CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to all neighbors and friends for their sympathy and help during the death and burial of our little Marjery, for the many beautiful floral offerings and to the members of the Christian church for use of their church and for the music.

FOURTH ANNUAL VAUDEVILLE HAS LARGE TURNOUT

The fourth annual vaudeville of the Turner high school was presented by the student body to one of the largest attendances ever reported in the high school. All tickets were sold and the home-made candy quickly disposed of, netting the treasury $104.35 which will be used for various school interests.

The stage and building was appropriately decorated for the vaudeville. Much credit goes to the faculty, Principal John R. Cox, Mrs. Jean Pearcey and Prof. D. B. Parkes, who directed the students in the various humorous numbers. Several features outside of the high school were presented at the vaudeville by talent from Salem.

FUNERAL RITES ARE HELD FROM TURNER

Funeral services were held in the Turner Christian church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for little Marjory Welborn of Toledo, who died Wednesday at her home. She contracted the flu a year ago, which resulted in heart trouble, causing her death. The little girl was six years and eight months old and is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S.
Welborn of Toledo, a sister, Cleone, and a brother, Gale; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.
G. W. Hunsaker of Turner, and many other relatives and friends.
