

"Will-yum, have you finished that pipe?"

YOU don't have to take the old briar outdoors if you fill it with Sir Walter Raleigh's tobacco. Wives like the fragrance of Sir Walter—husbands say it's the mildest, mellowest smoke that ever came out of the South. And the gold foil wrapping inside the tin keeps it fresh to the very last pipeful. Sir Walter can bring your pipe out of the woodshed into the parlor.

Many Unpaved Roads Although it is spending $1,500,000,000 a year for improved roads, the United States still has far to go before it reaches perfection, notes Walter P. Chrysler, writing in the Farm Journal. The nation's total highway mileage is 3,013,584 miles, and only 225,000 miles are hard-surfaced. However, the larger part of the remainder, although unpaved, has been made comfortable for traveling.

Huge Base for Mussolini Monolith

Here are eighty-six tons of marble being moved through St. Peter's square in Rome. It is the giant block which will serve as a base for the lofty monolith in the new Mussolini stadium which is under construction. Curved strips of soaped wood were used to transport the heavy block.

Just a Little Smile

AT LAST

A man decided he and his son would take a drive in their new car. As they entered the car, the father said to the boy: "Now, if you see a motor cycle cop coming behind us, you tell Papa." They settled down to driving and the car crept up to 30 miles, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55 and finally to 60 miles an hour. Suddenly the little boy cried: "Papa, the man you were expecting is here."—Pacific Power and Light Bulletin.

Adam Never Heard It

Whatever trouble Adam had, he was in days of yore. So Adam said when Adam told a joke, "I've heard that one before."

Melodious Publicity

"We get some fine classical music by radio." "And yet most of the classical writers died poor." "Luck broke against them. They got into action before they could command the compensation that would now be due them as ad writers."—Washington Star.

The Superirate

Captain Kidd—What's this I hear about your reforming and quitting the high seas? Sir Henry Morgan—Reform nothing! I've abandoned the seas, but I have invested my money in a number of apartment buildings and a chain of delicatessen stores.

Straying Off the Reservation

Baldwin—Hey! Lay off the back of my neck. I ordered a scalp massage. Clippit, the Barber—Beg pardon, sir. There was nothin' to mark the boundary line and I overran.

Frustrated

Dub—I suppose you'd like to see your son become a captain of industry? Dub—Yes, but my wife thinks pugilism is too brutal.

MUST FEEL RELIEVED

"My wife's tongue is never still. She talked her head off this morning." "How relieved you must feel."

Easier to Handle

"You hit your husband with a chair? Pray tell me why you did it, Mabel." "I did it," sighed the lady fair, "because I could not lift the table."

A Success Story

"Busy" was the word from the inner office when Mr. Salesman called. Nothing daunted, he wrote across a card: "That's why I am calling. I haven't any time to waste on loafers," and sent it in again. "This time he got in."

Logical Solution

Professor—So the ship hugged the shore? And where was the shore? Student—I suppose it was in the hold of the vessel.

As Far as He Got

Bunk—I understand from good authority, he's writing for the magazine. Bink—Well, it's true in a certain sense. They were delayed in the mail and he wrote and asked to have another copy sent.

Our Cynics

"Father, what is a 'cine'?" "Cine," my boy, is police pronunciation for 'glue.' It means they're stuck."

Just as Reasonable

"Six feet in his boots!" exclaimed Mrs. Platt. "Yes," said Mr. Platt. "Nonsense! Why, they might as well tell me that the man had six heads in his hat!"

Wonderful

Sherlock—Ah! This letter was written by a radical communist. Watson—How do you deduce that? Sherlock—He scrupulously avoids the use of capital letters.

Needless Pain! People are often too patient with pain. Suffering when there is no need to suffer. Shopping with a head that throbs. Working though they ache all over. And Bayer Aspirin would bring immediate relief! The best time to take Bayer Aspirin is the moment you first feel the pain. Why postpone relief until the pain has reached its height? Why hesitate to take anything so harmless? Read the proven directions for checking colds, easing a sore throat; relieving headaches and the pains of neuritis, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc. You can always count on its quick comfort. But if pain is of frequent recurrence see a doctor as to its cause.

Wife's System Now comes a housewife and reveals her secret for marital bliss. She says that every time she gets angry with her husband she does not say anything to him but sits down and writes out what she feels like telling him. She puts the note away for three days. Then if she has changed her mind she destroys it, but if she still feels the same way she gives him the note. Coast to Coast good Grocers sell and recommend Russ Ball Blue. Better value than any other.—Adv. Active Young Scamp Hal Itosis—Is your baby still in rompers? Sal Hepatica—Well, he's still when he sleeps in 'em. Stockings woven of human hair were worn by basket-maker Indians who lived in the Southwest about 2,000 years ago. Whale Pulled Boat A ride on a whale was taken by two brothers. While they were fishing from a flat-bottomed boat off the Donegal (Ireland) coast their craft began to move swiftly along. After going fifty yards the boat's headlong career was checked and soon it lay rocking gently on the calm water. The brothers declare that when they looked over the side they saw the bulk of a huge whale vanishing into the depths, directly underneath their tiny vessel. Should Have Known While bathing at a French seaside resort, an income tax collector was attacked by a shoal of jellyfish, but one of any such occupation should have known just exactly what to do under the circumstances.—Fort Wayne News-Sentinel. No matter what lessens, there is one thing that there is always more of—history.

Mothers don't neglect your child's COUGH or COLD

GOOD old Musterole now made milder for babies and small children. So pleasant to use and so reliable—apply Children's Musterole freely to the infected area once every hour for five hours. Give It a Chance "I like the house, but it's small." "What can you expect? It is only three years old." 'Nuff Sed Coleslaw—Why don't you play poker? Caviar—My wife plays bridge. Why the Chastisement? He—Look, your captain is going to kick the goal! She—What did the goal do?

If Baby has COLIC A cry in the night may be the first warning that Baby has colic. No cause for alarm if Castoria is handy! This pure vegetable preparation brings quick comfort, and can never do the slightest harm. Always keep a bottle in the house. It is the safe and sensible thing when children are ailing. Whether it's the stomach, or the little bowels; colic or constipation; or diarrhea. When tiny tongues are coated, or the breath is bad. Whenever there's need of gentle regulation, Children love the taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it suitable for the tiniest infant, and for frequent use. And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than some needlessly strong medicine meant only for adult use. Genuine Castoria always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Prescribed by doctors!
