmas exercises were held last Sunday evening. A fine program was given. The special music by the choir was well rendered. The special part of the program was the Home scene featuring Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bond as the grand parents, with their grand children around them, telling them the Christmas story.

The Christian Church dismissed their services and attended in a body, which was greatly appreciated.

Services as usual next Sunday. On January 3 the Turner Methodist church will entertain the Santiam District Sunday School Convention at the High School auditorium.

Saturday afternoon of last week several men of the congregation made some necessary repairs on the Methodist church. Three rods were put through the building to draw in the sides where they were sprung out. This makes it absolutely safe and solid.
