

THE TURNER TRIBUNE

Turner, Oregon, Thursday July 18, 1929
F. J. Hamley, Editor

Issued Every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR. Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the country for which it stands. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Does This Build Law Respect?

While President Hoover's 11 lawyers are trying earnestly to discover why there is so little respect for law, you may be interested in watching the merry antics of three or four western lawyers, engaged in trying a case.

Perhaps you will see the reason why law isn't respected. During the trial of a criminal case in Seattle here's what went on: A defense attorney shouted that he'd seen liquor drunk in the county prosecutor's office.

The county prosecutor cried out that he'd resign if that were so. The judge asked the defense attorney to name names and the defense attorney, refused point blank.

The same attorney asserted vehemently that he was a gentleman but as he wasn't under oath; maybe it shouldn't be held against him. A county prosecutor called the defense attorney a coward.

He was told in reply that he was a liar.

This was countered, from the defense, with an accusation that the prosecutor was a wife-deserter.

The fire department was accused by the defense of being crooked.

The department retorted with the statement that the defense counsel was a liar.

Oh, sure there was a regular trial going on somebody was being tried for arson, a fairly serious offense and one that the average citizen would imagine might have been approached in an orderly way.

This newspaper believes that such sad exhibitions in courtrooms do more to dishonor the courts than anything else.

As long as courts are conducted as vaudeville shows they will be regarded as such by the rest of us. No citizen can nor should be expected to respect something that moves him to sardonic laughter.

As its first move we suggest that Mr. Hoover's 11 lawyer crime commission start housecleaning in the legal profession, including, perhaps, a hint that instead of bawling about being "gentlemen," some lawyers learn manners. —Portland Daily News.

A Few Definitions Of Democracy

"Democracy—A form of government in which the people, either directly or through their representatives, are supreme."—Encyclopedia Americana.

"... a government of the people, for the people and by the people Abraham Lincoln.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights... that to secure these rights governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed..."—Thomas Jefferson's definition of democracy.

"Democracy—government by the people or by representatives chosen by the people."—Webster's Dictionary.

"To—with an absolute democracy! Let any man who would make us one go to his grave and be branded: 'No resurrection.'"—The Rev. Mark A. Mathews of Seattle. —Portland Daily News.

Fire Damage Decreases

The damage to the timber from forest fires has been on the decrease the last few years, although the loss has been heavy. There is still room for improvement. Extra care should be used in extinguishing camp fires. The U. S. Forest Service extends camping privileges in the forest reserves and tourists should show their appreciation for these privileges by using care in building and extinguishing camp fires and with cigars cigarettes or pipe. Forest fires on the national forests of Washington and Oregon have burned over the an average of 70,000 acres per year during the past five years.

A growing spirit of cooperation on the part of the public, better organization, and quicker action are responsible for this excellent showing, local forest officers state. At the same time they point out that even 70,000 burned over acres per year is too high. From 80% to 70% of forest fires are man-caused, and campers and hikers head the list of man-causes. If these man-caused fires could be entirely eliminated the total burned would be even smaller, it is said. —Western Out-Of-Doors.

Even though this reduction of fire loss in our forests has been brought about, we should not cease to educate the camper and tourist as to care of fires, cigarette, and cigar stubs and pipe ashes. A few important rules are published in the current issue of the Western Out-Of-Doors under the heading, Six Rules For Fire Prevention. They are as follows: 1. Matches. Be sure your match is out. Break it into before you throw it away. 2. Tobacco. Be sure that pipe ashes and cigarette and cigar stubs are dead before you throw them away. Never throw them into brush, leaves or needles. 3. Making Camp. Before building a fire, scrape away all flammable material from a spot 6 feet in diameter. Dig a hole in the center and in it build your fire. Keep your fire small. Never build it against trees or logs, or near brush. 4. Smoking Camp. Never leave until your fire is out—dead out. 5. Brush Burning. Never burn brush or brush in windy weather, or while there is slightest danger that the fire will get away. 6. How to Put Out a Camp Fire. Stir the coals while soaking them with water. Turn the stick and logs and drench both sides. Wet ground around fire. Look and feel with the fingers for live embers around the edges. The only way to put out a camp fire is to drown it until there is not one solitary live spark left. Be sure the last spark is out. —Joe D. Guthrie.

Marion County Claims Air Ace

The country at large has passed through several spells of elating over great achievements in the air, Trans-Atlantic flights including Col. Lindbergh, flights to Hawaii, in buzze records and fueling records, all in the space of a year. At 2:13 P. M. July 12 the world was introduced to another act of the air when Edward B. Reichert, of Salem and his companion flyer, Loren W. Mendell, of Los Angeles completed their astounding and endurance flight, smashing all previous records. They were in the air 216 hours, 43 minutes and 33 seconds, exceeding the previous record by 72 hours, 42 minutes and 33 seconds. This brings Salem and Marion county, and Los Angeles county to the front in air records, for in our relation of our local flyer's record we must not forget that his companion is entitled to equal honors in this record-breaking achievement.
