Melvin Baker, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker is reported to be quite sick with the mumps.

Stanford Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prather, has been quite sick for several days. The little chap was threatened with pneumonia.

Last week we received a copy of the booklet "Come to Oregon" published by the Salem Chamber of Commerce. With the exception of a few things that may be somewhat exaggerated, it, on the whole, gives a very good description of Marion county and the Willamette valley including a very nice writeup of the city of Turner.

Leg Barber has joined the ranks of the hunters and trappers since retiring from the grocery business. Last Saturday he bagged two skunk. One was a fine specimen of the black skunk family. These pelts are quite valuable.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Tucker, of Salem, were guests at the G. A.
McKay home for the week end.
Mr. Tucker is hauling wood through here to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Brasher, of Salem, were were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs.
Brasher's mother, Mrs. L. M.
Barzee.

Crowds of the young folks have been enjoying the heavy snow to the limit the past week.
Almost continually day and night there have been coasting parties on the Turner hill. At this writing there have been no accident to mar the fun.

Mrs. I. E. Putnam is still quite sick. It is reported that she shows slight improvement.

The case against Joe Piser which is pending in the circuit court has been continued to the February term.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards entertained their daughter, Mrs.
Ruth Sande, of Alameda, Cal., over the holidays. The teachers were entertained at the Edwards home last Thursday evening.

The high school mid-year exams were held this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rawlings have returned to their former home in Portland. They have been employed at the Mayo Mc-Kinney farm for about a year.
Owing to Mr. Rawlings' health it was found necessary for him to do out side work. Their young daughter will remain with her grand parents for a time.

Norman, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Whitehead Jr., suffered a painful accident Tuesday as he was leaving for school.
He jumped off the porch and struck his head on the clothes line and was knocked backwards receiving a bad cut on his head.
He was unconscious for a short time.

Automobile traffic has continued with difficulty during the snow. Marion county was reported to have sent out graders to clear the snow off the roads. The Jefferson-Marion-Turner road and the Cloverdale market road were to have been cleared Saturday but at the present writing the graders have not appeared on the scene.

The snow, wind and freezing weather have kept the section crew busy keeping the switches and crossings clear of snow and ice.

The basketball game between Turner and Aumsville, Friday night, resulted in the defeat of the Turner boys with a score of 35 to 29 and the Turner girls with a score of 30 to 1.

The Turner Dairy Association will hold their annual meeting during the month of February.
Program will be announced later.

Mill City, Oregon-Owing to the icy roads and very cold stormy weather conditions a small crowd greeted Ted Thye and Tarro Miyake in the wrestling bout here Tuesday night. Thye won by two or three falls. In a real thriller Cliff White, of Lebanon, won by one fall in a full thirty minute go. Our next show will probably be boxing Feb. 11th, Frisco McGale, Seattle vs Jimmy Dolon, Portland and Red Hayes, Stayton vs Terry Killeen, Independence.

Mr. Catterson moved his family from the Bloom property to the Baker Apartments, Monday.

A few of the men of the Methodist church braved the elements last Wednesday and went to west Salem to attend the regular monthly meeting of The Methodist Mens Brotherhood of the Salem District.

G. W. Farris and Mrs. B. G.
Briggs received a Telegram announcing the death of their mother at Glade Springs, Va., at the age of 90 years. Mrs. Farris was a resident of Turner some years ago.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The high school basketball team will play their next scheduled game with Mill City here at the local gymnasium.

The semester examinations were held Wednesday and Thursday of this week. There will be no school Friday so as to give the teachers time to correct the papers.

Many of the students are ill, mostly due to the bad weather and have been unable to attend school this week.
