

THE TURNER TRIBUNE

F. J. Rowley, Editor

Issued Every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR. Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the country for which it stands. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

STATEMENT BY DR. H. W. EVANS, IMPERIAL WIZARD OF THE KU KLUX KLAN,

For days certain propaganda agencies have filled the newspapers of the United States with articles charging that the Ku Klux Klan was being financed by the Republican party to make a whispering campaign against Governor Alfred E. Smith. The fact that for years we have been maligned by such agencies caused us to ignore these statements. Now, however, since they have been advanced by Governor Smith, the responsible head of the Democratic party, we can no longer remain silent.

The Klan has never in its history received one dollar for any purpose whatsoever, that did not come from one of the following sources: (1) From its Klactoken or membership donation. (2) From Dues. (3) From Klans.

Neither the Republican party nor the Democratic party, neither any individual or corporation has ever directly or indirectly furnished a single dollar to the Klan for any purpose whatsoever. The Klan seeks no political preferment and has no political affiliations.

For years we have been fighting to preserve Americanism against subversion by un-American agencies and ideas. Our fight against Governor Smith is because he represents these agencies and believes in these ideas.

Because of these facts the Klan has for years been publicly fighting Mr. Smith by the widest possible dissemination of the truth. We have shouted, not whispered, and Governor Smith need not now be surprised that millions of the American people know that he is unfitted for the presidency.

His statement that the Ku Klux Klan is receiving money from any source outside the Klan is unqualifiedly wholly false. His attempt to raise the religious issue and to arouse hatred is clearly the desperate expedient of a man who knows he is beaten.

H. W. Evans

Reports first hand from the State of Arkansas indicate that that Hoover will carry. This state has always been considered as a Democratic state. A friend, who formerly lived in that state and hears from there regularly informed us that the old guard Democrats were breaking away from Smith on account of his attitude toward prohibition, immigration and the negro question. A man who recently returned to Salem from an extended visit in Oklahoma, said that indications were that state would go Republican and it was generally conceded there that Texas would also join the Republican camp. The prohibition, negro and immigration question seem to be the chief reasons for the switch.

It might be well, in this presidential campaign, to confide to Governor Smith that national issue are at stake. The Governor's campaign thus far, with few exceptions, has consisted almost entirely of "replies" and "denials" of matters concerning New York State.

MAJ. GEN. ALLEN LEADS VETERANS

Accepts Post at Head of ex-Soldiers' Bureau in Smith Campaign.

Major General Henry T. Allen, Commanding General of the American Army of Occupation in Germany and a popular national military figure, is directing the activities of the Veterans' Bureau of the Democratic National Committee. Major General Allen agreed to lead the bureau following a talk with Chairman John J. Raskob.

"I know the soldiers would have a very good friend in Governor Smith," said General Allen. "Moreover, I think Governor Smith appeals to them in a very striking manner by reason of his personality and record. I feel that the soldiers haven't had a very large say in the affairs of the country as compared with what they ordinarily have had after every great war, but, of course, it would be impossible to keep down all the husky men who were organized during the great war and they will be heard from during the coming years."

"The Veterans' Bureau is a division of the campaign which is of very great importance," Chairman Raskob said in announcing the appointment. "The veterans are entitled to know all about the candidate, what he stands for, and the policies of the party, and we are keenly anxious to have an opportunity of telling the veterans what we know about Governor Smith's record and character."

Major General Allen served as Commanding General of the Army of Occupation in Germany for three and one-half years. He was later advisor to the American Ambassador to Great Britain at the conference of Ambassadors in Paris during the Harding administration.

After a distinguished military career General Allen was promoted to Major General just before the United States entered the World War and organized the Ninetieth Division, which he led in the major offensives at St. Mihiel and the Argonne-Meuse. As Commander of the Army of Occupation he was a member of the Inter-Allied Rhine High Commission.

The undivided three-fifths of a fraction of lot one (1) block twenty-six (26) in the City of Salem, Marion County, Oregon, more particularly described as the north forty (40) feet of said lot.

SUIE L. SUN, Guardian.
R. H. BASSETT, Attorney for Guardian, 503 Bank of Commerce Building, Salem, Oregon.

John Hamill of Iowa.

Mr. Peek challenged Governor Hamill to call another conference of Governors of the states represented in the North Central States Agricultural Conference to sit in judgment upon his action in declaring his support of Governor Smith. The letter was in reply to one from Governor Hamill to Mr. Peek in which the Iowa Governor accused him of having gone beyond the power vested in the Committee of Twenty-two in bolting the Republican party.

Governor Hamill in his letter to Mr. Peek said farm relief legislation had been blocked by "bollix." Mr. Peek in his letter to Governor Hamill asserted the legislation was blocked by an "unsympathetic" President, with the approval of Mr. Hoover and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

"You say that the Democratic party failed to endorse the equalization fee," wrote Mr. Peek. "To be sure, it did not by name endorse the equalization fee or the McNary-Haugen bill, but it very definitely endorsed the principle of the equalization fee when it said: 'We pledge the party to an earnest endeavor to solve this problem of the distribution of the cost of dealing with crop surpluses over the marketed units of the crop whose producers are benefited by such assistance. The solution of this problem would avoid government subsidy to which the Democratic party always has been opposed and will be a prime and immediate concern of a Democratic administration.'"

"These principles have formed the basis of farm relief that twice passed Congress in legislation, that would have furnished the opportunity for the farmers to get the benefit from tariffs on crops of which we export a surplus—legislation that was passed only to meet twice with the veto of an unsympathetic President who never advanced a constructive proposal himself addressing the problem. And this in the face of the platform pledges of his party upon which he was elected to take whatever steps are necessary to bring about a balanced condition between agriculture, industry and labor."

HEADS WOMEN IN INDUSTRY

Agnes Hart Wilson of Blossburg, Pennsylvania, running for Congress in the sixteenth Pennsylvania District asserted her support of Governor Smith by saying that she believes he will aggressively enforce the Prohibition law until it is repealed or modified.

QUALITY AT LOW COST

HOOVERETTES

by ANNA STEESE RICHARDSON

MRS. HOOVER'S quick wit and tact will stand her in good stead if she succeeds Mrs. Coolidge as first lady of the land. This incident proves the point:

Well known as are the Hoovers in Palo Alto and friendly though they have always been with the faculty and students at Stanford University, when Mr. Hoover returned to his old home in July, candidate for the highest office at the command of the American people, a natural chasm seemed to open up between him and his neighbors. In spite of bands, and college songs and university yells, at sight of him there swept over the crowd a sudden realization that before them stood the man chosen by the Republican party to lead it to victory. The thought of his new responsibilities and his great opportunities gripped the welcoming crowd and it turned quiet.

In simple, direct language some one congratulated Mr. Hoover and told him how glad his old friends were to see him. With equal simplicity Mr. Hoover replied that he was glad to be back.

Then ensued silence until Mrs. Hoover stepped forward. She recalled that in their student days, just one phrase had been generally used at Stanford to express indecision as to the next move. She seized upon the old slogan:

"Well, do we ride or struggle?" Shouts of laughter greeted the familiar question. The ice was broken. The awkward moment passed. The Hoover neighbors pressed forward to offer their congratulations.
