Albert Given was dispensing gas and oil at Bones Brothers' garage Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus and children, of Crawford Dist., passed through Turner Sunday, on their way to visit Mrs. Titus' parents, in Salem.

J. K. Snyder was a business visitor in Turner Saturday.

Bones Brothers' service station is being treated to a fresh coat of paint. A color scheme of blue and white is being used which gives it a very attractive appearance. A. L. Bones is getting his flowers in shape to give off their usual show of beauty this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gower and two children Gerald Jr. and Barbara Ann, of Newberg, and Mrs. Barbara, of Gervais, visited Mrs. Gower's and Mrs. Snyder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker, Sunday. Mrs. Snyder, who has been teaching at Gervais, has closed her school and reports that every one of her eighth grade students passed the state test. Mrs. Snyder expects to attend summer school at Ashland this summer.

Mrs. O. P. Given returned last Wednesday from a two month visit with relatives in Bremerton and Seattle, home by her niece, Mrs. Ella Hughes, who will spend some time visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Archibald.

Albert Given and Elmer Webb have joined the ranks of the "Motorcycle Mikes." Each of them having recently purchased a motorcycle.

Oats for sale—Also a few sacks of seed potatoes.—Mayro McKinney, Route 3.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will hold their monthly Silver Tea at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bear, Thursday, June 2. All those having no way to go will be furnished transportation by calling Mrs. L. M. Small.

The threatened libel suit on Ye Editor growing out of an article in last week's paper about certain prominent citizens chasing a stray chicken was called off owing to the fact that it would be rather embarrassing for the constable to have to arrest himself. Anyway the chicken turned out to be a sick hen that he was afraid would get with his fine flock of poultry.

Harve Ransom was a Sunday visitor at the home of his father, Rr. J. W. Ransom.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. Baker's parents.

The Gray Diggers baseball team met defeat at the hands of the team from Sheild, on the Cloverdale diamond. The score was 7 to 0.

The Turner baseball club played a fast game of ball with the Stayton sluggers on the Turner diamond and were defeated by a score 5 to 9.

Mrs. Frances Delzell has received favorable comment on her poems. Several of them having been placed with the Standard Publishing Co., the Household Magazine and the Pacific Homestead.

Dr. Sanderson, president of E.B.U. was a Turner visitor this week.

CRAWFORD NEWS

Mrs. Thomas Little, who is in the Salem Hospital is reported as getting along very nicely.

Mrs. P. E. Thomason, her son Owen and daughter Mrs. J. F. Hutcheon of Stockton, Calif., motored to Portland Friday returning Saturday evening.

School closed Friday. Mrs. R. O. Witzel gave the school children and the people of the community a party at her home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus and family spent Sunday with relatives in Salem.

Mrs. Millie Loftis, a sister of Mrs. Mayro McKinney, is in the hospital in The Dalles following an operation. The last report she was doing well.

Kenneth Loretz, Teko Larson and Hilda Larson went on a fishing trip Sunday.

Sam Handshy went to California last Thursday.

METHODIST CHURCH

A pleasant surprise was given the Turner people Sunday when Rev. Harry G. Crouse of Stayton preached at the morning service while the pastor spoke at the Methodist church in Stayton. Rev. Crouse preached a very able sermon on "The Great Street Meeting."

At night the people received another treat when Dr. D. H. Leach, district Supt. of the Salem district, gave a fine discourse on "The Meaning of the Cross."

The Epworth Leaguers spent a very fine and profitable meeting with the Christian Endeavor at the Christian church Sunday evening. Next Sunday morning we plan a special memorial service. Come to church for this service.

"Just a minute, man. Don't talk so loud. Be still and know that I am God."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The attendance last Lords Day was fair but not so good as the Sunday before. Those who were absent missed two fine sermons. Brother, Clay, an able and accomplished minister was with the church and will return next Sunday. Do not fail to come, you will enjoy the meetings. An important business meeting will be called. The prayer meetings are growin in interest. All should go to the home of Mrs. Archibald next Wednesday evening.

The Union meeting of the young people was a fine demonstration of fellowship. The young people did their part with earnest enjoyment. The singing was a real treat with Miss Eleanor Moore leading.

TIN WHISTLE DANCE
 Nothing Too Good For Old Timers
 Dad Watson's Real Old Time Dance
 CRYSTAL GARDEN—SALEM
 THURSDAY—JUNE 2nd

Those of our neighbors who have attended the Dad Watson Real Old Time Dances at Salem are preparing to attend the next dance to be given at Crystal Garden—Salem—next Thursday evening, June 2.

This party given prior to the Portland Rose Festival will be featured as a Tin Whistle Dance. Dad Watson's entire 8-piece Portland Radio Orchestra will be present—a live wire floor committee will care for strangers—plenty of quadrills and other old time dances—no jazz music—no jazz dancing.

Dad Watson tries to earn the name and deserve the reputation for sponsoring the most enjoyable Real Old Time Dances given in the United States. Those who have attended will bear witness.

Remember—next Thursday evening—June 2—Crystal Garden—Salem. You will have a good time—You will enjoy yourself. (Paid Advt.)

dist church held their regular monthly party for their members and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hewitt, Tuesday evening, May 24. A goodly number of young people were present to enjoy the evening. It was planned to have an open air party along Mill Creek, but owing to the bad weather it was decided to accept the invitation to use the Hewitt home. Their plans to have a weine roast in the way of refreshments carried out by making use of the fireplace for the purpose. A good time was enjoyed by all.

GARAGE MAN LAID UP WITH LAME SHOULDER

C. F. Bones, who has charge of the mechanical end of Bones Brothers' garage has been laid up with torn ligaments in the chest and shoulder. Mr. Bones made two trips to stayton last week to consult Dr. Brewer who is treating him. The injury is thought to be partly the result of an old injury when Mr. Bones suffered some broken ribs. He has been ordered to take a complete rest.

VERLOOPS MOVE TO KLAMATH FALLS

Mr. and Mrs. Dirk Verloop and Walter Kruge, who makes his home with them, have moved to Klamath Falls. Mr. Verloop was of a very eccentric turn and created considerable interest and amusement while here. Mr. Kruge has been representing a prominent Seattle newspaper. C. Cole moved the Verloop family to the Eastern Oregon city.
