Adding Machine Stolen Friday

The office of the Oregon Grain Co.'s mill was entered through a broken window Friday night by prowlers who made away with an adding machine and a dollar's worth of stamps.

When George E. Givens, night-watcher, made a report to Salem authorities, he was informed that an organized gang was working up and down the coast and were specializing in office equipment. R. Lee Thiessen, manager of the mill, places the value of the adding machine at $100.

Missed Them

"There was a doctor at school this mornin', examined us, and he said I had ad'noids," said Mickey.

"Phwat's thim?" asked his mother. "They're things in your head as has to be taken out," answered Mickey.

W. C. T. U. SPONGERS RECEPTION FOR SCHOOL FAGULTY MONDAY

Pride and interest were expressed in the beautiful decorations at the Turner high school when the reception for the teachers, sponsored by the W. C. T. U., was held Monday evening.

The program was put on in a unique way—a radio station THS with Mrs. Gayette Barnett as announcer and Mrs. E. S. Prather as station manager.

The first number to come in was a piano solo by Mary Miller followed by the invocation by Rev. Wm. S. Burgoyne.

A hearty address of welcome on behalf of the community was made by Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, while C. A. Bear voiced the welcome of the school board, with Prof. John Cox responding in behalf of the teachers.

Mrs. Madeline Callin of Salem gave a very interesting talk and Mrs. Wm. S. Burgoyne, sang with Mrs. May Hadley as accompanist.

Refreshments were served in the new domestic science rooms.

The members of committees who worked faithfully to make this meeting a success were Mrs. Earl Prather, chairman, Mrs. Wm. S. Burgoyne, Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap, Mrs. J. S. Webb and Mrs. S. J. Rowley.

Visits Daughter

C. C. Tucker of Reedsport came Saturday for a visit with his daughter, Miss Mable Tucker, clerk at the E. J. Harrison general store. Sunday Mr. Tucker and daughter, in company with Mrs. Stella Miller and Archie Rankin went on a sightseeing tour, going to Mt. Angel, Silverton, Salem, Dallas and Independence, and like many others, Mr. Tucker was enthused with the beauties of this fair valley. It was his first visit to this part of Oregon. Wednesday, Mr. Tucker and Mr. Rankin left for Eugene for a visit with the senior Mr. Tucker and where Mr. Tucker's brother joined them for a hunting trip in the mountains east of Eugene.

Mix Some Play With That Work

If your nose is close to the grandstone rough,
And you hold it down there long enough,
In time you'll say there's no such thing
As brooks that babble and birds that sing,
These three will all your world compose—
Just YOU, the STONE and your darned old NOSE.
—Hubbard Enterprise.

Cloverdale

Mrs. Pearcey was the dinner guest of Mrs. Mata Garner on Friday evening.

Rachel and Florence Garner went to Salem with Mrs. Pearcey, Friday evening, returning home Sunday.

Louis Hennies has been quite sick with tonsillitis.

L. E. Hennies and his nephew, Henry Hennies are away on a hunting trip.

Ivan Hadley and Earl Hedges have finished their seeding for the fall. Sam Drager had Mr. Vom's with his tractor to disk his fields this fall.

Mrs. J. N. Robertson and Miss Grace Robertson called on Mrs. Jay Cook, Tuesday evening.

W. Anderson is renting a field of Mr. Dumbek this year.

Mistake In Size

Last week there was a mistake made in the blanket ad of Harrison's store of Turner. The ad read 36x80 blankets at $3.19. The size of the blankets should have been 66x80. Mr. Harrison said a blanket 36x80 wasn't big enough to cover a flea and we quite agree with him, but laying all jokes aside, those are real blankets and the price is also real. Drop into Harrison's store in Turner and look them over.

Christian Church

In agreement with the general theme of the convention Rev. Gilstrap spoke Sunday morning on "Paul's Good, Victorious Fight."

At the close of the morning service three men and two women came forward to take membership with the church.

The whole attention in the church and Sunday school just now seems to be centered on Sunday, October 19. This is their homecoming and rally day. Plans were announced for special musical attractions and a big basket dinner is being arranged for noon. They announced their aim for Sunday school attendance at 166 and some predict 200.

Next Sunday is promotion day in the Sunday school looking forward to rally day. An increased attendance is expected in each class.

In the absence of Dr. Epley, Prof. Kenneth Hickok led the singing at all the Sunday services. He proved himself to be a good leader and entered into the spirit of the C. E. convention holding sessions here during the afternoon and evening.

There were one hundred and twenty-two present at the Bible school and more than one hundred of these were of this community. Several of the convention visitors remained with us for the morning church and Sunday school hour.

Harold Briggs, chauffeur for Col. Hofer of Portland, editor of the Manufacturer, left on a motor trip with the Hofer family for Chicago and other points. He expects to be gone a month.

MADELL EVES OF HONOLULU ENTERTAINED AT PRATHER HOME

Complimenting her house guest, Mrs. Madelle Eves of Honolulu, Mrs. Earl S. Prather entertained Saturday evening for a group of young Turner matrons. Brilliant autumn flowers, zinnias, marigolds and nasturtiums decorated the rooms for the occasion.

Diversions of the evening were games and contests, Mrs. Earl Bear winning the first prize and Mrs. U. S. Talbot the second prize. Mrs. Eves told in an interesting manner of the characteristics of the native Hawaiians, and explained the stories of the originality of the native Hula dance. Pictures in natural colors of the beautiful flowers and scenery were also shown by Mrs. Eves.

The hostess served refreshments to the following guests: Mrs. Madelle Eves of Honolulu, the honored guest, Mrs. Neal Edwards, Mrs. Donald S. Riches, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., Mrs. L. C. Ball, Mrs. J. S. McKinney, Mrs. Douglas B. Parkes, Mrs. U. S. Talbot, Mrs. Earl Bear, Mrs. Clifford Ennsley, Mrs. E. E. Ball, Mrs. William S. Burgoyne and the hostess, Mrs. Prather.

Ex-Gov. Pierce To Speak at Jeff

A political rally will be held at Jefferson on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Ex-Governor Walter M. Pierce of La Grande and Mr. Harlan of Portland doing the talking. The different measures that will come before the voters at the November election will be discussed by the speakers.
