

State Fair Exhibit
Attracting Finest of Nation's Cattle

Salem, Ore.—(Special) — Cattle from the finest herds in the United States are assured for the Oregon State fair this year, with the announcement that all danger of infection will be eliminated by rigid adherence to the new rule providing for compulsory contagious abortion tests for all animals entered in the dairy exposition, it was declared by officials recently.

The disease-free exhibition here Sept. 22 to 28 will be the first of its kind ever held, and contrary to early predictions the stringent conditions are attracting a much larger number of cattle from exhibitors who heretofore have been hesitant in allowing their finest animals to be entered in fair competition.

Applications from new livestock exhibitors are coming in rapidly, according to Mrs. Ella S. Wilson, secretary of the state fair board, with many from midwest and eastern farms.

Among the new entries are: Troutmere Guernsey farm, La Honda, Cal.; F. F. Pellisiers & Sons, Whittier, Cal.; F. M. Rothrock Co., Spokane, Wn.; Sunny Croft Stock farm, Monroe, Wis.; Lillard Stock farm, Arlington, Tex.; R. E. Strutz & Sons, Jamestown, N. D.; Olson Bros., Fargo, N. D.; Woodhull Farms, Darlow, Kan.; Franklin C. Beatty, Walla Walla, Wa.; Flathead farms, Kalispell, Mont.; C. P. R. farms, Strathmore, Alberta.; and Charles Ule, Carstairs, Alberta.

Entries in all branches of the exposition are coming in daily, and are far ahead of last year's record in nearly all departments, it was announced. With $89,000 in premiums and purses, in addition to $17,500 in prizes for horse racing events, offered as the reward for exhibitors, the fairgrounds are expected to be taxed to capacity to accommodate scores of later entrants.

Many Entries in Rabbit Show
Salem, Ore. — (Special) — The largest rabbit show sponsored by any similar exposition west of the Mississippi river will be held in connection with the Oregon State fair here, Sept. 22 to 28, it has been announced.

Fast Horses Promised
Salem, Ore. — (Special) — The fastest horse races in a decade are predicted for the 69th Oregon State fair here, Sept. 22 to 28, with many new stables entered in competition for the $17,500 in prizes.
