John's Mother Praises Doctor

There isn't a mother living who won't sick child should be the subject for an experiment with medicines of uncertain merit. When your child is billous, head-

Cardin Parts

 $\blacklozenge$

achy, half-sick, feverish, restless, with conted tongue, bad breath, no appetite or energy, you know that nine times out of ten it's a sign his little stomach and bowels need purging. And when you know that for over fifty years leading physicians have endorsed one preparation for this condition, there doesn't seem to be any reason for "trying" things.

Rich, fruity California Fig Syrup clears the little stomach and bowels gently, harmlessly and in a hurry. It regulates the bowels, gives tone and strength to them and to the stomach; and helps to give your child new strength, energy and vitality. Thousands of Western mothers praise it. Mrs. Joseph W. Hill, 4306 Bedford Ave., Omaha, Nebraska, says: "Til never forget the doctor who got me to give my baby boy, John, California Fig Syrup. Nothing else seemed to help his weak bowels. That was when he was just a baby. He suf-fered a good deal before I gave him Fig Syrup, but ft stopped his trouble quick. I have used it with him for colds and little upset spells ever since, I consider him a Fig Syrup boy."

Insist on the genuine article. See that the carton bears the word "Callfornia." Over four million bottles used a year.

Largest "Rabbit Farm"

The Hillcrest rabbitry, at Alta Loma, Calif., is the largest in the United States. This farm contains 90 acres, with 26 rabbit sheds, each housing 2,500 rabbits. These sheds are 226 feet long by 26 feet wide.

Garfield Tea Was Your

Grandmother's Remedy

tem so prevalent these days is in even greater favor as a family medicine than in your grandmother's day.

Tide and Untied

The young man and young woman occupying the rear seat of the bus were obviously returning from a trip to Indianapolis. Oblivious to the slouching figure in the corner they chattered on. When the driver switched off the inside lights of the bus they were attracted to the appearance of the moon.

"Oh look, what a perfectly beautiful moon," she lisped.

"Yes, isn't it?" her companion "And, by the way, they say agreed. the moon affects the tide."

The figure in the corner stirred uneasily. "And also the untied," if

STORY FROM THE START

In the usually quiet home of Rev. Mr. Tolliver of Red Thrush, Iowa, 'is motherless daughters, Helen, Miriam and Ellen-"Gin-Helen, Miriam and Ellen-"Gin-ger Ella"-are busy "grooming" their sister Marjory for particl-pation in the "beauty pageant" that evening. With Eddy Jack son, prosperous young farmer, her escort, Marjory leaves for the anticipated triumph. Over-work has affected Mr. Toillver's eyes to the point of threatened blindness. Marjory wins the beauty prize, $50.00. She gives the money to her father to con-sult Chicago epecialists. Mr. Toithe money to her father to con-sult Chicago specialists. Mr Tol-liver leaves for Chicago with Mirfam. Ginger meets Alexander Murdock. Mr. Tolliver returns, the loctors giving him little hope. Ginger gets an idea for a "Parsonage Homa for the Blind" "Parsonage Home for the Blind" and solicits funds.

CHAPTER IV-Continued

-8-It was she who announced the early arrival of Horace Langley. Mopping his brow, she said he was, and cling ing like grim death to the arm of

Eddy Jackson, who iaughed at him Much later, with the final announcement that the other bridesmalds were on hand, she dispatched the twins. in pastel plak and yellow, to join the springtime bevy of orange, green mauve and rose in the primary department,

Then she led her father down the stairs to the living room, where he was to wait for Helen.

"All the who's who are there," she roclaimed blithely, "and all the hoodums are parked."

She ran up to her sister's room, and For every stomach gave a last tender touch to the white and intestinal fill. rell. "Oh, Helen," she whispered. This good old-fash-Helen took her in her arms and the loned herb home remedy for constiwo girls wept together. After all, Ginger was Helen's baby, had been pation, stomach ills Helen's from the moment when, reand other derangecurning from the little cemetery on ments of the systhe hill where her mother was laid away in flowers and snow, she ran to the upstairs room of that other old parsonage to answer the pleading wall of the orphaned baby.

