Ray Baker, and wife of Portland, Gerald Gower, wife and son Gerald Jr. of Newberg and Mrs. Barbara Snyder, of Gervais, were at the E. C. Baker home Sunday.

G. A. McKay returned from his hunting trip last week bringing back a fine specimen of the Mule deer.

Mrs. Scott Funston had as her guest over the week-end, her sister Miss Grace L. Funston, of Portland, who is a teacher in the Girls Polytechnic School there. They attended the teachers reception in Turner on Friday night and were accompanied by Mr. Scott Funston.

Paul Driedwell, of Portland, was in Turner on business Tuesday.

A friendly investment is described on the opposite page. P. E. P. Co.

The Pearson and Hall hunting parties returned Saturday from Southern Oregon bringing back seven deer.

M. T. Miller and wife returned from a six weeks vacation at Gold Beach. They report a fine time and good fishing.

The teacher's reception, held at the high school, last Friday, was a great success. The decorations were beautiful and the program excellent. Light refreshments were served. The only shadow over the occasion was the tampering with a car of one of the teachers, by some of the pupils who thought to play a joke by turning off the gasolene.

Mrs. McKinney, sister-in-law of Lawrence Robertson, has moved to Turner to make her home with her son Joe, who has purchased the Mrs. Georgia Brasher property.

Rev. C. W. Fogue, who has been pastor of the Turner Methodist church the past three years, goes to Yamhill. Rev. Mr. Groves, formerly of Pratum, comes to Turner.

A large glass in the door of the I. L. store was found broken a few mornings ago.

Mrs. C. W. Fogue was ill a few days last week with rheumatism in her arm.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Sunday School will be held as usual but there will be no preaching next Sunday as it is Convention Sunday. Every one who can should attend the convention next Sunday. A good program has been prepared and there will be three addresses by some good speakers. Follow the pavement to Mehama and enjoy the day.

Bro. Micks, of Eugene, has accepted the invitation of the church and will be our regular pastor. Come and hear him.

The Endeavorers are planning great things for the future. We urge those who have been members at some time to attend next Sunday evening.

Pennsylvania's Contribution to the Sesqui

Here is the Keystone State's building at the great Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition at Philadelphia, celebrating 150 years of American independence. In this huge structure Pennsylvania is displaying her progress from the arrival of Penn to the present day. The building is one of the handsomest on the big exposition grounds and has proved a rendezvous for hundreds of thousands of people who have come from near and far to see the magnificent exhibits established by forty-three of the leading nations of the world. The Exposition continues until December 1.
