

Girl at the Top in Health Test

Millions of boys and girls all over the world, thousands of them right here in the West are being restored to health and strength by the purely vegetable tonic and laxative known as California Fig Syrup and endorsed by physicians for over 50 years.

Children need no urging to take it. They love its rich, fruity flavor. Nothing can compete with it as a gentle, but certain laxative, and it goes further than this. It gives tone and strength to the stomach and bowels so these organs continue to act normally, of their own accord. It stimulates the appetite, helps digestion.

A Kansas mother, Mrs. Dana Allgire, 610 Monroe St., Topeka, says: "Bonnie B. is absolutely the picture of health, now, with her ruddy cheeks, bright eyes and plump but graceful little body and she stands at the top in every health test."

Much of the credit for her perfect condition is due to California Fig Syrup. We have used it since babyhood to keep her bowels active during colds or any children's ailments and she has always had an easy time with them. She always responds to its gentle urging and is quickly back to normal.

Ask your druggist for California Fig Syrup and look for the word "California" on the carton so you'll always get the genuine.

Curious Old Beliefs

In Sweden a book is placed beneath the head of a newly born child so that he may be quick at reading. They say, too, that so long as a child is unchristened, the fire must never be extinguished lest evil spirits come, and no one must pass between the fire and the child whilst it is being fed by the mother.

Just the Man

"Need any more talent for your motion picture dramas?" "We might use you. Had any experience at acting without audiences?" "Acting without audiences is what brought me here."—Stray Stories.

Hopeless

"They're so old-fashioned," said one of the neighbor women the other day, "that actually, my dear, they frequently stay at home on Sundays."—Fort Wayne News-Sentinel.

A Few Little Smiles

SOME KANSAS WIND
A tourist traveling through western Kansas, saw a man sitting by the ruins of a house that had been blown away and stopped to ask: "Was this your house my friend?" "Yep." "Any of your family blown away with the house?" "Yep, wife and four kids." "Great Scott, man, why aren't you hunting for them?" "Been in this country quite a spell, stranger. Wind's due to change this afternoon. Figure I might as well wait here till it brings 'em back."

He Wanted to Help
A young farmer wanted to sell his farm and was showing it to a prospective buyer. As they went over the house the farmer's little son trailed along at their heels from room to room. He, too, wanted to show the place off to the prospect and in the bathroom he interrupted his father's eulogy on the plumbing to pipe: "Look, mister! See them nice big holes? That's rats."

MADE BUT ONE KNOT

He—That sailor sweetheart of yours is a slow one—he hasn't any speed at all. She—Well, if he makes only one knot it will satisfy me.

Bring Back
Last night as I lay on my pillow, Last night as I lay on my bed, I put my feet out of the window, And now all my neighbors are dead!

At the Market
"Some nice spinach, mum?" "No, what I want is Consolidated Rat-Trap."

For Proof's Sake
He—Darling, don't tell anybody we are engaged just yet. She—Only Lily. She always said I should never find a fool to marry me.

OF COURSE

The Headboard—Did you ever see a mattress jump? The Footboard—No, but I've seen a bed spring!

Oratorical Shout
His voice increases to a roar Our senses to impress; While he is talking more and more, His reasoning grows less.

The Complete Library
Blinks—He has a great collection of rare old books. Jinks—And his son a great collection of raw, new ones.

Conspiracy
"Excuse me, Mrs. Smith," said the cashier, "but this check of your husband's appears to have been altered, and a zero added after the five."

Belligerent
"The teddy came to the door with a broom." "What did she mean by that, heh?" asked the other street peddler. "Sales resistance, I s'pose."

An Extra
The Assistant—Doctor, I believe we sewed up a pair of forceps inside of Mr. Longuffer. The Surgeon—Yes; I've been looking for them. Charge them up on his bill. He can't afford to pay for another operation.

Within the Law
Owner—Hey, there, don't you see the sign? It says: "No fishing on this ground." Fisherman—Sure, I see it. I ain't fishing on the ground.

Quick Results
Editor—Do you find that advertising brings quick results? Advertiser—I should say it does! The other day we advertised for a night watchman and that night the safe was robbed.