"You-you mustn't." said Ginger stoutly, winking away her tears. "You'll spoli your tooks. Helen-1 wish father could see you. Now, don't

ery. I'm going right down." She smiled bravely, tearfully, at her sister, unfailing refuge of sixteen years, now leaving her, and ran down the stairs. "Tell him to wait for me just a minute, I am coming at once." Helen called after ber."

Ginger went to ber father. "Father." she said, "I must go now. Helen said for you to walt here for her just a minute-I think she's going to pray. father, she looks just like praying now much she hoped for her future.

Not a flowery letter, no literary work

With this letter, she was going to eave for Ginger a precious thing, the er's death, had been worn by her in sacred remembrance for sixteen years.

but now, with the band of her own betrothal upon her haad, and soon to be enforced by the wedding circlet.

she would pass this treasure on to Ginger. She had intended to leave per farewell message on the dressing

table of the room they had occupied together, but now, upon sudden impulse, thinking of Ginger, she knew would do upon her return. She would fly straight up the wabbly ladder to her private sanctuary in the attic.

where, alone with her loneliness, she would weep out her beart to exhaus

Helen smiled to herself with quivering lips. "The darling," she whis-eyes noted the pads of paper, the well sharpened pencils, the little old foli's trunk, the pigeon-nole of letters

"Oh, Ginger, my darling," she whis

pered, and wept again for leaving her

But she wiped away the tears laid her tion, and fall asleep.

farling, she is coming.

cloud in her airy gown.

Ginger," on the table, with the ring in a velvet box beside it. . . . . .

The bride in stately white and es corted by a fairy-like vision in dainty blue frills, floated along the familiar old path across the velvety lawn. low murmur of admiration drifted down the walk, and Helen, smiling, lifted a hand to her townsfulk in friendly greeting. Ginger, leaving the bride at the door of the primary room already vacated by the maids in their slow procession, flew around the church and grabbed her father.

Slowly, solemnly, rose the strains of the wedding march. Eddy Jackson breathing hard, accompanied the groom to the white chalk marks placed for them before the altar. Down the ribboned aisle tripped small white fairles, sprinkling dowers, after them the bridesmalds in pastel, rainbow tinted gowns, after them, the bride, serene, unruffled, sweet-eyed.

Ginger, cool and slight in her crisp olue, with a firm finger on her fa ther's arm. led him slowly down the aisle and placed him squarely upon the chalk mark, before she went to stand by Helen, serving the double role as maid of honor to her sister. and as her father's escort.

pered, and Wept Again for Leav ing Her.

"I do," murmured Helen sweetly, The familiar voice of her father. resonant and low, unbreaking, con tinued the service. And presently Helen's hand was in that of Horace Oh, father, she is beautiful She A great tump rose in Ginger's small throat. And in the mementary breath looks like a picture of a Madonna tess silence that followed Helen leaned with all kinds of secret happy forward, put both arms around her thoughts in her heart that gobody father's shoulders, and kissed him else knows anything about. Just wait tenderly. Helen was married-it was all over. And Ginger tripped daintily down With laughter and kisses, and many the flagstone path like a floating blue gay words, the crowd surged down to the Sunday school room for the buffet In the living room Mr. Tolliver. luncheon served by the Rutheans And accustomed to patience by weeks of when the proper moment came. Helen blindness, waited quietly. But Helen. slipped away from the others, and in the room she shared with Ginger. went into the small room beside the was not praving. Helen was not a puiplt where she changed quickly sentimental girl, but one of deep fine from her bridal robes to trim black feeling, much of which centered and white, for traveling. And then around the baby sister whom she had just a very little later, there was a so long held as her especial charge. cub at the curb, and the guests from Helen was not going sway bruskly to within flocked out to mingle fra nappy marriage without a final tender ternally with those equally interested word and gesture for the child who outside. would come home ionely in her ab-Horace took Helen's hand in his. sence. She had written Ginger a letand in a shower of flowers and rice. ter-written it the night before ber they ran down the walk. With her marriage, when girls may well be foot on the running board of the car excused if their every thought is for she paused. Her eyes swept the themselves and their lovers and their small sweet ses of loved and loving hopes. Helen's were for her youngfaces. She found the bright eyes of est sister. It was for that purpose Marjory and Mirlam. found her father that she dealed herseif to Horace, and standing a little away by himself to the girls, shutting herself up for

