Dean and Mrs. E. C. Sanderson, of the Eugene Bible University, were in Turner Sunday for dedication of the Turner Memorial Home.

Several members of the local Masonic lodge attended the Masonic lodge in Stayton, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Little spent Sunday afternoon at the J. M. Bones home.

"No insurance". This is the saddest part of the report of many fires. Be wise. Protect your home or other property from loss. See Rowley.

Levi Webb, of West Salem, is confined to the house with a bad case of blood poison. Levi is a former Turner boy and is employed at the penitentiary as guard.

Mrs. J. M. Bones has received 100 baby chicks from the Needham hatcheries, at Salem. They are of the Frost ringlet strain and are a fine lot of chickens. F. F. Peters has disposed of his fine lot of rabbits.

Do you carry insurance on your home? See the Rowley Insurance Agency, Tribune Office, Turner.

Some of the Petersen boys were out of school the past week on account of a form of skin disease.

Ball Brothers unloaded a car load of new Chevrolats Tuesday.

Some of the girls, former graduates of Turner high school are organizing a girls Basketball Club. They had their first practice Monday night.

Elmer Webb is home for a few days from the mill at Mill City.

Mrs. G. A. G. Moore is suffering from a bad tooth.

The Work Club met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Farris on Tuesday. At noon a fine dinner was served. There was a good attendance.

A little boy in this town told his mother his "tummy" hurt and when asked just where the pain was, pointed to his throat.—Contributed.

George Staples and Dr. Staples are established in a comfortable bungalow in Santa Barbara, California, with no time set for their return.

H. L. Earl has hardly been able to attend to business this week and last on account of a heavy cold. He is reported to be improving. Mrs. Earl is better but not out of the house yet.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Petersen and son Elden, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Blanche Stevens, at Marion.

Kenneth Peterson spent Saturday at the home of E. O. Small, at Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Barber and family spent Sunday in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Demytt, of Salem, were Turner visitors Sunday.

WE NOTICE

That the decorations are still on the business buildings in Turner.

That little attention seems to be paid to the beautiful decorations of red and black.

That, no matter what happens, business in Turner goes on just the same.

That Ronald Townsend has the sideburns to match Earl Bear's new mustache.

That, from the amount of glass, Ball Brothers believe in plenty of light on the job.

That some one will have a good job polishing plate glass.

That Floyd Robertson is getting ready to boost Sheridan Mineral Baths. That's the stuff, "Doc".

That we had better lay aside our pen if we expect to be back again next week.

Remember the good old days before they discovered germs and you could go swimming in the river without worrying about stream pollution.

They are doing the giraffes in the Washington Zoo with cod liver oil wouldn't you hate to be giraffe and have to taste the stuff all the way down.

Lot of fellows get credit for being hard boiled when they are only dumb.

One thing that it generally pays to put off until tomorrow is a visit to the bootlegger.

A Mexican deciding to run for president must have the same uncertain feeling that a fat gobbler has a few days before Thanksgiving.
