AUCTION SALE

season will start in about two weeks and the outlook for sales this fall are the best since 1920. A lot of newcomers are going to stock farms this fall and with good prices for all kinds of livestock, the sales this fall should be above the average.

If you want to buy stock, farm machinery, etc., send in your address to Ben T. Sudtall at Albany, Ore., and a sale bill of every sale listed will be sent to you. Last year buyers who availed themselves of this service bought over $50,000 worth of stock, etc., at sales conducted by Ben T. Sudtall, which was of material benefit to the seller as well as to the buyer.

Quite a number of sales have been listed for September and October, and if you are looking for complete auction service there is no one better able to cry your sale than Ben T. Sudtall, livestock auctioneer of Albany, who for 20 years has been crying the best sales in the state.

No sale too big, too small or too far away to merit his best efforts.

Write, wire, phone or call on Ben T. Sudtall of Albany, Ore., for auction information.