Then she found Ginger, a small, so emp figure, with lips forced to a grim smile. And Helen tossed her great bouquet, filles of the valley, for get-me nots and tiny rosebuds. Ginger had not thought of this,

THE TRIBUNE, TURNER, OREGON

must have been sheet instinct which shot her ifthe young arms high over others to catch the precious trophy Helen smiled at her. "My Ginger." Her tips merely formed the words, but Ginger, staring read the syllables distinctly. The cab rolled away.

A shout of laughter, a chorus of prophecies, surrounded Ginger, with the captured bridal bouquet in her hand. But she heard none of it. She was going home. She answered no smiling thrusts, called no responsive greetings, to the merry throng about her. She just set her small face toward the old brown door, and her dient little feet carried her lead enly toward it.

Up the stairs, heavily, heavily, and down the hall to the bedroom she had shared with Helen. The room looked strange-big and roomy. She marveled at its bigness, for she and Helen had often complained 'aughingly of its slight dimensions. Suddenly she real ized. One of the little twin beds was gone, and the other, her own, was in the center of the space the wwo had occupied. Ginger's eyes burned suddenly. But she was glad that other bed was gone. She had not realized how it would have been, lying there. and gazing across at that empty plllow where Helen's brown hair, Helen's gentle face, Helen's friendly eyes, had been before.

aloud.

ers, she crossed dully to the desk by blue vase, filled with fresh water. waiting to receive them.

time that I should have ber flowers." Carefully, with fingers that seemed unfamillar and strange to her, she loosened the white ribbons, folded them carefully, and placed the flowers in the blue bowL

Then she sat down, on the solltary little twin bed, and stared at them. stared all about the room.

space at the least possible construction cost.

This house contains six rooms, three on the first floor and three on the secdrawers, and tidying the closet, so ond, all of which are of good size. The entrance door is placed near one end and leads into a hall to the right

White or Weathered

Discussing color, Charles S. Schnel- vary to allow for a still greater disto the dormer window. From force der, fellow of the American Institute tribution of downward pressure, al-

First Floor Plan.

A simplicity that is reminiscent of the early Colonial homes is the appealing characteristic of this house and its trim appearance will make It fit harmoniously in any group or setting of which it may be made a part.

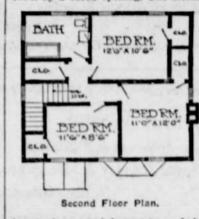

By W. A. RADFORD

DINING RM

LIVING RM

Simplicity the Keynote of This

of which is the living room, 12 feet Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF by 18 feet, to the rear of which is questions and give advice FILES OF COST on all subjects pertaining to practical home building, for the read-ers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as editor, author and manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these sub-jects Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 407 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill., and only inclose two-cent stamp for reply. the dining room, 10 feet 6 inches by 12 feet, connected with the living room by a cased opening. The kitcher is at the rear left corner and be tween it and the dining room is a breakfast nook and there is space for wall cases.

second floor, two at the front and one at the back with the fourth corner ecupied by a large bath room. It will be noted by the floor plans, which are reproduced here, that there is an unusual amount of closet space in this home, a feature that will appeal to the women members of the family. This is the type of home which will appeal to those who have not a large amount of money to invest in a house and to them who want to build a

A Healing Antiseptic All dealers are authorized to refund your meney for th first bottle if not united. same time it provides a comfortable roomy house for a good-sized family.

