Locals

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Ransom motored to Jefferson Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

A. L. Bones was busy at the fair last week. He was in charge of the Belcrest Memorial Park booth in the exposition building.

Have too many tools so will sell blower, anvil, vise, hammer, tongs, pinchers, garden tools, pick, mattock, bars, etc.—H. P. Jensen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith spent a couple of days at the fair last week.

Lee Barber operated a refreshment stand at the fair last week Wednesday the store was closed and Mrs. Barber and the children attended the fair.

H. P. Jensen is getting his hardware stock in shape and now has his blacksmith shop in operation at the new location.

Mearl Enslay, of the Enslay Transfer, is hauling prunes from Carleton to Dallas.

H. P. Jensen has moved to his new location across the street from the old shop. The shop is located near the Methodist church at the rear of the store building. He is able to take your work again. He has a nice line of hardware which he will be glad to show you and tell you all about. Come in and look it over. Mr. Jensen says "If I do not have what you want get it for you on short notice."

Albert Given is working in a prune dryer at Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bear went to Portland Thursday. Mr. Bear was a delegate to the laymen's session of the Methodist Oregon conference.

Miss Laura Cammack returned to her home in Rosedale after teaching the intermediate room two weeks in the absence of the regular teacher, Mrs. Crystal Edwards who has been detained at home on account of illness.

WE HAVE CONNECTIONS with the Hansen-Bennett magazine agency, one of the largest in the country, which enables us to give you the best prices and service for your magazine needs. See F. P. Rowley at the Tribune Office.

Mrs. F. C. Gunning had the misfortune to sprain her ankle which was injured in a fall in July.

Hollis Bones, who is a groom with Bridgeford Brothers who showed horses at the Oregon state fair, visited at the home of his parents one evening last week. They will have a two weeks lay-over in Salem when they will go on to Seattle for the show there.

D. B. Parkes drove the school bus to the fair grounds Saturday morning, taking about a dozen of the intermediate school children who were scheduled to take part in a health demonstration as a special feature at the fair. Mrs. Clara Parkes, teacher, accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Tunnell and family, of near Weiser, Idaho, spent the past week with Mrs. Tunnell's mother Mrs. R. J. Watson. They attended the state fair while here.

A number of dairymen have their silos filled and others are preparing to do so.

Signs of light frost were seen Friday morning.

H. W. Smith, of Turner, has the record of attending every state fair held in Oregon but one. He missed the first one which was held in Oregon City.

Mrs. Jennie Burnett and daughter Mary, of Portland and Mrs. Pitney and daughter Madeline, of Minneapolis, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Talbott and S. H. Baker. Mrs. Burnett is a cousin of Mrs. Talbott.

Uncle George Burnett, of Salem, spent Sunday at the S. H. Baker home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, of Tacoma, visited one day last week with his cousin U. S. Talbott and wife and attended the fair.

S. H. Baker spent a couple of days in Corvallis superintending some changes in the flour mill there.

Gloves, Purse, Hand Bags Suit Cases and many other articles made of leather suitable for gifts for all occasions. Tell us your HARNESS needs. F. E. Shafer, 170 S. Commercial St. Salem, Oregon.

Fred R. Smith, step-father of F. C. Gunning met with a near serious accident while coming from Willamina, where he had been visiting to attend the fair. While approaching the crossing at Derry station the car ahead stopped and the car in which he was riding ran into it. Mr. Smith was badly scratched and bruised but not otherwise seriously injured.

G. W. Hunsaker and his daughter from California made a visit to the old home place in the Pleasant view district recently.

Miss Thelma Delzell returns next Sunday to California. She goes to Portland and then to San Francisco by boat. She is teaching in a private home.

Mrs. Vester Bones called on Mrs. Delzell this week.

Thelma Delzell and Alvin Schirman were in Dallas this week. Mr. Schirman was one of a quartette who sang there.

The birth of a baby girl is reported from the John Schirman home.

Ray Harris and small daughter of Portland visited Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris.

George Morell, field man for the Portland-Damascus Milk Co. accompanied by the machinist who installed the machinery in the local plant returned to Turner Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Matthews and daughters Irene and Nina, of Tygh Valley, Oregon and Mrs. Richard Carlson, of Salem, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Riches Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Carlson and Mrs. Matthews are sisters of Mrs. Riches.

Mrs. Artita Steele left Tuesday for McMinnville to spend the remainder of the week visiting relatives.

Another nuptial Knot that was tied in this community was that of Alfred S. Drager and Betty Beatrice Davenport. Both young people are residents of the Cloverdale community.

Local Breeders Win Prizes

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis were among the lucky exhibitors at the state fair. They showed some young registered Jerseys that were in the prize winning class. They also won second on a tom turkey. Other entries from this locality were Stanley Riches, of Turner and Ovid Pickard, of Marion who exhibited some fine stock which was also in the prize-winning class.

The Tidoladywink herd of prize winning Jerseys owned by Mrs. Florence E. Gale Neal and sons of Oregon City, formerly of the Meadowview farm, of Turner, headed by the grand champion bull. This herd is always a prize winner and has several ribbons to their credit this year. The owners are planning to take a representative selection of this herd to Salt Lake City at the Utah fair.

Some of the local breeders are figuring on showing at the Pacific International this year. Turner and this section of Marion County have long been known as the home of prize winning Jersey and a showing at the Portland show would speak well for this section.

Nellie Gilbert Brinkman

Nellie M. Gilbert was born at Kankakee, Illinois, May 5, 1861. December 12, 1883 she was married to John C. Brinkman at Larned, Kansas. They came to Oregon from Newton, Kansas and have made their home in Aumsville since 1911.

Mrs. Brinkman suffered an attack of flu about a year ago and had been under the doctor's care since that time and was thought to be improving in health. She left for North Bend on the 21 of July to visit her daughter Mrs. Ruth Ryan and family. The change seemed to help her for a time but about the first of September she became seriously ill and was brought to her home here on September 17 where she died September 21.

Besides her husband, John C. Brinkman, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Hazel Morris of Turner and Mrs. Ruth Ryan, of North Bend; one son Phil Brinkman of Portland and eight grandchildren. Two children died in infancy.

The many beautiful floral offerings were mute testimonials of the high esteem in which she was held, among them being floral pieces from The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers No. 157, The Ladies Society of B. of L. F. and E. Portland; C. O. Chapter O. E. S., North Bend.

Rev. Earl Cockrin preached the funeral services which were held from the Rigdon Montuary, Tuesday morning at 10:30. Interment was made in Twin Oak cemetery at Turner. Aumsville Star.

Delzells Entertains Visitors Sunday

Clare Richardson, Miss Grace Hann and Gordon Hann, of Dayton, were visitors at the Delzell home over the week end. Sunday afternoon all were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hadley. The Hadley farm is the old home of the Hann family. Mr. Richardson works in the Alaska cannery part of the year and at Grand Island, near Dayton the rest of the year.

Woodsaws Busy

The hum of the woodsaw is in the air throughout the land. Vester Bones cut 10 cord of wood for "Dad" Delzell last Tuesday. Spud digging comes next and then the harvest will be over. In most lines it has been a good year for the busy farmer.
