HOW TO LIVE LONGER

By JOHN CLARENCE FUNK. CHOOSE WELL.

NORTH AMERICA is a "going concern" just now. Millions of automobiles containing millions of joy-seekers are on the road...

Many will find themselves in attractive pine wooded automobile camps. But even in the more elaborate ones, patrons should satisfy themselves as to the purity of the water supplies...

In this becoming exclusive rhapsies certain personal obligations arise, the fulfillment of which is self-protection and protection for others. Here they are: 1. See that your camp site is well drained...

2. You will doubtless choose a spot that attracts because it is clean. Keep it that way. Perhaps you will want to come back to it. Then, there is the other fellow to consider...

3. Put out your fires. Burned forests are neither good to look at or pleasant to camp in. Be particularly careful about discarding lighted cigars and cigarettes...

4. Keep your sewage out of the streams. Remember that many foolish folks are likely to drink this water. Dig a shallow pit, cover the wastes with earth...

5. See where the water comes from before, not after, you drink it. In any event, don't drink from a stream. Many thoughtless people have likely polluted it...

Nothing unreasonable about these ideas, is there? Yet, thousands will deliberately violate every one of them every day throughout the season...

Live to enjoy your automobile excursion next year, too. Follow the rules!

The overdressed child on a tropically hot day is weakened and depressed by heat. Moreover, disease especially summer diarrhea, is more likely to make him its victim...

Outdoor sleeping is advisable, if safe, unless the house is cooler, which is frequently the case on still superheated nights. Again, if the house is cooler than outside in the daytime, keep him indoors...

After all, a baby is a pretty sensible creature. He doesn't ask for luxury, money, for fine clothes, for exotic foods...

The next time baby sets up a howl, get behind the noise and locate its cause. And remember in torrid weather one of the most common causes for his vocal exuberance is a superfluity of clothes. Have a heart!

Wit and Humor

RELATIVITY

Professor Einstein's secretary was so burdened with inquiries as to the meaning of "relativity" that the professor decided to help her out. He told her to answer these inquiries as follows: "When you sit with a nice girl for two hours, you think it's only a minute, but when you sit on a hot stove for a minute, you think it's two hours. That's relativity."

LIVING TENTATIVELY

"What did Jack mean when he told you he and I were engaged tentatively?" "Well—he said, if he married you on his salary you'd have to live to a tent."

Human Nature. For nuts who slap me on the back, I must admit I do not care. But I've great admiration for the kind of folks who pat me there.

Can Bale Water, Too. Salt—Did you ever see a bundle of vapor? Lubber—Bundle of vapor? No! How could you bundle vapor? Tar—By machinery.

What Did He Mean? "I long for the kind of a man who would love and protect me always," she murmured, "one who would understand, a man who would kneel in the dust to kiss the hem of my skirt, her voice trailed dreamily."

Playing Safe. "You have made your remarks very long!" "That's where I play safe," answered Senator Sorghum. "They go unchallenged because no one who appreciates the value of time will undertake to understand them for purposes of contradiction."

WEIGH HIS WORDS. Jimson—"You should never be with out a small pair of scales when you talk." Stimson—"What do you mean?" Jimson—"You need to weigh your words."

Nights Filled With Music. I strive to be a radio fan. My admiration deepens as I realize that I can survive the loss of sleep.

Badges of Courage. Wife—"If I were you I wouldn't boast of my courage by continually showing off with that medal of valor on your chest!" Hubby—"Then perhaps I had better remove my wedding ring also!"

Dangerous. We are told of the good mother who was disturbed over her son who had been in Italy studying for three years. "I am so afraid he'll get so Italianized he won't come home."

That Spoils Him. Mother—"Daughter, dear, I'm afraid that young man is a bad egg." Daughter—"He's all that and even worse."

Hard to Figure. Clerk—"I'm taking a correspondence course to get more money." Boss—"That's terrible. I'm taking one to reduce expenses."

Enforcing the Rules. Mr. Hedlites—"Hey! Lay off! Quit it!" The Business Agent—"You ain't allowed to clean them big specs your self. Gotta put a union window wash er on the job."

An Inspiration. From—"My wife made me a success. Bone—I'm glad to hear you say that. From—"Yes, she has always wanted so many things that I had to hustle."

TOOK ADVICE OF HER MOTHER Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wetmore, Colo.—"When I was married 14 years ago I was in bad health for a couple of years and when I tried to do anything I would get tired and worn-out. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound off and on all these years and have recommended it to hundreds of women. I have given birth to six children and have taken the Vegetable Compound as a tonic before child birth. It has done me worlds of good.
