BONES BROTHERS
TURNER, OREGON.

Maples is sure a going fool. Oregon's Flying Dutchman never flew very far at any time, seemed to have lost his wings. Oregon's line was too heavy for O. A. C. The game ended with Oregon 14 to O. A. C. 0. Let's hope O. A. C. trims them next time.

FORMER TURNER BOY MARRIED AT JENNINGS LODGE

John Irving Gale, a former Turner boy and graduate of Turner High School and Miss Lola Elizabeth Ross were married at Jennings Lodge, Wednesday, November 14. Mr. Gale was popular with the younger set of Turner and leader in the school activities. While in this vicinity he was associated with his mother and brothers Robert and Richard in the operation of the Meadow View dairy. The bride was one of the popular young people of the Jennings Lodge section and a leader in the social activities. After a wedding trip through southern Oregon and California. Mr. and Mrs. Gale will be at home after December 1 at the Tiddleywink Farm on Route 3 out of Oregon City, where Mr. Gale will be associated with his mother and brothers in the operation of this farm, the home of the famous Tiddleywink herd of purebred Jerseys. The Tribune joins with their many friends in extending hearty congratulations.

MILK TRUCK ARRIVED MONDAY

The new truck to be used by the Portland-Damascus Milk Co. to pick up milk and cream for the Turner station, arrived Monday in charge of Mr. Harold Paul, who will be the driver. George Morrell, field man is here to assist Mr. Paul in working up the route. The Damascus company is handling sweet milk as well as cream and expect to work up an extensive business.

METHODIST CHURCH

The services last Sunday were well attended with good interest throughout.

The mid-week meeting was given over to the quarterly conference and sermon by the new district superintendent, Dr. Temple, who spoke from the subject, The Essentials of a Growing Church. Dr. Temple is a forceful and interesting speaker. The new stove, which was recently purchased was initiated on that night.

A cordial invitation is extended to those who not going else where to attend our services.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Regular services will be held next Sunday as usual. Sunday School at 10 and preaching at 11 A. M. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 and evening sermon at 7:30 P. M.

The Ladies of the church will hold their annual bazaar December 6. Dinner and supper will be served. There will be candy for sale also many useful things that will make fine Christmas presents.

The Revival services will start next Sunday night. The services of one of the best evangelists in Oregon have been secured for these meetings. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to attend.

SHOTS AT RANDOM

There is no greater farm relief than lower taxes and lower freight rates than those which the farmer is staggering under.

The above paragraph which was suggested by one of our readers is one of the things that effects the producer, whether he be farmer or manufacturer. The heaviest burden of taxes seems to be on the land owned by the farmer.

The remedy for this would be an income tax with a property offset provision. Plans are already on foot in the State treasurers office to have the next session of the legislature enact such a law.

The sun is shining again this week and Sips has come out of seclusion and is again on the front page of the Salem Capital Journal. No wonder the world seems so much brighter.

S'all right Sips. We're glad to see you back again if you do pick us to peices once in a while. Go ahead. We have lots of peices left.

Any way the Gervais girls will feel better if you are on the job again

SMOKER AT MILL CITY

Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—(Special.)—The Mill City Firemen will hold their first smoker of the season Tuesday evening, November 27, and have lined up a corking good card.

For the main event, Frankie Burnell of Portland will clash with Spud Murphy of Salem for ten rounds. Both of the boys have a reputation of being "fighting fools" and will furnish a world of excitement.

The semi-final will be six rounds between Will (Red) Hayes of Stayton and Sig Bennett of Portland. Hayes is back in his old form again and expects to knock Bennett for a row of ash cans in order to redeem himself in the eyes of the sport fans of this city.

The curtain raiser will be between Jack Wilson and Pat Webster of Salem, 4 rounds. Other events will be Don Mason and Floyd Sumpter of Mill City, 4 rounds; Rex Harlan of Mill City and Byron Davis of Camp 17, 4 rounds.

The promoters have a surprise event up their sleeves which they claim will be worth the price of admission alone.

John J. Leahy of Albany will referee.

WILLIS CECIL VAN NUYS

A large gathering of sympathizing friends and relatives gathered at the First Christian church in Turner, at 1 o'clock, Monday, November 19th, to pay their last respects to the memory of Willis Cecil Van Nuys. Rev. Confer conducted the services and a quartet sang "Rock of Ages." The services at the grave were conducted by the Masonic Lodge, of Turner, of which he was a member. He was also a member of Turner Lodge Wood men of the World.

Willis was born on his father's farm near Aumsville, February 4th, 1893, and was 35 years, 9 months and 12 days old.

About two years ago he went to Southern Oregon and has spent most of this time in Medford, where he worked as a carpenter.

Besides his wife Bertha and stepson Clarence, he leaves his father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Van Nuys of Turner, members of a well known pioneer family of Marion County; two brothers Edwin M. of Portland and Loyd T., of Turner.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindly expressions of sympathy for us, in our recent sorrow and for the many lovely floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. Charis E. Van Nuys Edwin M. Van Nuys Loyd T. Van Nuys
