TURNER CHURCHES OBSERVE CHRISTMAS

The churches of Turner observed Christmas with fitting and attractive programs and services. At the Christian church last Sunday the pastor delivered his Christmas sermon and in the evening the Christmas program was given which consisted of songs and recitations. A good congregation was present and a fine Christmas spirit was manifest. Although short the program was well rendered and interesting.

The Methodist church held their program Monday evening. The program was principally given by the children, many of the smaller ones taking part. Master Lowell Hadley sang the song of welcome which was well received by the congregation. The primary class under the leadership of their teacher, Mrs. Witzel, gave a nice exercise of short recitations from each one. The choir gave two anthems as their part of the program. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. McKinney offered a duet, the male quartet was also enjoyed as well as a solo by F. C. Gunning.

At the close of the program Mrs. George, chairman of the evening announced that she had a message from Santa Claus that he was on the way to Turner to visit the boys and girls. Just then he arrived with treats of candy for every little boy and girl present.

As he left the room there were shouts from the children and he was invited to come again next year. The fine Christmas spirit between the two churches made every one feel that a real Christmas time was enjoyed in Turner.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Sunday School hour was devoted to Christmas and the lesson. The children received treats from their teachers and the Ladies Aid gave out fine bags of nuts and candy. All the officers were elected for the coming. Walter Peterson was elected Sunday School superintendent. A short but good Christmas program was given Sunday evening which was enjoyed by all.

Next Sunday is an all day service with election of officers and workers in the church.

The minister for the revival meeting is unable to resume his work in Turner at this time.

Mrs. Delzell will be hostess to a party in her home, Friday night.

METHODIST CHURCH

The Sunday morning services were interesting last Sunday. In the morning the pastor brought her Christmas message to the congregation. This was her first service following her return from Eugene. Epworth League was held at 6:30. There was no evening preaching service everone going to the Christian church to attend the Christmas program.

Subject for the morning service next Sunday is "Over a new road". Text is Joshua 3:4. Subject for the evening message, "Your great hour and not prepared for it". Text Matthew 26:40. Good music and a cordial welcome for all.

LOGES INSTALL OFFICERS

The Masonic and Eastern Star lodges were hosts to their members and friends at a banquet at the Masonic hall last Saturday night, the occasion being the joint installation of officers for both lodges. A large number of members and friends filled the dining room and partook of the fine things to eat that graced the two long tables. Some time was spent in visiting around before the installation ceremony took place in the lodge hall, upstairs. H. S. Bond, as installation officer, conducted a beautiful ceremony of installation that was impressive and instructive, for the Masonic fraternity. Miss Alice Peterson acted as installing officer for the Eastern Star and carried the work out in a very capable manner.

REBECKAHS ENTERTAIN STATE PRESIDENT

Last Wednesday night Ideal Rebeckah lodge entertained Mrs. Perozzi, state president of the Rebeckah assembly. Visitors from several outside lodges were present to enjoy the meeting. This was the annual visit of the state president and a goodly number were present. Mrs. Perozzi left on the late train for Eugene to visit the lodges in that vicinity. Following the lodge session a banquet was served to the members and families in the lodge dining room.

A tablespoon of vinegar added to the water in which a tough cut of meat is to be cooked will help make the meat tender by breaking down the connective tissue. A tough steak is helped if soaked in vinegar over night.

The muscles least used by animal are the most tender cause they have the least connective tissue. The choicest is the loin from which the steaks and chops are tained
