lem, Oregon.

Howard Baker received an injury to his elbow while working in the ditch for the Portland Gas Company. He hit his elbow on the sharp edge of the concrete pavement which punctured the joint enough to release some of the joint water.

Chas Little was in Salem on business Friday afternoon.

Murray Willis, who is employed on the Western Union line, crew made a short visit at home Sunday.

A. E. Bradley is working a full crew at the flax plant. This is proving one of Turner's going industries.

ables us to give you the best prices and service for your magazine needs. See F. P. Rowley at the Tribune Office.

Mr. Bennett, who recently traded farms with Mr. Farnam of Marion, moved some of his goods to his new home Saturday.
Mr. Farnam will be located in Turner soon.

Mrs. George Naderman and family, of Salem, attended the Silver Tea at the home of Mrs. L.
M. Small, last Thursday.

The weekly volleyball games at the gymnasium are proving very popular. There was a good attendance last Monday night. Remember this is not for any one church but is a community affair.

The Riches Confectionery have the honor of displaying the first electric sign in Turner. This very attractive sign was installed by the Western Dairy Products Company who handle Sunfreeze icecream.

burned hand last week. While cutting wood for Elliot Ball he mashed a thumb done up with a bandage soaked in turpentine.
While attempting to light his pipe the bandage caught fire and before it could be extinguished the thumb and part of the hand was quite badly burned.

J. M. Bones hauled rock last week to build a rockery on the lawn at The Bonlea Farm. Next Summer when this is filled with flowers it will add to the attractiveness of the lawn.

The Oregon Historical Society has selected "The Admission of Oregon to Statehood" as the subject for the 1930 C. C. Beekman History Prizes and Medals. Prizes will be awarded for the best four original essays on the above named subject written and submitted by girls and boys over fifteen years of age and under eighteen years of age, attending any public or private school in the state of Oregon. Four prizes will be given, sixty, fifty, forty and thirty dollars.

F. C. Delzell now has three Gray horses having purchased a gray team at Saturday's sale.
They are Betty, Billie and Biddy.
This permits old John, who has done faithful work for so many years to retire.

At the Grange Harvest Home program and fair, special prizes will be offered for the best display of canned fruit and vegetables and also for the best needle work. There will be competent judges to make the awards. This will be held in the afternoon (and will be open to the public.

Mrs. Eleanor Titus, of Crawford, was in Turner Wednesday making final arrangements for the Grange fair.

The school census just completed shows a list of 28 more names of children eligible to draw school money than one year ago.