Willie. A week or two after the announcement had been given out she went to tea with one of her friends. "Now, dear," said this friend, "I want to hear all about it. How did Willie propose?

50.000 Users Endorse Doan's:

Banjamin Faucher, 262 Silver St. Manchester, N. H., saye: "For a time couldn't do any work, for when I hent ow my back would ache. My kidneys acte very irregularly and I fait all out of sorte After using Doan's Pills, I feit fine again.

Turned Out by Carver

Ponles and war chargers, Arabian steeds and wild west mustangs, high-stepping thoroughbreds and fleet-footed race horses, all carved from wood, come from a strange workshop in Philadelphia, where Frank Carretta

has been carving out merry-go-round horses for 30 years. Children all over the country shout their approval of his work as they circle to the noisy strains of the calliope. His lifelike reproductions are said to be in amuse

These wooden horses are made principally of white pine, a wood which has been found capable of standing the stress of weather and usage imposed upon them, says Popu-

Each year, about two hundred wooden thoroughbreds leave the workroom for their active existence at carnivals, fairs and amusement parks.

HANFORD'S

Balsam of Myrrh

ment parks from coast to coast.

lar Science Monthly,

DOAN'S PII

Thrills for Children

"He paid me a great compliment," she replied, "He said that I was the eighth wonder of the world, and that he could never live without me." "Really?" gushed the other girl. "And what was your answer?" "Oh, I told him I'd have him," said Dorls. "But I warned him at the same time that there'd be trouble if ever I caught him with one of those other seven !"

A simplicity that is reminiscent of the early Colonial homes is the appealing characteristic of this house and its trim appearance will make it fit harmoniously in with any group or setting of which it may be made a part. It is an economical house to build because of the straight lines of its foundation walls of the house itself. It is of a design which gives the home builder the greatest amount of

"She thought of that," she said

Conscious of the weight of the flowthe window. There she found a fat

"She did that. She meant all the

"That's what she was doing all morning." she thought, "fixing this room for me. Putting my things where her things had been, straightening the everything would be full of me, and wouldn't show so much emptiness of her." She got up suddenly, and turned down the hall. The ladder was against the wall. She climbed dismally, pull

Tone Very Attractive ing herself, a great weight, through the trapdoor, and crossed the beams

There are three bedrooms on the home which would be readily salable should the occasion or necessity arise. Such a home as this would appeal to the greatest number of prospects. It is rather plain but attractive. At the

She Was Jealous Doris had just become engaged to cases, where a building is being constructed over sand or soft earth, the

The Reason

Banker-No, I've not been inside a theater for the last 15 years. Actor-Ah! Then you're one of the rensons why I haven't been inside a bank for the last 15 years !"-London Humorist.

Girls no longer amuse themselves by trying on each other's hats; the hats are too much alike,

Record Gain in Butter Profits

Dairymen Who Use "Dandelion Butter Color" Say It's the Best Investment of All.

tizing June color everyhours behind a locked door, to write one likes. Ninety per to Ginger Ella telling her how much cent of them are doing she loved her, how much she had en it with "Dandelion Butloyed the years of caring for her ter Color." It's the most economical and satisfactory butof art, but one that came from Helen's ter color made. Half a teaspoonful colors a gallon of cream! It doesn't beart. color the buttermilk. It's purely vegetable and tasteless. Approved by all State and National Food Laws, Large little diamond ring that had been their mother's engagement ring. It bottles, only 35% at all drug and grocery stores or write Wells and had been given to Helen, at her moth-Richardson Co., Inc., Burlington, Vt., for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

Start Now EARN BIG MONEY MCLER SYSTEM OF COLLEGES

HOTEL ROOSEVELT SAN FRANCISCO'S NEW FINE HOTEL Svery room with bath or snower. $2.00 to $3.55. Jones at Eddy. Garage next door.

W. N. U., PORTLAND, NO. 47-1929.

2 144 M

Amethysts and Opals Used as Road Material

stone.

stone.

