Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones enjoyed a nice visit from Hazel Maxine Bones, of Eugene.

MRS. H. S. BOND RECEIVES FINE PRESENT

Mrs. H. S. Bond received a beautiful clock as a present from relatives in Connecticut, of which she is very proud. The material in the case resembles the coveted mineral deposit, Jade which is so much admired for jewelry and ornaments. Timepieces are very indispensable and useful gifts. Time goes fast or slow, with us, just as we regard it. It matters not to the impenetrable, stolid face of the clock; its pendulum swings back and forth, regardless of the wishes of poor humanity.

METHODIST CHURCH

There was good attendance and interest at both morning and evening services. The pastor brought an interesting New Years message in the morning from the subject "Over a New Road," which was well received.

There was an interesting Epworth League and preaching service in the evening. There was a watch service held New Years eve. The first session was at the H. S. Bond home from 8 to 10, listening to radio programs. From 10 to 11 a social time was spent at the parsonage and from 11 to 12 a religious service was held at the church with the New Year welcomed by the ringing of the church bell.

Prayermeeting this week is at the home of F. C. Gunning. Following the prayermeeting there will be a meeting of the trustees to arrange for the renewal of the church insurance.

MRS. MARY KELLY DIES AT INDEPENDENCE

Mrs. Mary Kelly, wife of Joseph, died of pneumonia at her home at Independence, Tuesday afternoon at the age of 80 years. She was the mother of Mrs. E. E. Roberts, formerly of Turner, but now of Salem. She is also survived by one son, Frank Kelly and two daughters Mrs. Mary Smiley and Mrs. Carrie Smiley, of Independence. She leaves a host of grand-children among whom is L. W. Roberts, of Turner. Funeral services were held at Independence, Thursday afternoon.

SHOTS AT RANDOM

It is raining and every one is Happy. Every one will feel better. At least that is what the old timers say and we are nearly one ourselves.

Yes. We had this set up last week but before we went to press the ground was covered with snow.

Old man winter is no respecter of persons.

The pumpkins in the streets of Salem have given away to the water, in Salem.

It gives the Salem City council and the chamber of commerce something to talk about anyway.

The algae or what ever the names of these animals are, did a good job of flavoring the water.

If ribbed top hose are stretched and then stitched on the machine where the ribbed part is joined to the silk, runners caused by the fastening of garters will be stopped before leaving the top.
