McKay, Hester Crume, Pearl Witzel, Mrs. Ben Robertson and niece, of Salem, Mrs. Gulvin, of Washington, and the hostess Mrs. Butzke.

Linnie C. Hewitt Taken Mon. July 22

Oregon Pioneer Passenger on First Train Across Continent

A notable career was brought to a close at 1:30 a. m. July 22nd by the passing of Linnie Idella Hewitt.

She was born in Ottumwa Iowa, December 27, 1862. She, with her parents, as a child of seven moved to Oregon and was privileged to travel on the first trans-continental train into San Francisco. From there she took passage on a sailing vessel to Portland, Oregon, and thence to Butteville in the same year, by steamer, where she resided for a time. Later the family moved to the Chehalem mountains of Yamhill county where on August 17, 1879 she married Isaiah C. Hewitt, they then making their home on a subdivision of the Henry and Elizabeth donation land claim taken up in 1843. In May, 1902, they moved to Salem where they have since continuously resided. Had Mrs. Hewitt lived to August 17 of this year they would have celebrated an already planned golden wedding.

To this union were born C. W. Hewitt of Turner, Ivan Lorin Hewitt (deceased) Alta L. Branson of Gervais, Alma V. New, Leonard H. and Elton D. Hewitt of Salem, and Anneliza Carver of Astoria. She is survived by her husband, I. C. Hewitt of Salem, her said children, together with three sisters, Mrs. Bessie Hayner and Mrs. Harry G. D. Dimick of Seaside Oregon, six grandchildren, two great grandchildren and a host of other friends and relatives.

Funeral services were held at Rigdon's parlors, Salem, at 11 a. m., Wednesday, July 24, and at Hopewell, Oregon, at 2 p. m., with the Reverend Messrs. A. P. Layton and C. C. Poling officiating.
