

THE TURNER TRIBUNE

Turner, Oregon, Thursday NOV 14, 1929

F. H. Ramsey, Editor

Issued Every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR. Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the country for which it stands. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We hear with increasing frequency the disturbing question "What is the matter with the American home? Is there anything the matter with the American home? We are inclined to think there might be. With this thought in view we have arranged for a series of articles to be published exclusively in the Tribune dealing with this subject. The author of these articles, Job L. Manfred, has made his home in many cities and is familiar with the subject from all angles. He is a philosopher and psychologist. He is also a newspaper writer and lecturer. He possesses the happy knack of telling impalpable truths and driving home disconcerting facts without being pedantic or offensive. You will like him even when he makes you squirm. He handles his subjects without gloves and exerts shams, but never gets personal.

He has written some noteworthy essays on economics, Sociology, Crime and Criminals, Capital Punishment and other subjects that engross the public mind from time to time.

These articles will probably be published in book form, but in the mean time the readers of the Tribune will have the privilege of being the first to read them.

Camels are for knowing smokers!

It's just too bad if any smoker because of misinformation denies himself or herself the pleasure of CAMELS.

New smokers are not always in a position to have a real preference in cigarettes. But when they acquaint themselves with Camels they develop that sense of discrimination that leads to real smoking pleasure. Camels are made so carefully and of so good a blend of choicest cigarette tobaccos that even those with inexperienced smoking taste quickly recognize their superiority. They are for those who appreciate the taste of choice tobaccos, the fragrance of a perfect blend and the soothing mellowness of a really satisfying cigarette.

when they learn the difference they flock to Camels

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(BY JOURNALISM CLASS)

Stayton Defeats Turner High 39-0

The hard fighting team of Stayton went down under the hands of Stayton for the first time in the history of football. The Turner team showed better playing in the last half of the game.

All the students attended the game and gave much support to the team. Even though the defeat was great all students enjoyed the game as well as the ride home on the bus.

Turner and Aumsville Game Ends in Tie

A hard fought game was played Monday on the Aumsville gridiron. Both teams playing their best and the game ended with a grand score of 2-2.

This was the last game of the season and will be the last opportunity for several players who are seniors this year.

Students Receive Pictures

The High school students received their student body and class pictures on Thursday of last week. These pictures were taken several weeks ago and were late in arriving.

U. S. Army Takes in Toll Marshall Snyder, a former student of Turner High school, left Monday, November 11, for Hawaii, where he will join his friend, Robert Bauman, also a former student of Turner High. They are both taking up the study of aviation.

Junior Vaudeville Coming

All of the students are beginning to plan for the annual Junior Vaudeville to be given the first part of December.

Visitor at School

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, visited high school Thursday as well as the grade rooms upstairs.

Students Return to School

All students returned to school on Tuesday morning after a day's vacation on Armistice day.

Fire Bell Moved

The fire bell has been removed from Mr. Cox' study hall to the front entrance of the building where it can be heard much better.

The first fire drill of this school year was held Monday afternoon.

Mable Hall and Retha Davis, both students of Aumsville High, were visitors at Turner, Friday, November 8.

High School Paper Edited

Seymour Stewart and Willett Jessee were elected by the journalism class as editors of the high school paper.

They are printing enough copies of the mimeograph to furnish each student with one.

This editor will be finished by November 13th.