A street almost literally paved with | trian Bugenland, graveled with waste amethysts has been reported to the Berlin geographical society by Prof. Otto Quelle of Bonn university, says an Associated Press dispatch from Berlin,

He found it in Brazil, in the prov ince of Bahla, where he visited German gem cutters' and polishers' colonies that have mined and handled 9,000 hundredweight of amethyst. Whole streets, he said, are paved with the waste material, that gives them a lovely violet sheen. Doctor Quelle said he knows of a place in Siberia where opnis are so plentiful that the coarse grades are used as road building material.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung reports roads at Bernstein, in the Aus-

National Capitol Pictures

"The Baptism of Pocahontas," "The Embarkation of the Pilgrims," "The Landing of Columbus" and "The Discovery of the Mississippi River" are merely conceptions of the artists, while other pictures hung on the walls of the rotunda in the Capitol at Washington are true to life and events. These are the Trumbull paintings-"The Declaration of Independence, "The Surrender of General Burgoyne at Saratoga," "The Surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown" and "General Washington Resigning His Commission as Commander in Chief of the Continental Armies"-and were done by the artist from sketches made where the events took place and with per sonal acquaintance with most of the letter in its sealed envelope, "My characters depicted.

of-habit, she drew the small stool up to the table, and reached for her pad. And then she saw a white en relope

"My Ginger."

She picked up the letter. It was then she saw the velvet box. She opened it curiously-a small diamond. in an old-fashioned setting-her mother's engagement ring that Helen had worn for sixteen years. Ginger held it in her hand a long time, and stared into the dim recesses of the dusty old room with grave, glad, wondering and yellows, sad browns and mustards. This was to her a symbol of eyes. Helen's trust.

"If I'm not a whole lot better after this, I'm a whole lot worse than I think I am," she decided finally. "I know Helen expects me to keep a motherly eye on father and the twins. and I shall not disappoint her. Oh. how pleased she'll be when she bears about my home for the blind." There was a certain confidence in per manner as she slipped the small gold hand upon her finger. After all alrendy, she had taken the family trees. If one wants to be relieved of the cost of keeping a white house white, then good taste demands the use of tones which wood naturally affairs in charge. The first links of takes on when exposed to weather. her chain were firmly forged. (TO BE CONTINUED)

"There are stains on the market which approximate these weather tones. Weathered tones are good because they are natural and although full of variety they are never loud nor flashy."

This is most decidedly bad taste.

"White is always satisfactory. It affords an excellent surface for the play of shades and shadows cast by details on the house itself by folinge or by passing clouds and it forms a dominant note of contrast whether set

Here's Correct Way to

from the semi-precious serpentine Build Up a Foundation Upon completion of suitable con-In the same country, near Rejnitz crete footing the contractor should are roads of a beautiful green shade. proceed with the construction of founsaid to be free from dust. They are dation walls. surfaced with waste from asbestic

Assuming that a twelve-inch concrete wall is to be poured over the footing, allow a six-inch projection on either side of the foundation for equal weight distribution. In some

Small House of Brick

Has Low Upkeep Figure By disseminating the information among small wage carners that the small brick house actually costs no more than a house of less durable con struction, if the upkeep costs are taken into account for a period of ten or twelve years, it is felt that this industry is rendering a real service.

> And not only the wage earner but people who are in easier financial circumstances do not always realize the truth of the economics of home building, taking one material as against another. And in the long run building the walls of homes with brick does not work a hardship on the lumber Industry.

Government experts and others have pointed out that the forests of the country are diminishing at an alarming rate, and the present production of lumber cannot continue for a great many more years. To build homes of Whittington Lake park. The springs brick is to conserve lumber. Just as Springs mountain, and their aggregate the house for partitions, floors and would entail.

of Architects, says in the Cleveland though the thickness of the foundation News that for the frame house good wall above would not be affected.

