METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

There was a good attendance at the services last Sunday in spite of the hot weather.

The union services last Sunday were well attended. The morning service was held in the Methodist church and the evening in the Christian church. It is hoped we may have more of these feasts together.

Rev. M. A. Groves of the Methodist church preached at both services.

The pastor and some of the members are spending the week in Cottage Grove attending the annual camp meeting. While away the pastor will visit his grandparents in Roseburg, also an uncle visiting there from Oklahoma.

The regular services next Sunday, Sunday school at 10 a.m., preaching at 11; Epworth League at 7 p.m.; and preaching at 8 p.m.

A number of young folks are planning to attend the Institute at Falls City, some for the entire week and a goodly number for the week-end. The Institute dates are July 1-8.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN W. BURGE CELEBRATE 44 ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Burge celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary at their home in Turner last Sunday. Those present were their daughter and two sons, Mrs. F. S. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Burge of Corvallis and G. W. Burge and family of Portland. An old friend of the family, H. L. Englis and wife of Roseburg were also present.

LADIES AID ENJOY PICNIC

The farm home of Mrs. Melvin Nipple, east of Stayton between Stayton and Mehama, was the scene of a happy gathering Thursday last when the members of the Stayton and Turner Methodist Ladies' Aid gathered for a joint picnic. Between thirty and forty were in attendance. Mrs. Melvin Nipple, the hostess, was ably assisted by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Nipple, in the serving of a fine chicken dinner at the noon hour on the shady lawn, in tables set with toothsome viands. A short business meeting followed the dinner and later an unusually fine program of music and literary offerings took place. Space will not allow mention of any of those who took part except to say that the vocal solo given by Rev. Harry Crouse of Stayton would do honor to any professional. Mrs. Crouse recited charmingly. After the program was ended ice cream, cake and fruit punch served, thus rounding out a picnic which was the best ever had. Mrs. Nipple fully carried her reputation of hospitality and of being a charming hostess. The day was all which could have been desired as regards an ideal summer's day.
