

WEST STAYTON

Mrs. Palmer and children left last Tuesday for Canby, where they will be for a time.

On Wednesday a number of friends met with Mrs. Asche and helped her to quilt her friendship quilt.

Mr. and Mrs. Rider and family have gone to British Columbia for a visit with Mr. Ryder's mother.

Mrs. Nipple, Mrs. Asche and Mrs. Royse were among the visitors at the Van Osdol home. Mrs. Van Osdol has been real sick for some time but is improving at the present time and is able to be up and have visitors.

Mrs. Anna Johnson has been suffering from a badly infected thumb on her right hand and for a time it was feared she would lose the member. However, at the present time she is slowly improving.

Last Friday the Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Shields, postponed from Wednesday which is the regular meeting time. Twelve members were present, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Seymore St. Mart, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. McClellan were guests of the club. Mrs. Strickland and Mrs. Burgess were house guests for the day. The hostess served delicious pumpkin pie and coffee and all spent a most pleasant afternoon.

"It Never Rains but It Pours," is an old adage. Not only in weather but in other things. Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Asche were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Agee, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Agee and son of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Chambers and family and the senior Mr. Chambers of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Richardson of Jefferson. Mrs. J. A. Agee is Mrs. Asche's aunt and Mrs. Chambers a sister.

STAYTON

C. P. Niebert, who underwent an operation at the Stayton hospital several days ago, has been taken home. He is a patient of Dr. C. H. Brewer.

Dr. and Mrs. Davis and children were here for a visit Sunday at the home of the doctor's sister, Mrs. Floyd Humphreys. Dr. Davis practiced dentistry here for a number of years but is now practicing in Salem.

This Thursday afternoon the Women's club will hold its regular monthly meeting. This meeting is known as Book Day and a visiting lady from out of town will give a book review. Lunch will be served during the afternoon.

Last Friday evening the O. E. Gardner home was the scene of a pleasant bridge party. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Ellen Reynolds of California, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma Sloper, who was joint hostess with Mrs. Gardner. The high scores were held by Mrs. E. D. Crabtree and Marion Hunt. Mrs. Reynolds will spend the winter here.

Next Saturday the Stayton Grange will hold a cooked food sale and bazaar in the Stayton Hardware store and will wind up the day with a masked ball in the evening at their hall.

Prizes will be given for the best costume and the light fantastic will be tripped to good old time music.

At the food sale held in the hall dressed turkeys, cakes, pies and other edibles will be on sale.

It's going to be the best one of their efforts and the public is invited to attend.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johns entertained at dinner and an evening of cards Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fox and Mrs. Harry Humphreys.

Harry Humphreys and a number of his men friends were chefs that served a dainty dinner at his home Saturday evening. The evening was spent in playing cards and talking over future prosperity. Mr. Humphreys proved to be a good cook.

Miss Eileen Bauner entertained a number of her high school friends Saturday evening. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by Mabel Hall, Edward Hankle, Virgie Bradley, Leota Bradley, Bernard Minden, Amandus Frank, Leonard Zuber, Everett Kaiser, Leonard Lee and the hostess, Eileen Bauner.
