CHURCH OF CHRIST

We are climbing the ladder in our attendance at Sunday school. Give us a willing helping hand, it may do you good. Our church attendance is increasing. Attend next Sunday as it is the last Sunday before convention time at the Tabernacle. Among the speakers at the convention are J. B. Hunley, Walla Walla, Wash.; Guy L. Drill, Pendleton; Ralph L. Putnam, Salem. Among the missionaries who will be present are James McCallum, China; Hattie Mitchell, Africa. A special program has been worked out in a manner to be more helpful to young people than other years. The C. E. is giving a party for the young people of Turner and community Saturday evening, June 26, at 8 o'clock on the Tabernacle grounds. We ask the ladies to bring either cake, sandwiches, cookies or pickles. Many new games will be played. Young people, accept this as a personal invitation to come and enjoy yourselves. It does not matter which church, if any, you belong to. Come.

SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 79 ADOPTS BUDGET

The annual school meeting for School District No. 79 was held on Monday afternoon at the high school auditorium. The 1926 budget was read and adopted. Arthur Edwards was elected director in place of D. F. Eastburn. In declining the nomination Mr. Eastburn stated that while he was interested in having a good school and having it run economically he would rather see someone in who had children in the school. Mr. Eastburn has made an efficient director.

pastor gave us two good sermons last Sunday.
