FROM FAR AND NEAR

New French postmarks urge hygiene. Honolulu now has six automobile passenger buses. In some parts of India leopards have destroyed all the dogs. Bones of cattle and sheep are an important item in China's export trade. Dust explosions caused $3,000,000 property damage in this country last year.

Antares is the largest heavenly body that has yet been measured. Resembling an enlarged bottle opener is a new device for opening ice cream cans. Postage stamps have been sold in most countries throughout the world for 85 years. Out of about 45,000,000 population in Great Britain, 28,000,000 persons received public assistance in 1919.

WHAT WILL PAPA DO?

Now what is Dr. Rufus R. von Kleinsmid going to do about this? As president of the University of Southern California he has announced that the women students at the college MUST NOT SMOKE. And his own daughter, Miss Betty von Kleinsmid, flatly declines to agree with the paternal pronouncement. "Women have a right to smoke, if they want to," she says. "It's a personal matter."

The KITCHEN CABINET

(60, 1924, Western Newspaper Union.)

So long as men shall be on earth there will be tasks for them to do. Some way for them to show their worth. Each day shall bring its problems new. And men shall dream of mightier deeds. Than ever have been done before. There always shall be human needs. For men to work and struggle for. —Edgar Guest.

EVERYDAY GOOD THINGS

For a luncheon dish scalloped corn makes a most tasty one. The following is an old dish:

Corn a la Southern.—To one can of corn add two well-beaten eggs, one teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper, one-half teaspoonful of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of butter and one pint of scalded milk. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake in a slow oven until firm.

Corn Oysters.—Beat two eggs, add one can of corn, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one tablespoonful of butter and one-half cupful of flour, season with salt and pepper and fry on a hot griddle in small spoonfuls. Nice served with chicken or squab.

Mock Crab.—Melt four tablespoonfuls of butter, add one-half cupful of flour mixed with one-half teaspoonful of salt, three-fourths teaspoonful of mustard, one-fourth teaspoonful of paprika; when well blended pour on gradually one and one-half cupfuls of milk. Bring to the boiling point and add one can of corn, one egg slightly beaten, three teaspoonfuls of Worcestershire sauce. Turn into a buttered baking dish, cover with croutons and bake until the croutons are brown.

Fried Celery Tomato Sauce.—Wash and scrape celery, cut into three-inch lengths, dip into butter and fry in deep fat. Drain on brown paper and serve with tomato sauce. To make batter mix one-half cupful of flour, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, a few grains of pepper, one-third of a cupful of milk and one egg well beaten.

Cooked celery served with cheese and white sauce as an escalloped dish makes a good hot dish for luncheon or supper.

Baked Chestnuts.—Remove the shells from a pint of chestnuts, put into a baking dish and cover with seasoned chicken stock. Bake until soft, keeping covered until nearly done.

Boiled Chestnuts With Sauce.—Remove the hard shells from the nuts, blanch them in boiling water ten minutes, then drop them in cold water and rub off the brown skins. Drop the blanched nuts into rapidly boiling water and cook until tender when pierced with a fork. Drain and let steam over boiling water until the sauce is made. Serve with a rich white sauce or a drawn butter, or a Hollandaise.

More Good Things

The following is a delicious way of serving chicken: Dress the chicken and cut into serving sized pieces, stew until tender. If the chicken is tough add two tablespoonfuls of vinegar when it is cooked. Add salt, four or five whole cloves and peppercorns, a bay leaf, two cupfuls of milk and one-half cupful of cream. When it boils thicken with a tablespoonful or two of flour stirred smooth with cold milk. Pour over well baked baking powder biscuits split and buttered and placed on a hot platter.

Parsnip Puff.—Boil parsnips until tender, put through a sieve, add a tablespoonful of butter to each cupful of pulp, season with salt and pepper. Beat two egg yolks, add to one-fourth cupful of white sauce, cool, and add the stiffly beaten whites, pour into a well buttered baking dish and set into hot water; bake until brown.

Another Way With Parsnips.—Clean the fresh vegetables and cut into narrow strips, put on to cook with a tablespoonful or two of butter for each pint of sliced parsnips, add no water, cover tightly and steam, cooking carefully until tender. There will be moisture enough in the vegetable to keep from burning. When tender add salt and pepper and stir until lightly browned.

