

THE TURNER TRIBUNE

SUBSCRIPTION $1.25 PER YEAR. Entered at the Postoffice at Turner, Oregon, as second-class matter, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Issued Every Thursday at Turner, Marion County, Oregon AUBREY L. FLETCHER, Editor

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and the country for which it stands. One nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Six Months Debate

On March 8th the Senate closed six months debate on the tariff. Six months of valuable time wasted and there is still 75 separate amendments to be voted on. Is there a good reason for so much wasted time? Why waste valuable time in useless argument when there is so much real legislation needed? Why waste this time when there are millions of unemployed in the country some of whom are reduced to stealing to get the necessities of life. Why dally along on some pet measure when the southland is in danger of another disastrous flood. The time that is wasted in debate on a tariff whose chief beneficiaries are the big interests, when the millions of unemployed are in need of relief, the southland in need of flood control, immigration becoming a serious menace to the country and many other important classes of legislation needing attention. Is it the greatest benefit to the country to pass up this vital legislation and spend from six months to a year arguing on a tariff? If the congressional orators will get down to earth and forget the unnecessary debate on the tariff and enact some practical legislation for the benefit of the rank and file of the citizens there would be some reasonable excuse in sending them to Washington.

William Howard Taft

Last Friday afternoon the "grim reaper" claimed the life of the only man in the history of the country who has filled the two highest offices in the government, that of president and chief justice of the supreme court. William Howard Taft has rounded out long years of service to his government in the official capacities of judge, solicitor general, governor general of the Philippines, secretary of war, president of the United States and finally the exalted position of chief justice. Like all statesmen Mr. Taft was criticized severely at times but came to the end meriting the respect of practically every citizen of this country.

Chief Justice Taft was preceded in death only a few hours by his friend Associate Justice Sanford. At the same time Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes was celebrating his 89th birthday.

After a long and illustrious career William Howard Taft was laid to rest with full military honors in Arlington cemetery thus ending the life of a statesman.