Too Bad
James—So you were in the army. Ikey? Ikey (proudly)—Yes, I was in the army. James—Did you get a commission? Ikey—No, only vices.

Harnessing the Father of Waters

Major John C. Gotwals, under whose supervision the stabilization of the Mississippi from the mouth of the Missouri to Cairo, Ill., was made possible, will continue the enormous task by further harnessing of the river down to New Orleans. The project, which up to the present has necessitated the expenditure of $10,000,000 by the United States, will continue by converting a winding river into a controllable channel. The photograph shows Major Gotwals at his desk at the custom house in St. Louis.

Needless Suffering

The next time a headache makes you stay at home— Or some other ache or pain prevents your keeping an engagement— Remember Bayer Aspirin! For there is scarcely any pain it cannot relieve, and relieve promptly.

These tablets give real relief, or millions would not continue to take them. They are quite harmless, or the medical profession would not constantly prescribe them.

Don't be a martyr to unnecessary pain. To colds that might so easily be checked; to neuritis, neuralgia; to those pains peculiar to women; or any suffering for which Bayer Aspirin is such an effective antidote.

Realized Eve Was Not "Dressed for Company" Arthur Train, president of the Authors' League, was talking about a banned book. "I guess it ought to have been banned," he said. "All the same the men who go in for this banning business don't strike me as moralists. They strike me as pruders." "They remind me of Stiggins, the head of an anti-vice society." "I had a curious dream last night," Stiggins said at breakfast in the boarding house. "The boarders looked at him with interrogative smiles. "Yes," he went on, "I dreamed that I was in the Garden of Eden." "Oh, how cute!" said an old-maid school teacher. "And was Eve like all the pictures of her?" "I—er—stammered Stiggins, very red and wriggly—I—of course—I didn't look."—Detroit Free Press.

Work of Patient Artist

In a shop at Nantucket, says the Boston Globe, some New Bedford (Mass.) girls noticed what looked like a cherry stone set on a base like that of a collar button. They inquired what it was and were told it was a spoon holder, and when they looked incredulously, the proprietor of the shop removed the cherry stone from its base and shook out of it two dozen silver spoons. Each spoon had an unmistakable bowl, yet one which would hold no more than a microscopic drop of tea. The novelty was the work of a Nantucketer whose keenness of vision and skill in handicraft excited admiration and wonder.

For Best Results in Home Dyeing

You can always give richer, deeper, more brilliant colors to faded or out-of-style dresses, hose, coats, draperies, etc., with Diamond Dyes. And the colors stay in through wear and washing! Here's the reason. Diamond Dyes contain the highest quality aniline money can buy. And it's the anilines that count! They are the very life of dyes. Plenty of pure anilines make Diamond Dyes easy to use. They go on evenly without spotting or streaking. Try them next time and see why authorities recommend them; why millions of women will use no other dyes. You get Diamond Dyes for the same price as ordinary dyes; 15c, at any drug store.

YOU HAVE A DOCTOR'S WORD FOR THIS LAXATIVE

In 1875, an earnest young man began to practice medicine. As a family doctor, he saw the harm in harsh purgatives for constipation and began to search for something harmless to the sensitive bowels. Out of his experience was born a famous prescription. He wrote it thousands of times. It proved an ideal laxative for old and young. As people saw how marvelously the most sluggish bowels are started and bad breath, headaches, feverishness, nausea, gas, poor appetite, and such disorders, are relieved by the prescription, it became necessary to put it up ready for use. Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. It never varies from Dr. Caldwell's original effective and harmless formula. All drugstores have it.

Easy to Find

Editor Edmunds of the Manufacturer's Record was discussing international relations. "Things are looking bad," he said. "There's suspicion, there's anger, there's defiance. The speeches of leading statesmen everywhere seem to show that they are looking for trouble." Editor Edmunds shakes his head. "And looking for trouble," he concluded, "is like looking for Pike's peak in Teller county, Colorado—you can't miss it."

Those Party Lines

The old cat belonging to a woman in a Colorado village died. Her telephone is on a 12-party line, and she told her mother over the phone that she would have to get another cat. That evening two cats were left in her yard. The next day a sack containing a mother cat and five kittens was left at the gate. And within a day or two, three half-grown kittens wandered in, evidently having been left close by.
