WANTED TO RENT—Small acreage with building, suitable for chicken ranch. E. Robinson, Route 1, Box 70, Thiensville, Wis.

Word from E. Robinson at Thiensville, Wis., states that he is leaving that place early in December to make his home in the vicinity of Turner and he wants to rent a house, cottage or shack.

Kenneth Hickok, commercial teacher in the high school, went to Portland where he spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

Miss Catherine Champier entertained members of the Junior class and several friends Saturday evening.

The contract has been let to J. M. Bones by the war department for the improving of the rifle range on the Dr. W. Carlton Smith place north of town.

Rev. E. Goerlich, S. D. S. of Shaw, was taken to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland the past week for medical attention. Rev. Felix of Grand Ronde took him down.

Mrs. Cornelia Davis and Miss Mary Davis were the guests of Mr. Gilstrap on a motor trip to Independence, where they were the dinner guests of Mrs. Davis' cousin, Mrs. Joseph McCloud and husband.

Mrs. Fanny Cole left Saturday morning on the 5:06 train for her home in Glade Spring, Va. She has spent the past two months here with her brother, George Farris, and wife.

Mrs. Loreta Farris and sons, Marvin and Elvin, were here from Wren for a three days' visit with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Farris.

T. T. Palmer and family, who reside northwest of town, have had Mr. Palmer's sister from Portland as their house guest the past week.

Something new in rayon pajamas. You must see them to appreciate the wonderful buy at $1.95. Howard's Corset Shop, 165 N. Liberty street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones and children, Harlan, Ruth and Keith, were Saturday and Sunday visitors at the J. H. Elston home in Brownsville. On Sunday a family dinner was served in honor of M. Elston's birthday. Relatives from Crawfordsville were also present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Barber and children have gone to Halsey, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bilyeu, parents of Mrs. Barber. Mr. Barber recently returned from the Cascade summit, where he had employment.

D. B. Parks left Monday for Portland, where he entered the veterans' hospital for medical treatment. Mr. Parks was gassed while serving overseas during the World war and has never regained his good health. He has been having trouble with infection in his hand and foot.

Among the aristocrats at the International Stock Show in Portland this week is the world's champion Holstein cow, Side Hill Ormsby Segis from the Firestone Herd, Akron, Ohio. She gives 17 gallons of milk each day. Oh boy! we would like to see her royal highness.

A letter received from Mrs. Anna Nichols states that her mother, Mrs. E. C. Baker, who has been in the St. Vincent hospital for several weeks will soon be able to be removed to her home at 2049 East Burnside street, Portland. Mrs. Baker underwent two major operations, one on the forehead and one on the gland of the eye. She is doing as well as can be expected. Dr. Joyce, of the Portland clinic, was the attending attending physician, assisted in the operation by Dr. Ralph Fenton, a prominent eye specialist of Portland.

Mrs. Raymond Titus entertained the Woman's Work club of Surprise Grange, Tuesday. The usual potluck dinner was served at the noon hour. Hallowe'en decorations were used on the table with black cats as place cards. The afternoon passed pleasantly with the business meeting and a social time. Those present were Mrs. Wm. Butzky, Mrs. P. E. Thomas, Mrs. Thomas Little, Mrs. C. T. White, Mrs. U. E. Denyer, Mrs. Chas. Ramsdell, Mrs. Fred Steiner, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mrs. George Crume, and Mrs. A. L. Denyer.

The home of Mrs. Earl S. Prather was the scene of a Hallowe'en party on Saturday afternoon for a large group of youthful schoolmates and friends of her son, Stanford Jr. Bronze chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, intermingled with witches, black cats, jack-o-lanterns and owls formed the colorful decorations of the rooms. Upon arrival the guests were presented with Hallowe'en favors, and a jolly afternoon spent in playing games and pranks. An impromptu program also pleased the children, all participating in the fun, after which they matched pumpkins to determine partners for the luncheon hour.

A spooky jack-o-lantern and glowing orange tapers centered the table, and the Hallowe'en motif was also carried out in the refreshments. Mrs. Leota Sloan, primary teacher in the Turner school, was a special guest at the party.

Young guests invited to the affair were Eleanor Parkes, Barbara Roberts, Kathleen Sparkes, Hazel Peterson, Ruth Burgoyne, Gernel Gilstrap, Jean Ball, Mary Peterson, Lorraine Barnett, Lenore Myers, Bernadine White, Marion Parkes, Alice Roberts, Evelyn Jensen, Ruth Bones, Dorothy Schifferer, Eleanor Fowler, Betty Jean Peetz, Marjorie McKay, Melvin Baker, Morris Sparks, Edward Hatfield, Gordon Thiessen, Lowell Hadley, Henry Hatfield, Reese Lynn, James Boyer, Bobby Ball, Arthur Parkes, Jack Crawford, Herschel Peterson, Ellis Thiessen, Leslie Catterson, Lester Bones, Robert Hatfield, Eugene Harrison and Stanford Prather Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Prather and son, Stanford, Jr., were in McMinnville, Sunday, where they attended the family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hutchens, complimenting Mrs. Prather's father on his birthday anniversary. All children were home excepting one son, D. W. Hutchens, who is on the U. S. S. Lexington. Other relatives were also in attendance, covers being placed for twenty at the attractively decorated table.