The contractor will proceed in taste limits us to two choices for the color of exterior walls. He writes: either one of two ways with the er-s-"The house with siding walls should tion of the wood forms for the walls, invariably be white or near white. The proper method is to excavate at The house with shingle walls dependleast 18 inches beyond the exterior ing upon its design may either be side of the wall in order that an outwhite or some weathered tone apside form may be built. Upon the proaching as nearly as possible the completion of this outside form, the color of wood long exposed to the contractor should proceed with the weather. Let us have no more walls construction of the inside form; these of shingles stained in billous greens should be properly braced.

Suitable wire, used in tension, and wood blocks not smaller than two by two inches, used in compression, should be used between the forms to insure proper separation. These blocks are removed as concrete is poured. It is better to have all walls poured at once.

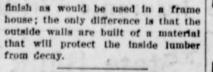

against the cool green of summer The mix for concrete for poured foliage, the glowing colors of autumn foundations is usually one part port or the dark gray tracery of winter land cement, two and a half parts clean sand and five parts screened aggregate (gravel not less than threequarter inch up to broken stone not larger than two inches). This type of wall can best be waterproofed by use of a powder or liquid compound. made for the purpose, mixed into the concrete, or coating exterior surfaces with asphalt after forms are removed.

Novel Window Sill

A window sill made from the web and sides of hollow building tile which have been broken up and split, and the tile slabs laid one on the top of the other with about a three-quarter inch bond of cement, gives a pleasing effect on a house of brick or stucco.

It not only brings about a splendid sill, but it also adds a most interesting texture detail to the exterior.

Good Floor Finish

Two coats of oil and wax, with no filler or varnish, is an excellent method of finishing oak flooring. It has an appearance distinctly different, from the standard filler and varnish job. A choice between the two is practically a matter of taste.

Closet Window

If a window is put in a closet there is no musty, dusty smell; clothes are easily distinguished and the contents of the closet are much more easily cared for.

Brick for Renovating

Face brick is a popular medium for modernizing old homes. Often an attractive home is salvaged out of the old house at a fraction of the cost that much wood is used in the interior of a new dwelling of similar appearance

Very Popular

Mabel-Has Harry any particular following?

Margle-Yes; he has at least a dozen creditors following him,

Accidentally an Arkansas lady cured fits in a valuable dog with Russ Ball Elue. Many others now use it. Never falls, she says,-Adv.

Not a "Confirmed" Liar

"He is a confirmed liar, isn't he?" "Not exactly, nobody has ever confirmed anything he said."-Vancouver Province.

My business is to teach my aspirations to conform themselves to fact, not to try and make facts harmonize with my aspirations - Huxley,

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps Her So Much

Pittsburgh, Pa.-"I was just com-pletely run-down. I had tired, heavy, and I could not eat.

I was losing in weight. I read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vego-table Compound and what a good medicine it is, that I started taking it. I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege table Compound and about the same in tablet form. This is one medicine a woman should have in the house all the time. I am improv-ing every day and I sure am able to eat. I am willing to answer any letters I get asking about the Vegetable Com-pound."-Mas. ELLA RICHARDS, 21 Chautauqua St. N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

are grouped about the base of Hot flow is $51,308 gallons a day.

Spring is from the Anglo-Saxon "spring," meaning "a source of water a springing, a rising or leaping," prob ably in reference to the coming out o young shoots at this time of the year Summer is from the Sanskrit "sama, meaning "year." Autumn is from the Latin "autumnus"-perhaps connected with "augere," past participle "auc-

Explaining Seasons' Names

There is some doubt as to how the names of the seasons originated

tus," meaning "increase," autumn be ing the season of produce. Winter is from the Gothle "wintris"; prob ably originally it meant the "snows time."

Hot Springs National Park

making the first national park reserva Springs -National park. It contains 924 acres and includes Hot Springs mountain, North mountain, West mountain, Sugar Loaf mountain and

In 1832 the Hot Springs and four sections of land surrounding them were set aside by act of congress. thus tion. In 1921 the name was changed from Hot Springs reservation to Hot