Spanish Cream.—Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of gelatin in one-half cupful of cold water. Cream the yolks of two eggs with one-half cupful of sugar. Pour over these the gelatin, stirring all the time, adding a pint of hot milk. Add a pinch of salt and flavor. Put back in a double boiler and cook as thick as boiled custard. Cool and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Put into a mold and set away to chill.

Dumplings.—Take one beaten egg, one cupful of buttermilk, one-half teaspoonful of salt—if buttermilk is sweet add no soda, if slightly sour add a pinch of soda—four to make a drop batter, adding two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Drop into a hot stew of meat or chicken and cover at once; cook from eight to twelve minutes, according to size of the dumplings. A delicious frosting for any plain cake is a boiled frosting to which a little cream, chopped nuts and raisins are added.

REVIVE GRACEFUL BELL SLEEVES; BOLERO TYPES FOR AFTERNOON

WE HAVE with us, under latest fashion, that once-upon-a-time favorite, the bell sleeve. It bids fair to repeat its former triumphs, for not only do our frocks attest to its revival, but also our coats both cloth and fur. The idea of the bell sleeve tuns in most harmoniously with today's trend toward feminizing the styles. There is something most charming in the frock which has graceful bell sleeves cunningly be-ruffled with contrasting material, to the depth of the in regard to this subject. Throughout the styling of not only dresses but suits as well, the bolero is taken as a matter of fact. Designers are creating many versions in the name of bolero, some of which employ the all-around treatment, some with open backs, others much longer than those we have been accustomed to seeing. Advance reports from abroad are to the effect that the bolero, which at present is playing so important a role in not only afternoon but evening elbow. Many of the silk and crepe afternoon frocks are just that way. This same row-and-row trimming is achieved for cloth coats by means of bandings of narrow fur. Others, both wraps and frocks, show elaborate embellishment of embroidery or applique design. While still other coats have bell sleeves void of trimming save perhaps a turn-back cuff.

If, however, one feels the urge to embellish and elaborate, the bell sleeve gives ample opportunity, in fact becomes inspirational in that direction. Handsomely is the decorative thought expressed in the development of the striking coat model in the picture. Throughout its design it reflects the frocks as well, bids fair to be even more pronounced in the spring styles, especially in the fashioning of youthful cloth suits.

As a matter of immediate importance, the bolero is an outstanding item. It is the bolero idea which lends piquant style to the attractive emerald green velvet afternoon dress from Doucet, here pictured. A broad black velvet band forms the neckline. Gold effectively details the neckline of the under blouse and edges the pockets and cuffs.

It is most timely that these cunning little jacket effects be introduced into the scheme of dress design at this moment, for the trend of the mode is Russian influence, not only the entire silhouette but from the fact that it is embroidered in national colors and trimmed with flying squirrel.

Especially does the flowing sleeve take on exaggerated lines when it comes to the afternoon frocks of georgette which are at present so very fashionable. The charm of these dainty, colorful dresses is their fluttering draperies and the sleeve does its share in adding grace to the picture. Not only bell sleeves but angel-wing sleeves are good style.

To have a bolero or not to have a bolero is not the question, for fashion leaves no doubt in the mind decidedly toward elaboration, and the bolero always invites an intricate style accompaniment. In the under-bolero which necessarily must be with every bolero, a wealth of opportunity is presented to smuggle in all sorts of frills and furbelows and ornate hand-work. For instance, be it a velvet, satin or crepe frock, it is becoming for the bolero to open over a white satin bodice, heavily encrusted with all-over gold and silver embroidery. This underbolero could just as acceptably be made of gleaming metal cloth, of lace or of georgette handsomely tucked or plaited.

Belts of Suede

Just as suddenly as belts disappeared from all our gowns, so have they returned. The suede belts in bright colors vary in width from quarter of an inch to three inches. Suede handbags often match the belts.

Jerkins of Colored Suede

Jerkins of colored suede are ideal for sports wear. They are particularly smart when there is a knitted turban-neck collar and close-fitting cuffs.

Two Better Than One

Double belts are being exhibited in Paris. One belt is placed about six inches below the other, both being below the normal waistline. The lower one confines a puff sash from the upper one and gives the effect of a panner or drape.

For Coat Lapel

Tiny boutonnières of colored crystal flowers are worn on the lapel of the tailored suit.

Help Kidneys By Drinking More Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation.
