

THE TURNER TRIBUNE

Turner, Oregon, Thursday OCT. 31, 1929

F. J. Kinsley, Editor

Issued Every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR. Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the country for which it stands. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Disregarding Traffic Signals

Traffic signs are being disregarded every day. These signs are placed for the safety of the travelling public and if they were obeyed as they should be there would be fewer accidents and travel on highways would be safer and more enjoyable.

Why they cannot realize that these signs are so placed and traffic laws passed for their own safety as well as others. You can read every day where someone has been arrested for failing to stop at through streets in our neighboring city of Salem.

In our own city some time ago the curb was painted yellow for a distance each side from the Harrison corner as a warning for motorists to park far enough back to interfere with the turn. Yet every day cars will park in this space when there is usually plenty of room to park in other places that are just as handy.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(BY JOURNALISM CLASSES) A mingled chorus of lament and surprise arose on the atmosphere of the Turner High school Campus, Monday, October 28, when Professor Marion Cox handed out the report cards for the first six weeks which has so rapidly sped away.

Last Friday afternoon the football squad moved to Gervais where they were taken into camp by the Gervais eleven to the tune of 29 to 0. It was a bitter pill to swallow but the boys were back Monday afternoon practicing hard for the Stayton tussle which will be played November the 8th at Stayton. The squad as well as the Student Body would like to see a large number of Turnersites as possible there. Be sure to see the big game of the season on Armistice Day, Nov. 11, when Turner tackles the warriors of Colch Empey at Aumsville. According to the dope bucket there is no great difference in the two teams, but dope is often wrong.

Last Friday evening the Freshman class held their first social function of the year in the shape of an informal party held at the home of Rev. Gilstrap. Party games were played and a very enjoyable time was reported by those present, who were Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, Mrs. Peary high school teachers, Josephine Gilstrap, Leone Cook, Zona Higby and Edith Kurns, all members of the class. Friends present were Seymour Stewart, Kenneth Fowler and Willard Bear. Refreshments consisted of buns and weiners.

The Turner grade school gave a program Friday morning, October 25, in honor of Francis E. Willard. The program lasted about thirty-five minutes and was enjoyed by all present.

The high school examinations for the six weeks were held Thursday, October 24th. There will be typing contest held in the Commercial department Wednesday.

The Commercial teachers from the different schools in the county formed an organization at the Institute held previously, which was for the purpose of having contests to compare the speed rates of all the schools in the county.

Mr. Myron Hewitt and Miss Mildred Shifferer were visitors at the school during the last week.

The Algebra class of Mrs. Peary's held a lunch together at the gym, at noon October 25th. The class is divided into divisions and the divisions which had the highest grades for the previous six weeks were honored by the side having the lowest average of grades. They served sandwiches, juice and pickles. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of Salem are the music teachers this year. They give lessons every Thursday. Mrs. Peary purchased a porch box recently filled with beautiful flowers of different kinds, which was placed in the front of her room. This makes the room very attractive.

ANNUAL BOYS' HOME DAY THURSDAY, OCT. 31

The last Thursday of October, each year is known as Turner Boys' Home Day. Those wishing to help this splendid work and encourage these fine boys will leave their gifts with Mrs. Jesse at the home on that date.
