Constitutional Government

Constitutional Government, particularly as it applies to the enforcement of prohibition, is to be the theme of a nationally known lecturer of the Flying Squadron Foundation, at a meeting to be held in the Christian church on Sunday Morning, April 17th at 11 A.M.

The speaker for this occasion will be Miss Norma C. Brown, of Bloomington, Illinois. Miss Brown is an ordained minister in the Diocles of Christ church and was chaplain of the Illinois Senate at 21. She comes highly recommended as a gifted writer and speaker having spoken in every state and capital city in the United States.

PLEASANT POINT

A fire in the furnace room at the Boy's Training School last Friday, caused some excitement and danger for a short time. The damage was not great.

Mr. Cecil Rogers was able to be out Sunday, after his short severe illness.

A missionary from Mexico talked to the people at the Pleasant Point school house last Sunday. She is very inspirational, and is received with joy. Every one is invited to hear her here next Sunday at 11 a. m.; when she will speak on Mexico. Come and learn the truth about that neighbor country.

Mrs. N. Rosenbalm is away visiting. On April 13th, Lawrence Girardin is going to sell his whole herd of high grade Jersey cows at auction.
