

Supplement To The Turner Tribune

Turner, Oregon, June 20, 1929.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Bible study hour was well attended and the contest ended with much interest. The Blues lost and will have to spread the feast to the winners.

Many of the members of the Sunday School will go to the Pioneer Memorial Sunday School convention at Pleasant Grove church next Sunday.

* There will be pleasure and profit in attending the Bible study hour and the fine sermon Earl Confer will preach. All are welcome and invited who have no church home.

CRAWFORD

Mrs. J. E. Lindley and daughter Esther, of Summit, visited with her son Walter Ruddle last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus returned Sunday evening from Myrtle Point, where they have been attending the annual session of the State Grange. The trip was a very enjoyable one and the hospitality of the Coos county people was very generous.

Justice Wilson of La Grande visited his brother Harvey Wilson this last week.

Glenn and Alice Titus spent the past week visiting relatives in Salem.

The Powell family, of which Mrs. Mayro McKinney is a member, will hold a reunion on the tabernacle grounds in Turner next Sunday.

Mrs. Barber has had her father Mr. Jolly as her house guest for some time. Mr. Jolly will return to Salem and will later visit the Oregon beaches.

Miss Erma Barber has returned home after visiting two weeks at Longview, Washington.

Grange Club At M. E. Townsend's

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Townsend, of Shedd, Oregon, were hosts to the Grange Club, of Turner, and their families. Chicken pie and the usual trimmings was on the bill of fare for the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend and son Ronald were residents of this section for several years and were tireless workers for the advancement of Surprise Grange. They recently traded their farm, near Turner for a place near Snedd.

Those present were Mrs. E. McKay, Mrs. Bacon, L. E. Hilleary, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Funston, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McKay and daughter Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gulvan and family, of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lambert, of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peacock, of Lebanon and hosts Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Townsend and son Ronald and Mrs. Townsend's mother, Mrs. Emma Warren.

Fishermen Return

E. T. Pierce, Merle Pearson,

Emir Ball, of Turner, Batty Cooper and son, of Salem, returned from a fishing trip, Monday night. They drove as far as Detroit and packed 18 miles to a point four miles from the base of Mt. Jefferson. Mr. Pierce stated that they tramped over snow drifts three feet deep, sometimes breaking through. One thing particularly noticed was the absence of animal life. He said they walked several miles without hearing a bird sing. No squirrels were seen except one pine squirrel at the cabin. In all it was thoroughly enjoyable trip. They had exceptional luck, practically all of them bringing home the limit.
