

THE TURNER TRIBUNE

F. J. Rowley, Editor

Issued Every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR. Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the country for which it stands. One Nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

The latest report from the Nicaraguan war zone is that Sandino has captured a gold mine. Pretty good for a man who was supposed to have been licked six months ago.

A Helena, Montana, newspaper suggested the other day, and a pretty good suggestion too, that Chicago should ask for a battalion of Nicaraguan troops to supervise their elections.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Marion County. William P. Dugg, Wilson L. Dady, Lura M. Cruse, Lucy R. Sturm, Kathryn Dady, Marion Leslie Barby, Eva M. Neesham and Bertha M. Logan vs. Plaintiff.

DEATH AT FAIRMead

Mrs. Irene Keeney Wright, native of Fairmead, died about four o'clock Monday afternoon following a long illness.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Wright is survived by one son, Homer Keeney Wright, of Fairmead, one sister, Mrs. J. Bond of Newport, Oregon, and two brothers, John H. Keeney of Salem, Oregon, Dr. Homer I. Keeney of San Francisco and Roy J. Keeney of Palouse, Washington. Funeral services were held in Madera at 2 o'clock Wed. afternoon. The body was then taken to the Fresno Columbarium.

Mrs. Wright was president of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid and Project leader at the Home Department of the Fairmead Farm Bureau.—Chowchilla (Cal.) News.

Mrs. Wright formerly lived in Turner where her husband was the owner of the building recently purchased by W. J. Gower. Her many friends in this community will be grieved to learn of her death. The Tribune joins with them in extending sympathy to the bereaved loved ones.

RED MEN TO HAVE SOCIAL EVENING

Santiam Tribe No. 72 Improved Order of Red Men will give a social evening to their members and families and invited guests in their wigwag (St. Paul's Parish Hall) on Chawchilla between Church and High streets, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A fine program is being prepared and supper will be served. The Improved Order of Red Men is the oldest fraternal order existing solely under the American flag. The record of this fraternity parallels that of our government and they are able to show a career prominent in the records of our country. The Improved Order of Red Men can definitely trace its history back to 1760, having its origin in those patriotic societies whose objects were resistance to British tyranny and ultimately freedom of the colonies.

FLOYD ROBERTSON VISITS IN TURNER

Floyd Robertson, formerly of Turner, who is associated with Dr. Hobson of Salem in the Mystery Spring at Sheridan was in Turner Tuesday afternoon. He stated that the development of the work is progressing rapidly. The cottage is completed and three others under construction. The bath house has been enlarged 10 by 24 feet. New heating coils have been installed and they expect to be ready to give any kind of bath by the first of the week.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Last Lord's day was a day for visitors. All the services were interesting. Mr. Jones gave a fine talk on prayer in the home, at the Sunday school hour.

The program committee have plans for Mother's Day well started. Remember mother with flowers or a letter, if far away.

All services as usual. Mr. Confer will give you good earnest preaching and the congregation an old fashioned welcome.

CLOVERDALE

Mr. Earl Neer has returned from Eastern Oregon, where he has been selling lighting systems.

Miss Emma Schifferer and J. W. Schifferer were Salem shoppers on Monday.

Ronald Townsend had the misfortune to chop his hand Sunday evening with an axe while chopping wood. Four stitches were taken in the wound by Dr. Edwards of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cook were Salem shoppers Thursday.

The game played last Sunday by the Gray Diggers with William and Hart was a very interesting one. The Gray Diggers won 6-0. The next game will be played Sunday, April 29, with the Station team at Station.

PAGEANT TO BE PRESENTED 6 ON THURSDAY EVENING

A good sized congregation greeted Miss Edna Holder at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. Miss Holder gave an interesting and forceful message describing conditions existing in India.

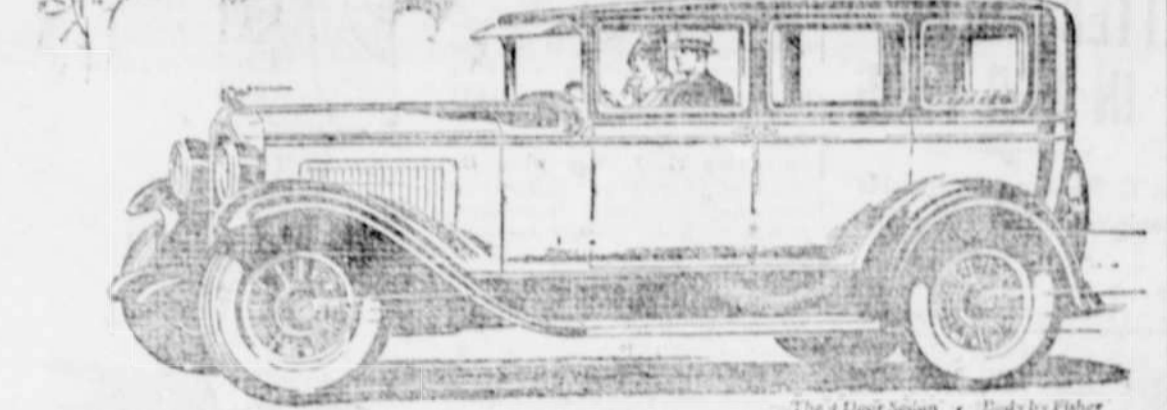

A missionary pageant entitled "The Color Line" will be presented at the Methodist Church at 8:15 p.m. Thursday by Mrs. A. A. Lee and a group of young people from the First M.E. church at Salem.

Next Sunday night a men's gospel team from the Albany Methodist will conduct the evening service. There will be special singing and good speaking.

The glee club won third place in the community club singing at the Elsinore theater, Salem, last Friday evening. Mill City won first, Stayton second.

Many attended the recital given by Mrs. Clodfelter Saturday evening. Good numbers were rendered by her pupils from Jefferson, Scio and Turner. Mrs. Clodfelter was much pleased with the large attendance. The program opened with a selection by the orchestra, and was followed by violin solos, piano solos, violin quartet and piano quartet, a cornet duet, and closed with a march played by the violin class.

The six weeks' exams were given last Thursday, this being the last six weeks' exam of the semester, the next being the final exams at the end of this semester.

Miss Lois Robertson and Miss Knobel received pearl jewel pins from the Underwood Typewriter Company last week. Miss Robertson received the award for writing 73 words per minute. The pin received by Miss Knobel was a complimentary one.

The glee club will leave early on Friday morning for Forest Grove to participate in the annual musical tournament held there. They plan to return Friday night or Saturday.

A free show sponsored by the Rod and Gun Club of Salem will be given Thursday night, showing wild game and how it may be protected.
