

THE TURNER TRIBUNE

F. P. Rowley, Editor

Issued Every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR. Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the country for which it stands. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Our Quotation for This Week

Blow not into a flame the spark which is kindled between friends. They are easily reconciled and both will hate you.—From the German.

THE LAST ENCAMPMENT

The G. A. R. is talking about the "last encampment." There is pathos in those words. The end draws near. The ranks have thinned, and those who remain march slowly if they march at all. The annual gathering of the veterans who wore the blue becomes increasingly a tax upon declining years. Bravely the old men go to meet their comrades not counting that the effort has hastened the final roll call.

The last chapter of a great episode in our history is being written. It should be made a glorious chapter. Someone has suggested an encampment at the National Capital an encampment at which both the blue and the gray may join hands to celebrate the closing of the breach, and then adjournment sine die. It would be an occasion of which the whole country should take notice. Some signal honors for the remnants of the two armies, whose hearts now beat in a common loyalty to their country's flag, should mark this final meeting.

Rabbi Wise, returning from abroad, says that Europe is facing a crisis and wants America to help. Which is only another way of saying that conditions are normal across the Atlantic.

A Maine grandma aged 101 and a New Hampshire grandpa aged 100 took an airplane ride the other day and enjoyed it. Some of these days they are going to carry this flaming youth stuff too far.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler says that no great man has appeared as a result of the World War. He didn't say it when he was visiting Mussolini.

You don't often hear the expression "all wool and a yard wide" nowadays. In the first place they don't wear wool any more, and then the average skirt is only about half a yard wide anyhow.

M. E. CHURCH

A good program, promotion exercises, good attendance and plenty of enthusiasm made the Sunday school session one of the best that we have had for some time. May we have many more like it.

A social conducted by the young people of the church will be held at the parsonage Friday evening, October 14, at 8 o'clock. All young people of the high school and community are invited.

A social conducted by the young people of the church will be held at the parsonage Friday evening, October 14 at 8 o'clock. All young people of the high school and community are invited.

A Modern's Idea of Repentance will be the serious subject for Sunday morning, the second of a series of messages on the great doctrines of Christian experience.

Strangers, newcomers, and those not attending church elsewhere are invited to our services.

The best excuse for absence from church is not as good as actual attendance. The oxmen may save your soul, but it is not likely the excuse will.

ANNUAL MEETING

OCTOBER FOURTEENTH

The 1927 Annual Meeting of the Marion County Public Health Association is to be held in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium at 7:30 o'clock on October 14. This is the first Annual Meeting of this Association to be held in this county since the Marion County Child Health Demonstration came to the county.

The executive committee of the county council, the advisory group for the Marion County Child Health demonstration, at its meeting on Monday, October 3, endorsed the plan of the Marion County Public Health Association for reorganization to become the permanent health organization in Marion county.

Everyone is invited to attend the annual meeting. Mrs. Sallie Orr-Dunbar, executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, is to be one of the speakers of the evening.

REVIVAL SERVICES

The Turner Memorial Christian Church decided last Sunday to begin a Revival meeting next Sunday, Oct. 16. This meeting will be conducted by home forces, Mr. Clay doing the preaching. The people of the community are cordially invited to attend these services. A kindly gospel message will be given each night.

The following are some of the subjects that will be presented, though perhaps not in the order named: The Religion for the Twentieth Century; "I am not ashamed of the Gospel"; "The Unknown God; Sin and the Sinner; What is it to be a Christian? The Certainty of the Judgment; The Remedy for Sin; What a Salvation; Is Salvation Conditional? The Irresistible Christ; What may we know of God; the Greatest Commandment and the Greatest Reward."

The music will be good and everyone who attends these services will enjoy them. Come and see for yourself. If you are a believer in God, come and help in this revival of the faith and life.

MOONLITE IN AUTUMN

Etched against the star-jemmed sky The ranch-house stood and buildings high Were black as ink; in silhouette The giant oak's arms were fret Of net-work jet, the tall tapered pines Crowned low hills, gray unbroken lines.

Ebon and blue this autumn nite; A fathomless sky, deep, star-brite, Made glorious by a tipsy crescent Lady moon crossing a river-vent Of sapphire blue; high above the corner

Old world shadows, where men lumber The sky and earth clasp hands in silence

As true friends after long absence So nature turns to nite's arms to sleep The moon and stars shine As candle-peep.

Thru soft curtains round a trundle bed Where our first childish prayer was said,

Oh, wonderful the spirit of nite, Robed in veils of Elysian brite. The autumn sky seems the floor of heaven.

The soothing peace of night is leaven That heals the ache of storm-tossed heart. For this earth's beauty is of heaven a part.
